

270,000 FREE VOTES

In order to give members of the Salesmanship Club Campaign opportunity to get a good start, and to encourage early effort, the following extra vote offer is now in effect: In addition to the regular schedule of votes as published on receipt books, 270,000 extra votes will be credited on each and every $30 worth of subscriptions collected and turned in on or before Saturday night, August 24th. This is at the rate of 9,000 extra votes on each dollar in addition to the regular schedule. VOTES and votes alone will win the big prize, and now is the time to get most votes on each subscription.

Now is the Time to Win!

Never again during the campaign will subscriptions count nearly as many votes as during this big extra vote period. The member who can step out and get a good substantial lead during this period will be hard to beat later in the campaign under the much smaller vote schedules in effect. The next ten days will probably put someone out front so that they can feel secure in winning the big prize at the end of the six weeks.

Remember each yearly subscription during this period counts 13,500 extra votes if turned in before August 24th, and that never again will it count that many votes.
