SUNDAY DINNER SUGGESTIONS

By ANN PAGE

IF YOU take all the advice about planning low-cost meals that is being printed and published for the benefit of the American housewife this season, you will find that it simmers down to one simple statement: buy the foods that are most plentiful and therefore lowest in cost.

This week, for example, devotees of Sunday dinners that are appetizing and yet inexpensive will concentrate on such abundant vegetables as potatoes, (new potatoes are quite plentiful now) onions, cabbage, beets, string beans and celery; such meats as roast beef and flank steak, and chicken.

Remember that condiments such as mustard and salad dressing add zest to a meal.

Here are three Sunday dinner menus planned by The Quaker Maid Kitchen. They are well-balanced and take advantage of the most economical foods this week.

- Low Cost
 - Roast Shoulder of Pork
 - Browned Potatoes
 - Buttered New Cabbage
 - Bread and Butter
 - Rice Pudding with Raisins
 - Milk Coffee or Tea
- Medium Cost
 - Baked Ham, Mustard Sauce
 - Mashed Potatoes
 - String Beans
 - Biscuits and Butter
 - Peach Pie
 - Cheese
 - Milk Coffee or Tea
- Special
 - Fried Chicken, Cream Gravy
 - Hominy
 - Butter Beans
 - Tomato Salad
 - Hot Biscuits
 - Preserves
 - Strawberry Whip
 - Pound Cake
 - Milk Coffee or Tea

MAY-TIME menus will include such appetizing dishes as rib roast of beef, fresh string beans and delicious pies made from fresh rhubarb and fresh strawberries combined, served with good old fashioned cheese.

You will find very good values this week in lamb and veal and there is a variety of fish to choose from.

At this season of the year, before fresh vegetables from nearby gardens are abundant, it's wise to take advantage of the canned products. Canned tomatoes, lima beans, string beans, and red kidney beans are inexpensive right now.

This week's Sunday Dinner menus planned by the Quaker Maid Kitchen are real May-time menus and take advantage of seasonable foods which are plentiful this week—and therefore inexpensive.

- Low Cost Dinner
 - Frizzled Ham
 - Creamed Potatoes
 - Buttered Peas
 - Bread and Butter
 - Apple Sauce
 - Cookies
 - Milk for Children
 - Tea or Coffee
- Medium Cost Dinner
 - Roast Stuffed Shoulder of Veal
 - Scalloped Tomatoes
 - Potatoes with Parsley Butter
 - Pickles
 - Corn Sticks and Butter
 - Jellied Fresh Fruit
 - Milk for Children
 - Tea or Coffee
- Very Special Dinner
 - Sardine Canape
 - Rib Roast of Beef
 - Olives
 - Radishes
 - Browned Potatoes
 - Fresh String Beans
 - Mixed Green Salad, French Dressing
 - Hot Rolls
 - Butter
 - Strawberry Pie
 - Milk for Children
 - Tea or Coffee

The couple were Miss Ella Young and L. Bryson.

JUST 46 POUNDS OF FAT GONE

Feels 20 Years Younger

"I surely can recommend Kruschen Salts. I reduced from 156 to 110 lbs., my natural weight and I feel 20 years younger. 'A pinch a day, keeps the fat away.'" Mrs. Valn Walter, Seattle, Washington (Dec. 30, 1932).

Once a day take Kruschen Salts—one half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water first thing every morning. Besides losing ugly fat SAFELY you'll gain in health and physical attractiveness—constipation, gas and acidity will cease to bother you—you'll feel younger—more active—full of ambition—clear skin—sparkling eyes.

A jar that lasts 4 weeks cost but a trifle at any drugstore in the world—but demand and get Kruschen and if one bottle doesn't joyfully satisfy you—money back. (Adv.)

Baptist Church Notes

BY REV. EUGENE R. ELLER

The Sunday school meets each Sunday at 9:45 a. m. The chief aim of this department is to study the word of God with a view to winning the people to Christ. Come and study with us. The special Mother's Day offering for the Baptist Hospital will be taken next Sunday.

The morning worship service will be at 11 o'clock and a special message for Mother will be brought with music appropriate to the occasion. The public is most cordially invited.

The B. Y. P. U.'s will meet at 7 p. m. This is one of the most wide-awake departments of the church. All members are urged to look out for the absent members and for new members by next Sunday. The evening service will be at 8:15.

All of those who joined the church during the meeting and all who have not received the right hand of church fellowship are urged to be present Sunday morning. We are still studying the lives of the Apostles in the prayer services. A message is brought by a different person each Wednesday evening.

MOTHER 'O MINE!

If I were hanged on the highest hill,
Mother 'O Mine! Oh! Mother 'O Mine!
I know whose love would follow me still.

Mother 'O Mine! Oh! Mother 'O Mine!

If I were drowned in the deepest sea,
Mother 'O Mine! Oh! Mother 'O Mine!

I know whose tears would flow for me,
Mother 'O Mine! Oh! Mother 'O Mine!

If I were dammed 'O body and soul,
Mother 'O Mine! Oh! Mother 'O Mine!

I know whose prayers would make me whole,
Mother 'O Mine! Oh! Mother 'O Mine!

Cartoogechaye

(Unavoidably omitted last week) The Cartoogechaye 5-10 club met at high school on Friday, April 28, at 2:30 o'clock for the regular monthly meeting.

Fred Sloan, county farm agent, Miss Davis, county welfare worker, and Miss Morrow, home economics teacher in Franklin high school, met with the club. Each gave talks.

Mr. Sloan urged the chairman of each committee to call a meeting of their committee and decide on objectives for their efforts this summer. He stressed the importance of each committee calling special meetings before the next monthly meeting.

Miss Davis talked briefly on the important part that the 5-10 clubs of the county can take in the welfare work. Miss Morrow gave a brief sketch of the workings of the community club in Iredell county.

Mr. Crocket, chairman, requests the committee chairmen to call these meetings and be prepared to outline their work at the meeting in May.
