AUXILIARY INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met in its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, March 10, at the home of Mrs. W. B. McGuire. The devotional, led by Mrs. Gus Leach, was the last study of a series of twelve on the Epistle to the Hebrews.

Instead of the regular program, the yearly report was made of the four general officers and the chairman of circles and secretaries of all causes. An unusual plan had been devised by which this report was made interesting and effective. The president's report was written in a small paper tabernacle and the other officers' reports were written on small tents of the same material. When the reports were read the tents with their banners were moved forward on the table where they were encamped to represent the moving of the children of Israel.

The pastor was present and installed the two general officers, elected this year—Mrs. W. B. McGuire, president, and Miss Lillie Rankin, treasurer. The members present renewed their allegiance to the Master to continue to carry on the "Great Commission."

The hostess presented to the retiring president, Mrs. Gus Leach, in behalf of the auxiliary, a lovely sheaf of spring flowers.

It was learned that the Mistletoe of the manse had recently passed another mile stone, and that birthday celebrations were in order. The ladies had prepared a handkerchief shower. Mrs. Flanagan's surprise was all that one could desire, when Mrs. Lowery presented this small token of a great love. The home of the hostess was decorated with great bowls of jonquills. The color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the lovely refreshments. The next meeting, a joint meeting of the circles, will be held April 6 with Mrs. W. A. McNeil at the Orlando apartments.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Mrs. J. S. Conley entertained the Tuesday contract bridge club at her home on Harrison avenue Tuesday afternoon, with two tables of bridge playing.

Mrs. W. A. Rogers was winner of the high score prize and Mrs. T. J. Johnston, Jr., cut consolation. Those playing were: Mrs. W. A. McNeil, Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Mrs. John Wasilik, Mrs. John Davenport, Mrs. Howard Valentine, Mrs. T. J. Johnston, Jr., and Mrs. Grady Siler.

Baptist Church Notes

BY REV. EUGENE R. ELLER

Our Sunday school attendance is on the increase again. Each teacher, class and pupil is urged to go to work in all earnestness in the effort to enlist the unenlisted possibilities for our church school. Come with us Sunday at 9:45 and study with us the eternal word of God.

The morning worship will begin at 11 o'clock and close promptly at 12. Morning sermon subject, "Christ Dealing With A Back-Slider." We are grateful for the fine attendance we are having and we want all the people to feel at all times that they are cordially invited to worship with us.

Our young people's department will meet at 7 o'clock. The B. Y. P. U. is on the bound. We are having an average attendance of more than 130 and they are supporting the entire program of the church. We are proud of this fine organization. Come and be with us at 7 Sunday evening. The evening worship will follow the B. Y. P. U., beginning at 8:15. The evening sermon subject, "The Deepest Need of Man." The B. Y. P. U. members are supporting the worship service in a great way. The public is most cordially invited to worship with us at 8:15 Wednesday evening.

We are looking forward to our meeting which will begin Monday night of April 17. Rev. W. L. Griggs of Charlotte will bring the messages and John Kermit Blackburn of North Wilkesboro will lead the music. We remember pleasantly the fine work of these good brethren last March. The people are urged to be much in prayer for these services.

Don't forget our mid-week prayer service, we are making a study of the lives of the Apostles of our Lord. We are having from 100 to 150 in attendance.
