JOHN W. EDWARDS

On Thursday evening, March 31, the Cullasaja Council, No. 158, met with a large crowd present. The Rev. N. C. Duncan, rector of the Episcopal church, was taken into Cullasaja Council on a transfer card from Washington Council, No. 191, of Erwin, N. C. After the introduction services, Rev. Mr. Duncan made a splendid talk.
There are many things which yet bring surprises and pleasure. One of the banner events for Cullasaja Council was the attendance of Thursday night, by Dr. S. H. Lyle, one of the charter members of the council. Dr. Lyle made a speech, sparkling with the thoughts of his well trained brain.
It's a little early to start this talk; but did you brothers know that this month is the time for our district convention to be held at Hayesville on the third Thursday, April 21.
I didn't know that Carl Slagle could make a speech until Saturday afternoon in the courthouse. He being a town guy here of late, and making a talk as he did on farming, didn't sound real—but I bet he could make a good talk at a ladies' missionary meeting, or an old time quilting party.
E. V. Ammons, from Millshoal Council No. 246, was present at the Cartoogechaye farm meeting in the courthouse Saturday. Did you know that we have got to wake up and keep on our toes every day, or else this 5-10 Plan is going to eclipse all other organizations in the county, and push our activities upon the back page. You know that the women add the touch of beauty to all public meetings—and the 5-10 is sure being organized; and their meetings have a variety, not the same old hum-drum affair meeting time after time. Here's hoping the 5-10 a wonderful success!

Brother George B. Patton is still a sick man after weeks of illness.
If you don't take The Press and are a member of the Junior Order, you should be ashamed of yourself. I know that this corner is not what it could be—but look at the kindness of the two Mr. Johnsons, editors of The Press, when they are liberal enough to donate the space for this corner. Come on and show them that you appreciate this same generosity by subscribing.

Special Training
Valuable

Young people are beginning to realize the value of special training. The depression has forced millions out of employment. A careful study of those out of work shows that a large majority are common laborers or people not skilled in professional work.
The purpose of The Athens Business College is to prepare young people to sell their services. Bookkeepers, stenographers, and secretaries must be retained by all up-to-date business firms. No one need be afraid to undergo such a training for if he or she has the ability and will get the special training, the opportunity of success will be sure.
