MISSION GROUP HOLDS MEETING

All-Day Session Held at Snow Hill Methodist Church

The zone meeting of the Macon county Methodist missionary societies was held at the Snow Hill church Tuesday.

The meeting was presided over by the zone chairman, Mrs. John L. Teague. The Rev. B. W. Lefler of the Franklin circuit conducted the devotionals and gave the welcoming address to the visiting societies.

In a short business meeting reports were heard from the societies represented. Mrs. Gordon Moore and Mrs. R. C. Beshears gave very interesting reports from the annual conference held in Hendersonville recently. The resignation of Mrs. Johnson as secretary was accepted and Mrs. B. W. Lefler was elected to fill her unexpired term.

A short program was given before noon in which Mrs. Teague touched on temperance and asked that each society set aside one day for special prayer for temperance.

A special song was rendered by Mrs. C. C. Herbert, Jr., of Franklin, and Miss Katharine Ray, of Snow Hill, gave an outline of mission work in Japan.

At noon a bountiful and delicious picnic lunch was served.

In the afternoon the Rev. C. C. Herbert gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Hampton, of Canton, retiring district secretary, gave a short talk in which she thanked the women of Macon county for their fine work and cooperation while she was in office.

The highlight of the entire meeting was an address by Mrs. Clark, of Canton, on "What Missions Mean to Heathen Nations." In treating her subject she described one or two great Christians from the heathen nations, telling what Christian missions have meant to them and what their influence has been to their native countries.

The next meeting will be held at the Bethel church the second Tuesday in August.

Out of town visitors present were: Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Freeman of Clyde, Mrs. Clark and two young daughters of Canton, Mrs. L. B. Hayes of Waynesville and Mrs. Hampton of Canton.
