Redden Acquires 94 Acres From Mrs. M. C. Smith, To Build Soon

Highlands property is proving more than ever popular, as proved by the following recent land purchases:

C. F. Redden of Augusta, Ga., acquired 94 acres of Shortoff property from Mrs. Mary Chapin Smith last week. It is Mr. Redden's plan to build a summer home for himself and family on this property. J. Jay Smith began the survey of a road to the summit or highest point of the property Wednesday of this week. Highway 28 runs through this valuable tract, which adjoins the Beusel place. The Redden family have been spending the summer in Highlands at the Sewell cabin.

The Highlands estates colony has been increased recently by several important additions. Lots have been purchased by Dr. Leroy Childs, a leading surgeon of Atlanta; by James L. Dickey, capitalist of Atlanta; by Mrs. Dr. R. G. McAilley, and Mr. Veazey Rainwater, also of Atlanta.

The Leroy Childs home has been started on the fourth green of the Golf Links and work is going forward rapidly. It is expected to be completed in about a month and will be occupied next summer. Fulton and Hall, local firm, are contractors.

The James L. Dickey home will be built on the third green.

The Veazey Rainwater home is to be early American in style. Mrs. Dr. McAilley's home will be constructed on the Club Road, not far from the new Clark Howell home which is rapidly approaching completion.

Hogs costing 2 1/2 cents a pound to produce were sold recently on the Richmond market for 5 1/2 cents by E. J. Danford of Brunswick county.

REJECT G. O. P. "POINDY" URGES

Faith Lost in Government, Says Former U. N. C. Football Star

Charles Crawford Poindexter, known as "Poindy" to thousands of North Carolinians who cheered his brilliant leadership of Carolina football teams, knows something about picking the right man for the job. A football captain has to know that.

"Never pick a candidate because he needs a job, but instead pick the man that is qualified to do the work," he told a large gathering of Democrats Saturday afternoon at Macon county court house. "Something is wrong with this country today, since it takes one out of every seven to take care of the government of the other six. Many of the candidates have the wrong idea—they think the voters are the servants. In reality, the officers are the servants."

Government Costs

"In 1890, the government cost only one-sixth what it costs today. Government costs the average citizen more than $80.00 a year. And this body of ours, if reduced to commercial values, is worth only 98 cents."

"They say 'never change horses in the middle of a stream,' but I say it is better to snatch at the limb of a tree than to go over the waterfall. There is no doubt but that a change in Washington will help. The people have lost all faith in the present regime in Washington."

Mr. Poindexter said that he believed Macon county is taking the lead in a political movement in North Carolina, due to the activities of the Young People's Democratic Clubs.

"This is the kind of work," he said, "that will get the government back to the common people and do away with the kind of government we now have: government for big business, by big business, of big business."

Highlands Rejoices In Eatable Melon

The impossible has happened! An eatable watermelon has been grown in Highlands!

The melon was grown on the Henley summer place at Kettle Rock, one of the higher points around Highlands, from Hungarian seeds given to Mrs. J. C. Henley by a friend returning from Europe. Due to the altitude, watermelon growing is almost impossible here and this is the first one known to reach a stage where it is both large and of fine flavor. The only watermelons hitherto enjoyed by Highlands people have been brought up from South Carolina and Georgia.

Care of Tobacco

Proper Attention Will Pay, Advises Expert

Proper care of tobacco from now to market time is going to make a big difference in prices to our Western North Carolina growers this year, says C. H. Bartlett, field representative of the Carolina Tobacco Warehouse at Asheville.

"Here are a few things which most growers will remember, but they are worth checking over anyway at this time of the year:

"Don't top your tobacco too low, for if late rains come, the leaves will grow too coarse.

"Don't cut your tobacco until thoroughly ripe. A dry spell will sometimes make tobacco look ready for cutting when it really should be left in the field a week or so longer.

"Don't hang tobacco in an open shed if you can help it. The wind bruises it before it gets dry, and then will break it after it is dry.

"Don't hang tobacco where it will get overheated and barn-burned. Hang it where you can open windows to let in plenty of air on the hot, sunny days, and don't hang it too close up under the roof.

"Don't hang your tobacco too close together. Give it plenty of air."

The general tobacco situation this year looks pretty good for Western North Carolina growers, Mr. Bartlett says. With the crop for the entire South estimated at something like 55 per cent of last year's, prices ought to hold up pretty well. The crop in the Carolina burley belt appears to be about 90 per cent of last year's, by weight.

With normal weather from now on, the grower in this section ought to make as much profit from two acres of tobacco this season as he did from three acres last time.

The main thing right now is to take proper care in curing tobacco. —Farmers Federation News.

"Working under the handicaps of last season was no light task, and it is with pleasure for us to recognize your efforts in this way."
"It has been a pleasure for me to work with you in the past, and I am looking forward to being of some assistance to you in the future."
A large share of the credit for winning the prize goes to J. M. Moore.

CONSTIPATION

The Curse of the Ages

Has Science at Last Solved This? Great Problem of the Human Race?

NEW DISCOVERY BRINGS LASTING RELIEF TO THOUSANDS

Medical Authorities Agree That Old Fashioned Purgatives, Salts, Oils, Cathartics and Laxatives Have Never Cured Constipation and Never Will. Remarkable Treatment Discovered

The commonest and greatest curse of mankind is constipation. It is man's greatest enemy. It poisons him, slows him down mentally and physically, breaks down youthful strength and vigor, ages him prematurely and leaves him an easy victim to the attack of almost countless diseases. Millions are virtual slaves to the laxative habit, without obtaining real or permanent relief.

Cathartics do relieve constipation for the time being, but their effect is only temporary at best and the more we resort to such artificial aids, the more we require, because their continued use weakens the natural action of the bowels.

AN AMAZING DISCOVERY
Medical Science has discovered that bile, prepared by the liver, is a natural laxative and that people with a normal flow of bile are practically immune to constipation. Furthermore, we now know that bile is an antiseptic and anti-acid and combats putrefaction and the formation of gas in the bowels. It's also a digestant without which proper digestion and assimilation is impossible.

A QUART A DAY
But when our livers become inactive or sluggish and fail to pour into the intestinal tract the necessary quart of bile each day, we suffer from constipation, indigestion, headaches, biliousness, sour stomach and many other common ailments. Recent reports indicate ten persons past thirty years old suffer frequently from lack of bile due to a sluggish liver.

OLD THEORIES OVERTURNED
Until the discovery of Sargon Soft Mass Pills it has been the common practice to blast out the intestines with calomel and other drastic cathartics and purges, believing that they stimulated the liver. But Modern Medical Science has now learned that calomel, salts, oils and other laxative drugs have no effect whatever on the liver or its production of bile.

OLD THEORIES OVERTURNED
So remarkable are the results from Sargon Soft Mass Pills that they are sweeping the Nation; over 135 Million have been sold in the past four years. The great Sargon Laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, have been obliged to steadily increase production to meet the rapidly growing demand.
