Mrs. Harry Holt honored her little son, Harry, Jr., with a party on March 31, at her home on Riverview street, in celebration of his first birthday.

Miss Fulton Weds Mr. Tillery T. Henderson

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Fulton to Mr. Tillery T. Henderson, which took place at the home in Gneiss of the bride's parents Saturday at 11 o'clock, will be of much interest to a wide circle of friends.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends, with the Rev. H. C. Freeman of the Methodist church speaking the vows. The wedding was quiet and simple, the ring ceremony being used.

The young couple left immediately after lunch for a short bridal trip to Asheville and other points. The bride wore a blue traveling ensemble with grey accessories to match.

Upon their return they will spend several days with the groom's brother, Mr. C. W. Henderson at Gneiss, later going to their new home near Gneiss.

J. O. U. A. M. News Corral

Edited by JOHN W. EDWARDS

I had another very pleasant surprise the other day, when I received a nice letter from Brother J. L. Higdon giving me the history of Higdonville Council No. 485. Mr. Higdon says, "All Juniors are welcome and you will find the latch string on the last side of the door."

All news for this corner must come in not later than Saturday for printing in the next Thursday's Press. That is the reason Brother Higdon that your news wasn't printed last week.

Higdonville Council No. 485

Higdonville Council No. 485 was organized at Cullasaja, N. C., August 14, 1916, being set up by Millshoal Council No. 346.

Charter members were: W. L. Higdon, Lyman Higdon, Jeter Higdon, M. P. Corbin, J. Ed Crisp, John Rogers, Roy Fox, J. M. Moore, A. J. Evans, O. E. Heaton, M. A. Houston, Charlie Rogers, W. J. Jones, Claude Evans, T. A. Tallent, A. A. Adams, Fred Slagle, Iva Crisp, Leslie Higdon, Parker Clouse, Prichard Headen, Monroe Bryson, Charlie Higdon, A. Moses and Baxter Houston.

The Council meets on the first and third Saturday nights each month.

The officers for the six and twelve months term are: Councilor, George W. Dowdle; vice councilor, Bert Mashburn; recording secretary, J. L. Higdon; A. R. secretary, Harlie Stewart; financial secretary, Sam A. Bryson; treasurer, W. M. Bryson; conductor, Prichard Russell; warden L. H. Higdon; inside sentinel, Tom Tallent; outside sentinel, W. M. Holland; Jr. past councilor, J. L. Higdon; trustee for 6 months, George W. Dowdle; trustee for 12 months, John Dills; trustee for 18 months, C. W. Henderson; and chaplain, J. T. Tyler.

Now wouldn't it be fine if some good brother from the Highlands lodge would send in the history of their lodge; then we would have a complete history of all the councils of Macon county!

I went down on Cowee Saturday evening. Boys! they sure have one full house for their meetings. They failed to hit the fifty mark by only a small number. John Martin was duly introduced into the second and third degrees. I believe it would be a more humane idea for all lodges to have a horse for a heavy man to ride, as John was so heavy that he caused the goat to break a leg—now Cowee Council has to make a purchase of an able bodied goat. The Cowee boys sure know how to put on degree work; and it would be to the advantage of all councils to pay them a visit on degree work night.

If you go, there is one thing about it, you sure are going to be made feel at home.

Before I go any further, I want to say that everything printed in this corner is to my credit or my downfall; there is no come-back on the Press for anything that I write. There have been a few critical people, if reports are true; and the only happiness that I get from hearing this news is the fact a few people are reading this "mess."

There are two dates fast approaching that will have a bearing upon all the Juniors of this county, as well as others. One is the district meeting at Hayesville on April 21, and the other date is coming soon when the low rate for re-instating as well as the two-dollar rate for new members will come to an end. So be sure you are in the boat.
