Rules of Campaign

Any person who is of good character and a resident of the territory in which The Franklin Press circulates is eligible to take part in the "Salesmanship Club" circulation campaign. Persons may nominate themselves or anyone else by filling in the nomination blank with name and address, or nominations may be made by telephoning the manager and giving him the name and address.

No salaried employe of The Franklin Press, or any of an employe's immediate family will be permitted to take part. However, correspondents are eligible to take part. The campaign is for individuals only.

Votes or credits will be issued on paid subscriptions, new or renewals to The Franklin Press. VOTES POSITIVELY CANNOT BE PURCHASED. ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE PAID FOR BY THE SUBSCRIBER. GROUP BUYING OF SUBSCRIPTIONS BY ANY CONTESTANT OR ANY OTHER PERSON OR PERSONS WILL NOT BE PERMITTED. ANYONE SO DOING WILL BE DISQUALIFIED AT THE DISCRETION OF THE MANAGEMENT. All subscriptions must be accompanied by the subscriber's name and address.

VOTES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE. One contestant cannot withdraw in favor of another contestant. Should any contestant withdraw from the campaign, for any reason, his or her votes will automatically be cancelled. The giving or transferring of subscriptions from one contestant to another will not be permitted. Votes on such subscriptions are subject to disqualification.

Any collusion on the part of any contestants to nullify competition will not be tolerated. Any person or persons doing so many be disqualified at the discretion of the management.

There is just one way to get votes: By securing paid subscriptions to The Franklin Press and the nomination coupon. Cash, checks or money orders must accompany all subscriptions where votes are credited. Contestants may secure subscriptions anywhere they choose. Subscriptions should be turned in at the office as soon as practicable.

All matter printed elsewhere in this issue relative to the campaign is hereby made a part of the rules and regulations governing it. Any question that may arise during the campaign will be decided by the manager, and the decision of The Franklin Press will be final. No statement made by any solicitor or other persons varying from the printed rules will be recognized by the management.

The campaign will begin with the first official published list of the contestants' names, and end, six weeks from the following Saturday. The judges' awards will be final.

This newspaper reserves the right to correct mistakes or typographical errors, or make any additions to these rules that may be decided necessary to the welfare of the contestants and The Franklin Press. Right is also reserved to add to the list of awards announced, or add extra prizes of any nature. Persons who enter to take part in the campaign bind themselves to abide by these rules.

The Franklin Press reserves the right to reject any nomination. The awarding of the prizes at the end of the campaign will be made by representative business or professional men of this section. Address all nominations and communications relative to the campaign to The Franklin Press Salesmanship Club, Franklin, N. C.
