

Macon Well Represented On W. C. T. C. Alumni Roll

(Special to The Press-Maconian)

CULLOWHEE, March 27—Macon county has through years been well represented in the student body of Western Carolina Teachers college, as revealed by a recent summary of the number of graduates of the college since its founding in 1889. The total number of graduates during the entire history of the college is 913. Of these, 68 came from Macon county. Jackson leads other counties with 211 on the alumni roster.

These and many other interesting data are contained in the Alumni Directory, which has just come from the press. This directory gives the names, native counties, and latest known addresses of the 913 graduates. It reveals that the list of graduates represents 74 of the 100 counties in North Carolina, and that 66 graduates come from 12 other states. The names of 26 known dead among the alumni are given.

The pictures of the three presidents which the college has had since its beginning appear in the bulletin. Professor Robert L. Madison, founder, served as president from 1889 to 1912, and again from 1920 to 1923. There were 130 graduates under his administration. Professor A. C. Reynolds served as president from 1912 to 1920. Fifty-three joined the ranks of the alumni during his administration. President H. T. Hunter has been at Cullowhee since 1923, during which time a total of 730 young men and young women have completed either the two-year or four-year curricula.

The following persons from Macon county are graduates of Western Carolina Teachers college:

IN MEMORIAM

On March 6, 1935, the death angel knelt at the gate of Bro. Edmund Sanders and summoned him to answer the last call.

Bro. Sanders was born in Macon county September 6, 1872, and departed this life March 7, 1935. He professed faith in Christ in early manhood and joined the Baptist church. He lived a consecrated, Christian life until the time of his death.

He was a good citizen, neighbor and a Christian gentleman—honest and upright in all his dealings, a good father and a faithful husband. His life was a life of light, always shining in the different grades of society that all men might know that he was a child of the King. His influence will not be lost.

"You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will; But the scent of the roses linger round it still."
He was married to Allie Hedden

a dance hall destroyed by fire last year, was begun several days ago and is progressing rapidly. The dance hall is several yards from the original site, being located near the center of the lot owned by Mrs. Helen Wright Wilson.

SPRING BRINGS VISITORS TO HIGHLANDS

The first week of spring brought a number of out-of-town and out-of-state cars to Highlands. Among guests registered at the Central House last week-end were:

Mr. and Mrs. Leon P. Lewis, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. Alice N. Pickett, Louisville, Ky.; Ralph Aldrich, Midenton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Trammell, Hendersonville, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott, Newark, N. J.; R. C. Steele and A. A. Jameson, Wiley, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sheppard and son, Seneca, S. C.; Mrs. Cheshire Nash and Mrs. Olin T. McIntosh, Savannah, Ga.

Mrs. J. E. Root recently visited her son in New York City. She and Mr. Root are now at their home here.

Prof. T. G. Harbison is at his home here for a week's visit. He is accompanied by Ralph Aldrich, of Massachusetts.

Born on March 24 to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hays, a daughter, Elinor Ann.

G. P. Roberts, of Atlanta, was in Highlands recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beacham and daughter, Martha, of Atlanta, were visiting relatives in Highlands last week-end.

in the year 1895. To this union were born 13 children, nine of whom are now living—six sons and three daughters. The sons are Spurgeon, Raleigh, Wade, Bill, Frank and Lawrence Sanders; the daughters, the Misses Rena, Annie and Hazel Sanders. His widow also survives.

Bro. Sanders was laid to rest in the Watauga cemetery with the writer conducting the funeral services. The writer personally laments to say farewell to our time-honored brother.
