Methodists To Hold Special Prayer Meetings

In preparation for the special services to be conducted by Rev.
J. G. Huggin, Jr., at the Methodist church during the first week in June, a series of prayer meetings will be held next week.

The Woman's Missionary society and the Social Service Workers will sponsor two meetings for women. The first will be at the home of Mrs. T. W. Porter on Tuesday, May 28, at 3 p. m. At this meeting Mrs. Porter and Mrs. W. W.
Sloan will be joint leaders, and the subject will be "The Spiritual Life."

The second meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. S. Conley on Friday, May 31, at 3 p. m. Mrs.
George Jones and Mrs. Zeb Conley will be the leaders, and the subject will be "My Church and Me." All the women of the church and community are invited to these meetings.

On Tuesday evening at 7 p. m. at the church there will be a meeting for men conducted by Dr. W.
E. Furr, to which all men are invited. On Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. there will be a general prayer meeting for everyone conducted by the pastor. These evening meetings will close in time to permit all to attend the services at the Baptist church.

War Veterans Eligible For CCC Admission

A limited number of war veterans from this section are to be selected to fill vacancies in the Civilian Conservation Corps, according to an announcement by Q. J. Hauser, manager of the Macon County Re-employment office.

Mr. Hauser said all veterans interested in joining the CCC would have to meet the following requirements:

- 1—Show proof of service in the armed forces of the United States during time of war.
- 2—Show an honorable discharge from the service.
- 3—Show proof that he is actually unemployed.
- 4—Show proof of citizenship.
- 5—Show that they are physically fit and of good character.

Blank forms for filing applications for admission to the CCC by veterans may be obtained from Mr. Hauser at the reemployment office. The applications should be sent to Manager, Veterans Administration, Charlotte, N. C.

Hold Reunion 60 Attend First Patterson Home-Coming

Friends and relatives of the Patterson family met last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
Patterson for their first family home-coming. More than 60 persons were present for the reunion.
At noon a bounteous picnic lunch was served on the lawn under the trees.

The family voted to hold a reunion each year in the future.

While all present were rejoicing over the opportunity to meet together and renew old acquaintances, the occasion was somewhat saddened by the knowledge that "Uncle Will" Patterson was in declining health.

Brothers and sisters present for the reunion were J. M. Patterson, of Tennessee; D. W. Patterson, Orme, Tenn.; Mrs. M. A. Foster, Thomson, Ga.; Mrs. Elizabeth Arnold, Pelham, S. C.; W. H. Patterson, Franklin Route 2. Other relatives present included Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Patterson, South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. C.
A. Merck, Toccoa, Ga.; Mrs. H.
O. Penland and five children, of Sealy; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Patterson and two children, of Franklin Route 4; Hollis Patterson and three children, of Franklin Route 4; Everett Patterson, of Franklin Route 4; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Justice, of Franklin Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Will Arnold and children, of Pelham, S. C.; Parrot Arnold, Pelham, S. C.; Mrs. Bessie Mash-burn and two children, Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Carpenter and Charlie Carpenter, of Franklin.

A number of friends also were present.

Ill only Few Minutes, Rogers Child Dies

Mary Alice, four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sadie Cunningham Rogers, died suddenly at her home in the Iotla section at 7:30 o'clock last Saturday morning. The child was ill only a few minutes. The cause of her death was not determined.

The body was taken to Pelzer, S.
C., where the funeral was held Sunday.

Box Supper To Be Held At Iotla June 1

A box supper, sponsored by the Iotla baseball club, will be held at the Iotla school Saturday night, June 1. A negro comedy, "The Doctor's Alibi," will be presented, and music will be furnished by a string band. The public is invited to attend.

Samuel E. Elmore Wins Scholastic Honor

Samuel Eltinge Elmore, of Spin-dale, N. C., a student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, was recently initiated into Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity. Mr. Elmore is related to the Elmore of West's Mill, this county. Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest Greek letter fraternity and honorary scholastic society. Invitations to membership are based on a high standard of scholastic excellence.
