OFFICERS OF HUDSON LIBRARY RE-ELECTED

The annual meeting of Hudson Library association was held at the Smith Cottage, Thursday, August 3. All of the officers and trustees were re-elected as follows:

Mrs. J. J. Smith, president; Mrs. S. T. Maret, vice president; Mrs. A. J. Salinas, treasurer; Miss R. C. Nall, secretary; trustees, Mrs. J. A. Hines, Miss M. A. Ravenal, Miss Albertina Staub and Miss M. D. Warren.

The librarian, Miss Gertrude Harbison, reported 67 books purchased, and 95 books added by gift during the past year, making a total of approximately 5,000 volumes in the library. During the year 5,367 books and magazines were lent to 505 readers.

The library is open every day at present; Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings from 10 o'clock until 12 o'clock and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 4 o'clock until 6 o'clock in the afternoons.

MOVIES ALL WEEK

Movies are being given at Highlands theatre on Wednesday and Thursday as well as Monday, Tuesday, and Friday and Saturday. If the Wednesday and Thursday shows pay they will continue thru the season.

COW WARNING

A certain cow, a nice red cow, with a big grayish white spot splattered over her ruddy complexion, has formed the habit of going out and annoying her neighbors. She came home the other day with a shamed expression on her countenance, and with the following righteously indignant note tied to her horn:

"No thank you. We are not buying beef today. We expect to have some potatoes and cabbage for sale if the neighbors will keep their cows at home."
(Signed) Blank.

DR. BASCOM ANTHONY VISITING HIGHLANDS

Dr. Bascom Anthony, from the South Georgia conference of the Methodist church, is registered at Highlands Inn this week, and conducted services at the Methodist church here last Sunday night. Dr. Anthony, who is 74 years of age, has served as delegate to the district conference for many years. His home is near Darien, Georgia, and is on Doughboy Island, off the Georgia coast. Dr. Anthony will be in Highlands for a few weeks and will probably preach at the Methodist church again before he leaves.

A small fire occurred here one day last week when the porch of Levi Crane's house burst into flames, catching from a box of ashes which had been set on the porch some hours before. The fire was discovered almost immediately, and was extinguished before much headway was gained. Damage was slight.

WE BEG PARDON

The Press and Maconian imadverently erred last week in reporting that Mrs. Guy Paul had died in Angel Brothers' hospital, Franklin. Mrs. Paul's death occurred at her home at Highlands. Newspapers are not infallible, and we are always glad to correct mistakes.

EXPLANATION

A letter from the Highlands Correspondent to The Press and Maconian last week was delayed in delivery. This explains why much of last week's Highlands news was omitted.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Potts, a son, on August 10.

Registered at the Central House this week is Mr. Bettjeman, of Jacksonville, Fla., who has been spending the summer months in Highlands for several years. Other guests at the Central House are Mr. Goldsmith, Greenville, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brandford, Florida; Miss Miltimore, Gainesville, Fla.; Mrs. Enwall, Dr. and Mrs. Heller, Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. Cheatham, Macon, Ga.; and Mr. and Mrs. J. St. Smith, Tampa, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. Schöffli and family have returned to their Highlands summer home after spending several months in Florida.

Mrs. E. G. Richardson and daughter are guests of Mrs. J. E. Root. Other guests visiting Mrs. Root are Mr. and Mrs. James Crane, of Tampa, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. Reinke and family, of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., are spending several weeks at the Hammett house on Highway 28, north of Highlands.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Rideout enjoyed a trip through the Smokies and to Knoxville, Tenn., during the early part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall made a trip to Atlanta last week and returned Wednesday by the way of Hartwell, Ga. Mrs. Hall's former home, Miss Mary Thornton, of Hartwell, returned to Highlands with them and is spending several weeks as their guest.

Mrs. Anna Wright, of Atlanta, is visiting relatives in Highlands this week.

Miss Marguerite Richert, of Atlanta, formerly of Highlands, is visiting with her uncle, Grover Edwards.

Mrs. J. Z. Gottwals had as her guests for a few hours last week the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Howell, old friends of Mrs. Gottwals who have not been here for several years. With the Howells were two of their children.

Miss Alma Holland and Miss Nell Henry and Dr. W. C. Coker, all of Chapel Hill, N. C., arrived in Highlands early this week for several weeks stay.

Pugh Crane, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Crane, is reported to be somewhat better after a recent illness.

Among recent guests registered at The Martin were Mrs. Jerome Wideman and family, of West Palm Beach, Fla., and Miss Lyle and Miss McLaughlin, of San Mateo, Fla.

Miss Lena Allison, of Brevard, who was the guest of the Misses Eva and Mary Lizzie Potts for several weeks, has returned to her home.

Lawrence Holt is able to be about again after a recent illness.

W. P. Nimmons, who recently bought the W. T. Edwards house on Lindenwood Lake, is spending some time with his family at the cottage. The Nimmons are from Seneca, S. C.
