Governs "Youth" Funds

WASHINGTON . . . Aubrey Williams (above), newly appointed Executive Director of the "National Youth Administration," with $50,000,000 from the four billion work relief funds, is the man to whom some 600,000 needy youths will turn this summer for help in carrying on school work and vocational training this fall.

being is under bond to do his best. God being perfect in goodness is no better than a good God ought to be. Christ's gift of Himself on the cross was not more than Christ ought to have done. Even Christ did no more than the Son of God ought to have done. In some way we must do our best or fall below God's measure. The poor widow gave her all.
And she has inspired millions and millions of people who, except for her, would have thought their gift to small or have measured it by too unworthy a unit of devotion. If we were to reckon up the sums that have been given for charitable causes by reason of her gift we should know that she was first among all philanthropists. We do not need to reduce the words of Jesus to cold arithmetical prose, but if we insist on that still it is true. This poor widow hath cast in more than they all.

MEN COMPLETE FIRST 6,000 MILES OF WORLD TOUR

PORT MORESBY, Papua.—Two young Frenchmen, who left China two years ago to sail round the world in a Chinese junk, have put in here, after completing the first 6,000 miles of their journey.
They are Capt. E. de Bischoff and M. Joseph Tatibouet. Their voyage is, in their own words, partly for fun, partly to study conditions in the Pacific, but principally in order to write a book on their travels.
During the two years they have been wrecked three times, sunk once by bandits, arrested as spies, and lived on a diet of sago and mudcrabs for seven months among the natives of Western Papua.

EXHIBITION OF BIBLES TO BE HELD IN GERMANY

BERLIN.—In spite of the strong anti-Semitic and Pagan movements in Nazi Germany, Frankfurt-on-Maine is shortly to hold an exhibition of the greatest collection of Bibles.
The exhibition will be composed of 129 rare old volumes including editions in many European tongues, in Arabic and Chinese, and one unique volume in script from the hand of Martin Luther.
The books have been collected from all parts of Germany by the Protestant religious league. The most valuable books in the collection will be three in ancient Hebrew script, "copies of which," it is stated, "are possessed only by the Frankfurt municipal library and the British museum in London."

THE BOOK
... the first line of which reads, "The Holy Bible," and which contains Four Great Treasures
by BRUCE BARTON

THE WIDOW WHO GAVE THE MITE

RECKONING up the great givers of the world, the Carnegie libraries, the Rockefellers with their universities, the Smithsons with their gifts to learning and research, the builders of hospitals, and the doers of great deeds of mercy, whose name stands as the one whose gift has produced more hard cash than any other? Without question it is the widow who gave the mite.
The scene took place on Tuesday in Holy Week, and rather late in the afternoon. It had been a day of controversy, and Jesus, wearied and rejected, was leaving the temple. He and His disciples had been within the third court. The first was the court of the Gentiles, where any well-behaved person might go unhindered. The next was the court of the women, so called not because it was exclusively for women but because it was as far as women were permitted to go. The next was the inner court, the Court of Israel, as far as a layman could approach. Beyond that was the Holy Place, where only the priests had admission, and still beyond, the Holy of Holies, where the High Priest went once a year.

Jesus and His disciples were all laymen. They went to the inner court but not into the Holy Place, much less into the Holy of Holies. And as they withdrew they passed through the court of the women. There were thirteen chests around the walls, with gold-plated trumpets into which contributions were dropped.
There came a poor widow, slipping silently to a trumpet-throated receptacle near a corner, and cast in two copper coins so small in value that we have to reckon in mills to get an approach to an equivalent.
Obligation is commensurate with ability. From the throne of God down to the depth of the lowest hell there is one rule—every moral
