DISTRICT MEET APRIL 21 District No. 1 of the Junior Order in Western North Carolina met at Hayesville at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, April 21. There were nearly 100 members present from almost all the councils in the district. Jack H. Stribling presided over the meeting. R. E. Crawford, of Hayesville, made the welcoming address and Hugh Montcith, of Sylva, gave the response. L. P. Hamblin, of Brevard, who is state vice councilor, made a very interesting talk on "Citizenship." He also called attention to the state meeting to be held in Morehead City the latter part of the summer. W. H. Grogan, Jr., of Brevard, spoke on "Fraternalities—the Greatest of These is the Home." The next meeting will be held in Highlands on the third Thursday night of July—July 21. Jack Stribling and Hugh Montcith have written a degree that is given to all new representatives from all councils attending a District No. 1 meeting. The idea is for all councils to have a new representative at each district meet until all Juniors have taken the degree. The degree was of such praise-worthy material that it has been written into the new national ritual for the Junior Order. Oscar C. Bryant, of Cullasaja council, is still very ill at this writing. Claude Duvall, of Cowee council, was in a dangerous car wreck last Friday afternoon. About half a mile below the Iola bridge on the Bryson City road the radius rod on his automobile came loose. The car, out of control, left the highway and went over a steep bank, headed for the Tennessee river. After turning over three times it lodged against a tree on the water's edge and thus Claude was saved from a watery grave. Claude got a rib broken and several skinned and bruises, but he is now able to get about. The car was badly damaged. Higdonville council No. 485 will meet on May 7, their next regular

NOTICE OF SALE

North Carolina, Macon County. Whereas, power of sale was vested in the undersigned Trustee by deed of trust from G. M. Johnson and wife to T. J. Johnston, Trustee, dated April 15, 1926, and registered in the Office of the Register of Deeds for Macon County in Book No. 29, at Page 313, and default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured thereby, and the holder of the notes secured by said deed of trust having demanded that the undersigned trustee exercise the power of sale in him vested; I will, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale by said deed of trust in me vested, on Monday, the 16th day of May, 1932, at 12:00 o'clock, noon, sell at the Courthouse door in Franklin, North Carolina, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described property: Being all the lands described in a deed from D. M. Sweatman and wife, Josie Sweatman, to G. M. Johnson and F. N. Johnson by deed dated July 8, 1925, and recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Macon County, in Book K-4, Page 543, to which deed reference is hereby had. This, the 11th day of April, 1932. meeting night. At this meeting there are three who are to be reinstated: Pete Moses, Charlie Higdon and Logan Clarke. There is, also, one new member to take in—Wayne Higdon. John H. Thomas, a member of the Cullasaja council and a produce drummer of the streets of Franklin, comes forth with an announcement that should make all Juniors blush with pride. Brother Thomas says that he has an offer from a certain lady of Wayside, Ga., begging him to go on the stage. The new company will be called the Thomas and Williamson "HEARTY CHUCKLE" shows. The plans are for a tour of the entire United States, with Mr. Thomas playing the leading role. The play, for the main show, is to be "Ten Nights in A Bar-room." But I am afraid that, after the ten nights are over, a new play should be written, entitled "All's Quiet on the Southern Front." As to having signed up for this new position, Mr. Thomas hasn't, as he says that there is a certain woman in Macon county very jealous about this plan. Spring fever has got a hold in the Morrison school section and it takes John H. Thomas to tell how it worked: "Not so very many days ago I was passing the home of Charlie L. Blaine, who lives on the Georgia road some six or seven miles from Franklin. Now Charlie and I are great friends, so I stopped to say, 'Hello.' Mrs. Blaine said that Charlie was up on the mountain-side cutting her some stove wood. Well I just couldn't refuse to make the climb, for we are friends. The day was warm and I got warm before I had gone very far. As I made step after step I thought I ought to be getting in hearing distance of the 'wicked ax' that Charlie always threw, but everything was as quiet as a funeral procession. I guess I had gone just about a quarter of a mile from the house when I saw a large log lying across the mountainside; and horrors upon horrors there was an ax stuck into this log. I was afraid that something bad had happened to my dear friend Charlie, so with a rush, while my heart was beating 'Dixie' against my ribs, I came up to the log. What a relief was in store for me then. The winter winds had blown a great heap of leaves against the upper side of this log and my friend Charlie Blaine had taken off his coat, spreading it out upon the leaves, and thus I found him with a smile on his lips as he dreamed of an oil stove."

Restless CHILDREN

CHILDREN will fret, often for no apparent reason. But there's always Castoria! Harmless as the recipe on the wrapper; mild and bland as its taste. But its gentle action soothes a youngster more surely than a more powerful medicine. That's the beauty of this special children's remedy! It may be given the tiniest infant—as often as there is need. In cases of colic, diarrhea or similar disturbance, it is invaluable. A coated tongue calls for just a few drops to ward off constipation; so does any suggestion of bad breath. Whenever children don't eat well, don't rest well, or have any little upset—this pure vegetable preparation is usually all that's needed. MOST SPEEDY REMEDIES KNOWN big help to BOWELS What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor: 1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day. 2. Get plenty of exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself. 3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day. Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the best thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a good cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin, and other helpful ingredients that couldn't hurt a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with a clean system!

3 RULES
