CULLASAJA AND CARTOOGECHAYE COUNCILS

I read in the Sunday Citizen-Times, a long article about Dr. S. H. Lyle. Dr. Lyle is one of the oldest Juniors in the county; since he joined the lodge in 1914 as a charter member of Cullasaja Council. The article I read in the daily said that he owned around 10,000 books; and I bet he has read them all.

Rev. Alvin Solesbee was in town last week shopping or talking politics. The strange thing about Rev. Solesbee is the fact he can't come to town on Thursday night.

MILLSHOAL NO. 246

E. V. Ammons has bought the Wesley Young farm, of some forty acres, which is located on the head waters of Rabbit Creek.

Millshoal council has been taking in new members here of late—John Ferguson and Zeb Taylor are two of the new members.

On Saturday night, March 26 will be a great time at Millshoal council as there is plenty of degree work to be done.

COWEE COUNCIL 483

The Cowee council were well represented in Franklin last Saturday. It seemed as if every other person I saw was from Cowee. T. M. Rickman said that the Cowee lodge was on a great boom; and at every meeting night they were having degree work.

There are two Junior lodges that are holding back on the rest of us boys. I wonder why Highlands and Higdonville councils doesn't send in the history of their charter and council, etc.

If I had that information we could then have a complete history of the Junior Order of Macon county.

Baptist Church Notes

By REV. EUGENE R. ELLER

The series of revival services at the First Baptist church closed Sunday night with more than 500 people present. The meeting resulted in 46 additions to the church, 30 for baptism and eight by letter. There were many who reconsecrated their lives and some who made professions and will unite with other churches.

The church and pastor are grateful for the fine spirit of cooperation on the part of all the people.

The church in conference Sunday morning extended an invitation to Mr. Griggs and Mr. Blackburn to return in August or a little later for another series of meetings.

There will be regular services in the Baptist church next Sunday. The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. We should have a greater Sunday school as a result of our meeting. Every one who joined the church should be in the Bible school of the church. The morning sermon will be, "The Resurrection." The choir will furnish special Easter music.

The B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:45 p. m. All members are urged to be on time and bring some one with you. Just as there should be an increase in the Sunday school, the same should be true of the B. Y. P. U. All who joined the church should become members of the training service of the church. There will be a baptismal ser-
