

Highlands Highlights

EDITED BY MRS. THOMAS HARBISON

"LIZZIE" COMES HOME

When a Highlands couple recently traded in their Ford coupe for a Buick Six in Atlanta, they thought they had seen the last of "Lizzie." However, after trading on Monday, imagine their surprise upon returning home Wednesday to find that the "little old Ford" had rambled right along back to Highlands, it having been sold to a Highlands-Atlanta man who drove it back to his home here Tuesday.

APPOINTED TEACHER

Friends of Miss Sarah-Hicks Hines have been congratulating her upon her success in obtaining a position in the Franklin graded school. Miss Hines, who received her teacher training at Western Carolina Teachers' College, is well liked in Highlands, and should make good in the Franklin school.

EXCHANGE PULPITS

The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, of the Franklin Presbyterian church, delivered a sermon at the Highlands Presbyterian church Sunday morning, while the Rev. C. R. McCarty, regular Highlands Presbyterian minister, was in charge of the morning services at Mr. Flanagan's church in Franklin.

TO BUILD NEW HOME

Work is progressing speedily on the Sainwater property on Yellow Mountain. The top of the mountain is being cleared off, trees being trimmed, trails built etc., preparatory to the erection of another summer home in Highlands.

GOES TO EXPOSITION

I. W. Rice left Highlands Monday for Chicago, where he will spend several days at the Century of Progress exposition. He was met in Asheville by his daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. Kueker Ragland, of Miami, Fla., who are with him on the trip. Mr. and Mrs. Ragland expect to spend a week or so in Highlands after their return from Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harbison and Miss Bernice Rice accompanied Mr. Rice to Asheville.

POTTS REUNION

The Potts family held their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potts on the Wall-halla road, Sunday, August 19. Present was a large gathering of the descendants of the Rev. W. T. Potts, who is the oldest member and the head of the family. A picnic dinner was served at noon by the ladies of the family.

Mrs. W. A. Hays has been ill at her home on Mirror Lake for several days.

Mr. Tudor Hall motored to Atlanta and back Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Beacham and Miss Martha Beacham motored to Asheville Monday with friends, who were going over for the day.

paraphrase, and let your readers believe my story. Would you really believe it?

The Will Rogers of our camp (most of you know of whom I mean) said he wrecked his car twice. Once in the state of Tennessee, and once in the state of intoxication.

INSIDE STUFF

Ask Joe Polk the meaning of the cans, which have been distributed over the camp. He'll gladly tell you. Extra! shoe-shine price-slashing war now on. Lineburger, of tent 13 is increasing his boot-blacking business, with a new low price of five cents per pair. Watch your step, Pal, and don't let the other man undersell yuh. Kyland Johnson, one of the bigger men of our camp, is at the present time reading "Alice in Wonderland." Dear, oh, dear. What next?

Monday, August 28, the regular monthly deacons' meeting will be held in the church. This is a very important meeting and all deacons are urged to be present.

Baptist Church Notes

BY REV. EUGENE R. ELLER

Sunday school 9:45 and the morning worship at 11:00.

Rev. Jacob Gartenhous of Atlanta will preach at the 11:00 hour. He is the only Southern Baptist Missionary to the Jews.

The B. Y. P. U.'s will meet at 7:15 and the evening worship service at 8:15. The pastor's subject for Sunday evening will be, "Where Are You Going?"

Please remember the mid-week prayer service each Wednesday evening at 8:00.

Monday, August 28, the regular monthly deacons' meeting will be held in the church. This is a very important meeting and all deacons are urged to be present.

'Heaven Bound' To Be Presented Sept. 5

The T. E. L. class and Judge Awrey's Bible class of the First Baptist church will sponsor a play, "Heaven Bound," in the courthouse on Tuesday night, September 3. The play will be staged by the Sylvia players of the Negro Baptist church. It contains good lines and is full of spirituals and promises to be a real treat.
