RED CROSS TO EXTEND DRIVE

Falls Far Short of Reaching Membership
Quota of 375

Lancaster, chairman of the county chapter of the Red Cross, announced Wednesday that in response to an urgent request from the national headquarters of the organization the local chapter will continue its annual membership drive through the month of January. So far, Mr. Lancaster said, the membership drive has fallen far short of its quota of 375. He urged that all those having enrolled members continue their efforts in securing new member estimates," said by Mr. Lancaster. "The Red Cross is our only hope for the future."

Welches Bound Over to Court In Murder Trial

Prohibition Leader
To Speak Here Jan. 3

The Franklin Ministerial Association announced this week that Dr. George Burnett, of Greensboro, executive secretary of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, had accepted an invitation to speak on prohibition in the Franklin Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, January 3.

"The people from all over Macon county are urged to attend this meeting," the announcement said. "Dr. Burnett is a good speaker and is prepared to give real facts and information as to prohibition conditions in this country."

C. C. (Tump) Welch Released
From Jail Under
$1,000 Bond

TRIAL SET FOR APRIL
Carpenter Adjourns Hearing
To Visit Spot Where
Body Was Found

Finding probable cause, Magistrate George Carpenter last Friday night ordered C. C. (Tump) Welch, 40, and his nephew, Floyd Welch, 22, both of the Burningtown section, bound over to the next criminal term of Macon county superior court on charges of murder in connection with the death of Don Anderson, 20. Anderson's body, with neck broken and a strange K impressed on the forehead, was found slumped against a bank at the foot of a gully in Kelly Cove on the night of Friday, December 16.

"Tump" Welch was released from jail last Monday on $1,000 bond, but Floyd Welch, unable to raise bond, was still incarcerated Tuesday.

The magistrate's hearing was held at 10:30 o'clock last Friday. The courtroom was crowded.
