COZAD-WHIGHAM ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Thomas Portet was hostess on Thursday of the past week to a group of about twenty young friends of Miss Margaret Ellen Cozad in an informal lawn party, announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Cozad to Mr. Melvin G. Whigham, of Bryson City. The date of the marriage is to be announced later.

John Lyle Palmer, as messenger on his bicycle brought a telegram from Dan Conard who made the announcement and asked Miss Cozad to follow two little guides, Lane Porter and Lillian Jones, to an improvised wiceman piled with gifts for the bride-elect.

Miss Margaret McGuire sang an "Indian Love Call" and rendered several piano selections. The hostess then served a delightful iced course.

GUESTS AT ROGERS HALL

The week-end guests of Mrs. Sam L. Rogers at Rogers Hall were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norton of Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dold, of Tallahassee, Fla.; Mrs. Perry Adams and Miss Charlotte Adams, of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Lucile Glenn, of Beverly Hills, Calif.; Miss Charlotte Klein and Miss Helen Ryan Stevens, of Washington, D. Kirk, of New York; Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Brantley of Atlanta, Ga.; Dr. and Mrs. Estes and Mrs. Clinton Fuller, of St. Augustine, Fla.

GIVE PARTY FOR BRIDE

Mrs. Kevon Moody and Miss Lydia Moody, of Sylva, were hostesses, from four to six, on Tuesday afternoon, at a tea, honoring Mrs. Truman Moody, who was married last week.

The Moody home was very attractive, with quantities of gladioli and verbenas and ferns being used in a color scheme of pink, white and green. Assisting in serving the delightful salad course which was served were Miss Mary Entice, Mrs. P. W. Kincaid, Jr., Mrs. Jeter Snyder, Miss Elizabeth Henry and Mrs. Joe Limer, of Waynesville, and Miss Mary Sue Cunningham, of Winston-Salem.

About sixty guests called during the afternoon—Jackson County Journal.

"EVERYBODY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY"

The F. S. Johnston Bible class of the Methodist church will hold its September social meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. L. Slier, on Tuesday afternoon, September 5, at 3 o'clock. Circles No. 1 and No. 2 of the Woman's Missionary Society are invited to this meeting. It will be an "Everybody's Birthday Party."

MRS. ROBERT T. BRYSON CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

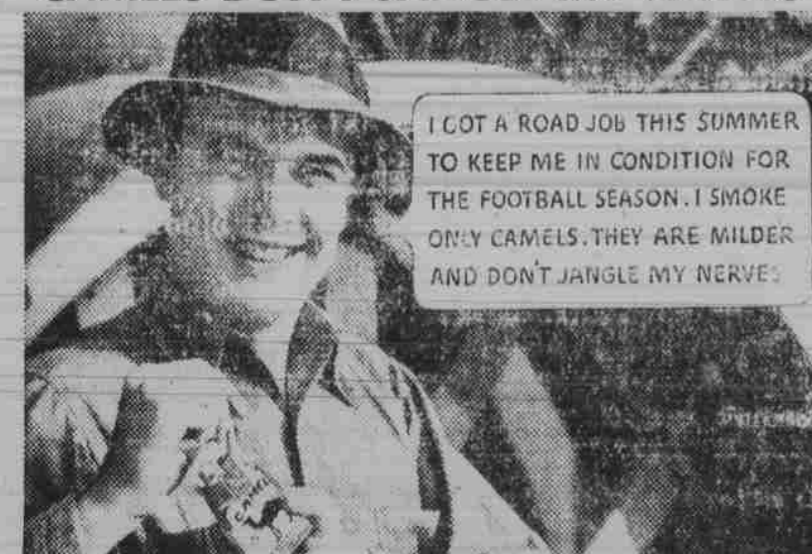

On Sunday, August 27, the brothers and sisters of Mrs. Robert T. Bryson were entertained at a birthday dinner at their camp on "Huckleberry," the old home place of J. C. Gibson, father of Mrs. Bryson.

There were about 40 relatives and close friends present, who thoroughly enjoyed the picnic dinner spread on the lawn.

MISSION CIRCLES TO MEET THURSDAY

Both circles of the Woman's Missionary Society, of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Eugene R. Eller, on Thursday, September 7, at 3 o'clock. All

C. C. Currier, of Cornelia, Ga., was among the business visitors here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Hoyt returned to their home here Sunday night, after several weeks touring the western states.

Miss May Thompson Evans, of High Point, president of the Young Peoples State Club, spent Friday of the past week here on business. Miss Evans served to come to Franklin in about two weeks and make an address at the courthouse at a meeting of the Young Peoples Democratic Club.

Miss Mary E. Wells, superintendent of public schools in Johnson county, spent several days last week with friends in Highlands and Franklin. Miss Wells was principal of the 10th school for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark, of Asheville, are spending a few days here visiting Mr. Clark's sister, Mrs. M. P. Billings, and Mr. Billings.

Highlands VISITS HIGHLANDS

Mrs. May Thompson Evans of High Point, N. C., representative and one of the three state supervisors of the National Re-employment Service, was in Highlands last Friday morning. Mrs. Evans was in Macon county for the purpose of selecting men who will serve on the National Re-employment Service Committee for this county. The National Re-employment Service is to maintain an office in each county where the unemployed may register for work on public works projects. The committee serves as advisors to the office. Mrs. Thompson says the preference of jobs will be given first to veterans with dependents, second to people of the county, and third to people of the state. The N. R. E. gives preference by law to men who are registered for work under the National Re-employment Service.

COUNTY BEAUTY QUEEN BACK FROM BEACH

Miss Oceola Everett reports having had a perfectly swell time at Wrightsville Beach last week-end. She did not win any more loving cups, but is proud and content to have served as "Miss Macon County." She thinks the yatching, swimming, dancing and other entertainment given the girls at the beach were almost as nice as a trip to Chicago would have been. It was a brunette who carried off the title of "Miss North Carolina," and Oceola says with a trace of sour grapes, that "blonds" didn't stand in much down there."

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Wilton Cobb honored her three-year-old daughter, Martha, with a delightful birthday party last Friday afternoon. A number of the youngest set, including Mrs. Cobb's class at the Presbyterian Sunday school, enjoyed the good time which Mrs. Cobb provided for them on her lawn. Numerous games were played, some being of the contest type, winners of which were presented with a prize.

The color scheme for the party was pink and green. Delicious refreshments were served, including small cakes topped with pink icing, a real birthday cake, all pink with pink candles, and fruit punch served in small green cups. Darling lollypop dolls made their appearance all dressed up in colored paper napkins. The children were all pleased with the whole affair.

Miss Hazel Penland, of Franklin, who is to be married to Mr. Charles Sutton in the near future, was accompanied to Atlanta one day last week by the following young people of Highlands, Miss Evelyn Cleveland, Miss Lucile Pierson, Dewey Hopper, and Joe Reese. Miss Penland made the trip especially to select her trousseau, and was assisted on the shopping tour by Miss Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Evans, of Atlanta, who own one of Highlands' beautiful summer homes near Kalalanta, arrived here Friday to enjoy several days of cool mountain weather.

Mrs. W. H. Cobb, Louis Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hall, all of Highlands, Miss Mary Thornton of Hartwell, Ga., and Miss Kate Cobb of Westminster, S. C., left Highlands Saturday morning for Chicago, where they will visit the Century of Progress exposition.

Thursday night, August 31, at the Highlands school auditorium, a free movie followed by an old fashioned cake walk and a beauty contest, will be given. The proceeds from the cake walk and the beauty contest will go for Highlands school.

Mrs. J. E. Rideout left Highlands Friday for Newton, Miss., where she will visit her mother and other relatives for several days. Mrs. Rideout is the wife of J. E. Rideout, proprietor of Satulah Lunch Room.

LUKE RILEY SAYS THE RATS DIE BEFORE REACHING THE RIVER

Since moving near the river several years ago we've always used BEST-YET. We watched the vicious Water Rats nibbling at BEST-YET, outside the house. About 15 minutes later they darted off for the river to cool their burning stomachs, but died before reaching it. Kills rats and mice only. Will not hurt cats, dogs or chickens, and there is no smell from the dead rat. BEST-YET comes in two sizes, 4 oz. size 50c; 6 oz. size 75c. Sold and guaranteed by PERRY'S DRUG STORE.
