Highlands Highlights

EDITED BY MRS. T. C. HARBISON

SANDY GRAHAM PRAISES HIGHLANDS

HIGHLANDS, May 27.—Lieutenant Governor A. H. ("Sandy") Graham, one of the four candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor, paid Highlands a brief visit Sunday afternoon on his way to Franklin.

Mr. Graham praised Highlands as a "wonderful spot" and predicted increasing popularity for it as a resort center. He had little to say of politics and his campaign for governor. Those who talked with him were impressed with his personality.

PLANS FORMULATED FOR ENTERTAINING PRESS CLUB

Plans for entertaining the South Carolina Associated Press club when it comes here in June for its annual convention were discussed last Thursday evening at a meeting of the Highlands chamber of commerce. An interesting talk was made at the meeting by James A.
Mitchell, secretary of the Anderson, S. C., chamber of commerce.

The newspaper folk will open their convention in Anderson, S. C., on Wednesday, June 10, and the next day motor to Highlands for a two-day visit.

Committees were appointed at the chamber's meeting for handling various phases of the entertainment program, which will be featured by a chicken barbecue, which was especially requested by members of the club. An old fashioned square dance will also be given for the visitors.

W. M. U. HOLDS COUNTRY-WIDE MEETING

The annual all-day meeting of the Macon county Baptist W. M.
U. was held at the Baptist church here last Friday. Mrs. Sam Gibson, president, from lotla, presided at the meeting, during which several interesting talks and program numbers were given. In the morning Mrs. Edna R. Harris, secretary of the state W. M. U. spoke to the congregation, and after a picnic dinner on the church grounds, the Rev. H. H. McMillan, missionary to China, now on leave of absence, gave a colorful talk.
The Rev. W. M. Burns, of Franklin, was in charge of the devotional exercises. It was estimated that more than a hundred members from all over the county were present at the meeting.
