in Your bowels!

Poisons absorbed into the system from souring waste in the bowels, cause that dull, headachy, sluggish, bilious condition; coat the tongue; foul the breath; sap energy, strength and nerve-force. A little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will clear up trouble like that, gently, harmlessly, in a hurry. The difference it will make in your feelings overnight will prove its merit to you.
Dr. Caldwell studied constipation for over forty-seven years. This long experience enabled him to make his prescription just what men, women, old people and children need to make their bowels help themselves. Its natural, mild, thorough action and its pleasant taste commend it to everyone. That's why "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin" is so popular.

MISSION GROUP HOLDS MEETING

Methodist Women Hear Address by Mrs. W. R. Harris

The Woman's Missionary society of the Franklin Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Theo. S. Munday on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with twenty-odd members present.
The meeting was presided over by Mrs. George Jones, president, and much business was disposed of. The devotional part was in charge of Mrs. W. W. Sloan.
Mrs. W. R. Harris, of Asheville, the new conference corresponding secretary, gave a most interesting talk and urged upon the women more faith and prayer and a deeper study of the Bible. She also spoke of this society as being the oldest in Southern Methodism.
The date of the meeting has been changed to the first Thursday in the month as the other church auxiliaries meet on that day.
After the meeting Mrs. Munday invited the ladies into the dining room, where "more than missionary" refreshments were served.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS
THERE was at one time a Resident of, I think it was Johnstown, and he was the Hero of the Johnstown Flood. He made quite a Hero out of him. When he died he was buried as "The Hero of the Johnstown Flood." When St. Peter received him he was told to go up into the City of Heaven and make himself known to everybody in fact, to relate who he was.
The Pennsylvania resident did so. The first man he came to was an old man with a long beard. He stopped him and told him the story of the Johnstown Flood. "The old fellow didn't pay any attention to him. He thought he must be deaf."

Business Training Pays

It is a mistaken idea for a young person to feel that he does not need a business training before offering his services to a corporation, or business firm.
Many young people feel that when they finish high school they are prepared for life's work. Others finish college, and feel that they are ready to go to a position. In neither case has a young man been trained in the fundamentals of business.

The Athens Business College gives an intensive training in the subjects necessary for a business man to know. Here one can qualify as a bookkeeper learning to keep correctly a record of all transactions of the firm, and to close its business to profit or loss, giving the firm an insight monthly as to its earnings or losses. Such a man is valuable to the business firm.

The Athens Business College also teaches shorthand and typewriting enabling its students to take rapid and difficult dictation accurately, and to transcribe from shorthand notes in the form of letters to be sent out, or documents to be filed for future reference. The student also learns commercial contract and business forms. He also learns to operate adding machines, ledger posters, check writers, etc.

These are reasons why hundreds of graduates of the Athens Business College are earning good salaries while thousands of other young people are looking for jobs.

Why not enter this school for a training that will enable you to sell your services?
