

Lake Emory

By LUTHER ANDERSON
EXCITEMENT CAUSED BY RABBIT DOG

There is some excitement in this vicinity because of depredations committed last week by a dog believed to have hydrophobia. It has not been learned from whence the dog came or what finally became of it. It is known that, in this section and on Rabbit creek, eight dogs were bitten. There are rumors of this dog's appearing elsewhere. Some of the dogs bitten have been killed, others are kept confined. If the strange dog was suffering from rabies, as supposed, no doubt the disease will develop in some of those being kept.

George Shytle became suddenly ill Sunday and was taken to the hospital. The diagnosis had not been completed at noon Monday, but his condition is regarded as very serious.

Beecher Downs of Leicester, was in this section last week buying cattle.

Mrs. W. C. Hyatt, Mrs. Wallace Davis and Miss Eva Robinson, of Canton, were visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Downs.

Rev. Thomas Tilson, of Gniess, held a special service at Ridgecrest church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vard Green, of Woodrow, N. C., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Z. D. Buchanan.

Mrs. Emma Hyatt, of Canton, spent a few days with her cousin, Miss Mildred Moore, before returning to the Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Barnard accompanied by Mrs. Brown, of Asheville, were here on business the first of this week. Mrs. Brown's late husband was a large shareholder in the Asheville Mica Co., a corporation with which many citizens of this county have had business relations. Mrs. Brown still shows a lively interest in the industries of this section.

WATAUGA AREA

Davis Morgan is reported improving after being seriously ill for the past two weeks.

Miss Annie Ray Cloer had as her guest for several days Miss Katharine Ramey, who has returned to her home at Wolf Mountain.

Earl Sanders, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sanders, has been on the sick list for some time, but is now improving.

Miss Lou Brendell is spending a few weeks with friends at Spring City, Tenn.

Rev. G. A. Cloer left Sunday for Wolf Mountain, where he will conduct a series of meetings.

Claude Becco, who holds a position at Gainesville, Ga., spent the week-end with home folks.

North Skeenah

By W. R. SANDERS

The farmers of this section are getting along fine in putting up feed and some have commenced to make syrup.

Mr. Ed Shope is erecting a new house, and is hoping to have it ready to move into shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Jass Bell, of Toccoa, Ga., were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stockton recently.

Mrs. Zeb Shope is seriously ill. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Stockton announce the arrival of a son last week.

Mr. Marion Sanders spent the week-end at home. He is working at the carpenter's trade at Gainesville, Ga.

Mr. Jim Cowart, of Otto, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sanders.

Mr. Frank Ledford, of the CCC camp near Asheville, spent the week-end at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ledford.

The young farmer boys of this section are keeping J. L. Sanders very busy with his truck, hauling beans and turnip greens to the cannery.

A large number of folks attended a singing at the old Baptist church Sunday on Cartoogechaye.

Mr. Henry Hastings and wife, of Dillard, Ga., spent Sunday visiting relatives here.

FISHER REUNION HELD AT LAKE TOXAWAY

I would like to describe a wonderful trip I had the pleasure of making a week ago.

I went to the Fisher reunion at Lake Toxaway church, and there I met old friends and relatives that I had not met in 40 or 50 years.

They had a very fine history of the Fisher family, some good speaking and fine music and a good picnic lunch on the ground.

Resolutions were passed to put up a monument to the oldest member of the family, and a collection was taken for that purpose. There I met my only living brother, Rev. J. R. Owen, and went to the home of our niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, of Macon county, and had dinner with five generations of our Owen family. Then Sunday morning we met a small crowd at our old home place and had a reunion of the Owen family.

We had a fine short sermon by Rev. J. R. Owen, and some good singing, and decorated the graves at the family plot. Then had a good lunch with our nephew, Burlin Owen and wife, and returned home Sunday night.

Higdonville school is progressing nicely with Mr. Ed Carpenter as principal and Miss Moses as primary teacher.

Prof. Billings was visiting the schools at Ellijay and Higdonville last week.

The school bus is now running up Ellijay and assists several children to go to Franklin high school, which would be impossible otherwise.

Farmers of this community are very busy saving feed this hot weather.

Larentz and Lewis Moses have returned from Atlanta, where they took a load of cabbage from Buck creek. Prices are very good for all kinds of produce.

There was a large crowd of relatives and friends at Major Higdon's anniversary dinner.

Reunion of Corbin Clan Sunday, Sept. 27

According to an announcement made by Miss Villa Corbin, historian and secretary of the Corbin clan, the fourth annual reunion of the Corbin clan will be held on Sunday, Sept. 27, at the home of Dewey Corbin in the Rabbit Creek section of Macon county, six miles east of Franklin. All relatives and descendants of John and Nancy McClure Corbin are invited to attend and bring picnic lunch.
