Our hosiery buyer does some DETECTIVE WORK for you

"Shadowless" and "Ringless" hosiery came out as the answer to a woman's prayer. All of it was supposed to be perfect.

Our hosiery buyer has a suspicious nature. Brand after brand of "ringless" hosiery was tested and investigated. We know now that we must depend on established, known makers for "ringless" hosiery as well as other types.

Result—you'll find in our hosiery department a complete color and size assortment of "ringless"

FRANKLIN SCOUTS TO STAGE 4-ACT COMEDY

A four-act comedy, "After Dark," will be presented at 8 o'clock Thursday night, June 27, in the new Highlands auditorium by Boy Scouts of the Franklin troop. The play is being sponsored by the ladies of the Episcopal church and tickets may be obtained from them at 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children.

"It is hoped," said the Rev. Frank Bloxham, Scoutmaster, "that the presentation of this play will arouse interest in the community in Scouting and that as a result Highlands may again have its own troop of Scouts. There is no organization for boys which helps so much in character building and good citizenship. Come and see for yourself the boys in action."

SKEET RANGE INSTALLED

Scott Hudson, president of Highlands Estates Country club, Inc., has installed a skeet shooting range on land near the club leased from Gus Holt. The range is completely equipped and is open to those who enjoy skeet shooting.

DANCE WELL ATTENDED

Quite a large crowd attended the dance at Helen's Barn Friday night sponsored by CCC Camp NC F-19. Music for the dance was given by Jimmie Cinciola and his "Southerners." A number of out-of-town guests, as well as many Highlands young people, attended.

HIGHLANDS TEAM LOSES

The Morgan Candy company baseball team of West Asheville and the Highlands baseball team played an interesting game here Sunday. The Highlands boys played hard but lost the game to Asheville by the score of 8 to 5.

REOPENS RIDING ACADEMY

Beau Gay, of Atlanta, has reopened his riding academy here for the summer with a number of fine horses for hire, and several picturesque cowboys as guides.

Grand Parade and Fireworks Display Feature Day's Events

An all-day Fourth of July program, including a grand parade and a fireworks display in addition to the usual games and contests, will be sponsored in Franklin next Thursday by the local Boy Scout troop.

The program is scheduled to get under way with a baby parade and doll parade on the public square at 10:30 a. m. All mothers desiring to enter babies in the parade, open to children from one to three years old, are requested to notify Mrs. Gordon Moore, who will be in charge of this event, not later than Wednesday of next week.

At 11 o'clock in the morning games and contests for girls will be held. Cash prizes will be awarded the winners.

Parade at 2 o'clock

The grand parade is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. It will form in front of the Baptist church, proceed down Church street to Harrison avenue, thence to Main street and move eastward. It will circle the public square and then continue east on Main street to the foot of the town hill, where it will disband.

The parade is open to all who desire to make entries. Prizes will be awarded for the best decorated
