BRIDE AND GROOM HONORED AT HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Sunnyside Farm was the scene of Halloween merrymaking Saturday night, October 27, when Mrs. W. W. Sloan entertained in honor of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sloan. Mrs. Sloan before her marriage October 12 was Miss Rosalee Morrow of Statesville, N. C.

The spacious Sloan residence was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and illuminated with jack-o-lanterns. The eerie lighting and Halloween decorations formed an appropriate setting for the grotesquely costumed guests. As the party was masquerade, one saw ghosts hobnobbing with witches and pirates consorting with Spanish señoritas. During the evening the bride, Mrs. Sloan, discovered in a witches' cauldron hid in a corn shock, parcels containing gifts from her many friends. Due to the unexpected departure of Mrs. Allen Causbie for Texas last week, the shower to which she had invited friends of the bride was postponed until Saturday night and combined with the Halloween masquerade given by Mrs. W. W. Sloan.

Games and songs were enjoyed by the 37 guests present. During the evening a delicious course, consisting of coffee, individual mince pies, nuts, ginger cookies and cheese sticks, was served.

FOWLER-DCNCAN

Miss Mae Fowler and William T. Duncan were quietly married in Walhalla, S. C., Sunday, October 28, at noon by Judge W. F. Gillespie.

Pattern 8326

Designed in Sizes: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 44 requires 5 yards of 39 inch material with 1/2 yard contrasting for ruffle.

FOR SLIM LINES

Pattern 8326: The larger woman will delight in this smart frock with its slenderizing lines and flattering surplice closing, good for early fall and all through the winter whether it is made in silk, satin or woolen.

The revers can sport the soft ruffling as shown in the large view or it can be smartly mannish without the ruffle. The large buttons at the end of the side closing are a decorative touch. This frock is fitted in the back by means of darts, and the front of the skirt has a kick pleat at the end of the center seam. The sleeves also are interesting with the smooth fitted shoulders and wrists, and the wide flare at the elbows.

School-Leaving Ages

England is one of the few countries with a school-leaving age as low as fourteen. In Scotland, Germany, Rumania, Portugal, and parts of Switzerland it is fifteen, and in Latvia, one of the smallest states in Europe, it is sixteen.

HUSKY THROATS

Overtaxed by speaking, singing, smoking

THEY ALL GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

HOCKEY STAR. "Bill" Cook, Captain of the N. Y. Rangers, says: "A hockey player can't afford to have nerves. The way I guard my nerves and yet smoke all I want is to smoke only Camels. Their taste sure hits the spot!"

PHONE OPERATOR. Miss Marian Erickson says: "Camels do freshen up my energy in a delightful way. And they are the mildest cigarette I know. Of course I smoke a lot! But Camels never upset my nerves."
