Franklin Troop Observes Founding of Girl Scouts

BY FRANCES DAVENPORT

This is National Girl Scout Week. Three hundred thousand Girl Scouts in America are celebrating the birth of Girl Scouting. The Franklin troop is observing the following program:

Tuesday—Gather garments to give to the poor.

Wednesday—Handcraft day in which the girls bring something they have made. They plan to display these in the window of the Nantahala Power and Light Co.

Thursday—Thrift Day—Each girl must earn 25 cents some way and at a meeting in the afternoon tell how she earned it.

Friday—Hostess Day—A tea will be given in the afternoon for the mothers of Girl Scouts.

Saturday—Out-door Day—Hikes and picnics will take place among the three patrols.

A year ago in September the Girl Scouts had their beginning in Franklin. Fourteen girls started work on their Tenderfoot tests.

Miss Virginia McGuire took the place of Captain with Miss Helen Patton as her Lieutenant. Great progress has been made in a year. The troop now have 24 Scouts with nearly all of them working on their second class test. Some are almost through with it and ready to start on their first class test. This summer at Camp Taukeetah (Miss Olive Patton's camp) a Girl Scout camp was held for two weeks. All the girls that could attended. Much was accomplished.
