

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

MISS JUNE DADY GIVEN HANDKERCHIEF SHOWER

Miss Ruth Higgins and Katherine Godwin entertained with a handkerchief shower Saturday afternoon at the home of the former in honor of Miss June Dady, who left Monday for Tallahassee, Fla.

The evening was spent enjoying games and contests before the honoree was presented with a number of lovely handkerchiefs.

Those present included Betty Rogers, Kate Sellers, Audrey Conley, Lillian Jones, Carol Tessier, Leida Beshears and Jean Moore.

The hostesses served a salad and a sweet course.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY HONORS MRS. DADY

On Saturday evening the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church entertained at the home of Mrs. W. B. McGuire in honor of Mrs. Roy C. Dady, who left Monday for Tallahassee, Fla. The guests were delightfully entertained during the evening with a Major Bowes amateur radio broadcast. Mr. Flanagan ably impersonated "the Major" and a cast of local talent supplied the amateurs. At the end of the program, a well packed bag of lovely gifts was presented to Mrs. Dady.

Later the guests were invited into the dining room, where Mrs. Gus Leach and Mrs. George Slagle graciously served coffee and cake.

Miss Ruth Higdon, who has been visiting her parents at Higdonville for the past week, returned Sunday to Wilson, where she is teaching school.

Hugh Johnston, a student at Christ school, at Arden, was here last week visiting his mother, Mrs. T. J. Johnston, at her home on Harrison Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Penland, Mrs. Frank Palmer and Leonard Jacobs returned to their homes in Akron, Ohio, Friday morning after spending a week here with relatives and friends.

Bobby Tysinger, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tysinger, Jr., who has been seriously ill with spasmodic croup, was reported to be much improved Tuesday.

John Herbert Stone stopped here last week for a visit enroute to his home in Asheville from Atlanta, Ga., where he attended a forest service conference.

Leonard Jacobs, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jacobs, who has been ill with influenza for the past two weeks, was reported Monday to be greatly improved.

Mrs. R. M. Hudson spent Monday in Asheville shopping.

E. M. Bryant, who has been in Columbus, Ga., for a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bryant, returned to Franklin Saturday.

The Rev. W. M. Burns, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, who has been confined to his room for the past week with tonsillitis, was reported to be much improved Tuesday.

Mrs. C. C. Herbert, who underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix, at a hospital in Sumter, S. C., last Saturday morning, was reported to be doing nicely Tuesday. Mrs. Herbert is the wife of the Rev. C. C. Herbert, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church.

The Rev. J. A. Flanagan went to Asheville Wednesday to attend the funeral of the Rev. Robert Perry Smith, veteran Presbyterial minister, who died Tuesday.

W. L. Ramsey, manager of the Farmers Federation store, has been confined to his bed for the past week with influenza.

Mrs. John Hall spent Wednesday in Asheville shopping.

Mrs. Albert Raby, of West's Mill, who is in Angel hospital suffering from a leg infection, was reported to be doing very nicely Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Dady and two children left Monday for Tallahassee, Fla., where Mr. Dady was recently transferred to the Florida National Forests.

W. L. McCoy, who has been confined to his room for the past two weeks with influenza, is able to be out again.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Snowden announce the birth of a daughter on Tuesday, January 28, at Mission hospital in Asheville.

A daughter, Dorothy Marie, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jud West at their home on Green Street on Sunday, February 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad L. Patton announce the birth of a son, Kenneth Lee, at their home on Cartoogchaye on Sunday, February 2.

On Sunday, January 26, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charley Guffee at their home in Smith's Bridge township.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stewart at their home in the Ellijay section on Thursday, January 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bryson, of Highlands, announce the birth of a son, Charles F., on Sunday, January 19.

On Sunday, January 19, a son, Rogers Lee, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arvey Seay at their home in Millshoal township.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lefferts Higdon announce the birth of a daughter, Maralen Ruth, on Saturday, January 18, at their home at Higdonville.

Macon Boy To Have Part In Radio Program

CULLOWHEE, Feb. 5.—Macon County will hear one of its native sons in a radio program February 21, 6:30-7 p. m., central standard time, over station WSM in Nashville, Tenn.

Jack Sloan, of Franklin, will take part in a program which Western Carolina Teachers college will give then. It is one of a series called "Teachers College of the Air," sponsored by Peabody college and the insurance companies of Nashville. The topic that Western Carolina Teachers college will use is "A Teachers College in the Open Country."

Other students and faculty members will make up the personnel of the program.

Oak Dale

We are sure having some rough weather here.

Mrs. Maude Baldwin and John Slagle are getting along nicely with their night school.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Reeves, a daughter, Lela Elmore, on Sunday, Jan. 19, 1936.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Austin Roper, a daughter, on Monday, Jan. 20, 1936. We are sorry to report the baby died. But Mrs. Roper is getting along nicely.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Irlen Jones, a son on Thursday, Jan. 23, 1936.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Rowland, a son, on Saturday night, Jan. 25, 1936.

Elephant Light Sleeper

The elephant, by reason of its size and strength, might be expected to enjoy at least ten hours' sleep. Not so, however, for it seldom has more than two or three hours' rest at a time. It seldom lies down and spends the greater part of the night in restless shuffling and oscillations.

Peace River

Peace river rises in west central Canada west of the Rockies and flows east and northeast about 1,000 miles to Great Slave river, just north of Athabasca lake.

FUNERAL HELD FOR IOTLA MAN

John W. Cunningham Dies Of Heart Attack at Age of 64

John W. Cunningham, 64, died at his home in the Iotla section Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock from a heart attack following an illness with pneumonia.

Funerals were conducted at the Iotla Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. B. W. Lefler, pastor, assisted by the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church.

Mr. Cunningham was a member of the Franklin Presbyterian church and of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, which had charge of the final rites at the grave.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Jacobs Cunningham, and four sons, Aaron, Grady, Purnell and Dewey Cunningham, all of Franklin; five daughters, Mrs. George Elliott, of Franklin, Mrs. Austin Dills, Franklin, Mrs. Spurgeon Solesbee, of Franklin Route 3, Mrs. Robert Fulcher, of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Marie Cunningham of Franklin; two brothers, Wiley Cunningham, of Franklin Route 2, and Curt Cunningham, of Otto.

SHOVELING BANKERS

Hartford, Conn.—Hauled into court for not shoveling snow from sidewalks in front of their homes, several residents denied they owned the properties. Banks had taken them over, they said.

Judge Jacob Schwolsky sent police to notify the bankers that snow shoveling had become a part of their business.

Fort Peak, Mont.—Guess what Herbert Holland got out of the send-a-dime chain letters? A bride!

Holland said the fad resulted in correspondence with Mrs. Alma Sproat, of Los Angeles, and now they're married.

Valentines and Favors

IF you're going to a party, giving a party, or only sending a card on Valentine's day, the New Five & Ten Cent Store has the gift, the favors or the cards that you will want. The favors and the decorations of a Valentine's Day party set the tone and make the party gay from the moment your guests enter the door. Inexpensive, our stock is huge and complete.

New Five & Ten Cent Store

NEAR NEW POSTOFFICE

NELLY DON'S Spring

is Just Around the Corner

Take a peak! Here's what you'll see—unusual and peasanty weaves; tropical and pastel shades; assured styles with Nelly Don's own genius in fit—and at prices to bring you prosperous looks and pocketbooks.

$1.95 to $10.95

E. K. CUNNINGHAM & CO.
The Shop of Quality

GO AHEAD AND RAIN! I'LL DRY OUT PLIABLE AS A PLUSH SLIPPER

No Wonder
WOLVERINE SHELL HORSEHIDE WORK SHOES
ARE SO EASY ON YOUR FEET

LET it pour! Wolverine Shell Horsehides will dry out soft. What's more, they resist scuffing, sweat and barnyard acids... and save you money with their wear, wear, WEAR! Only Wolverines have both soles and uppers of strong, durable, genuine Shell Horsehide... triple-tanned for buckskin softness by a secret process. Stop in soon, and try on the world's most comfortable work shoes!

SEE THAT SHELL
Only Wolverines have both soles and uppers of genuine Shell Horsehide... leather as tough as your finger-nail.

WOLVERINE SHELL HORSEHIDE WORK SHOES

JOSEPH ASHEAR

"We Clothe the Family"

FRANKLIN, N. C.