

Highlands Highlights

EDITED BY MRS. T. C. HARBISON

ALTAETTER-LINDSEY
WEDDING BEAUTIFUL AFFAIR
 HIGHLANDS, Sept. 30.—A beautiful marriage ceremony was that of Miss Mary Wadleigh Altstaetter, Savannah and Highlands, to Mr. Lindsey, of Savannah, at the home of Mrs. Duncan Dougall here September 19.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin and her mother's lace, and carried a bouquet of white asters with a spray of white gladioli and lace. She was given in marriage by her father, Col. Frederick W. Altstaetter.

Miss Dorothea Raoul, of Chattanooga, and Hal and Victoria, of Atlanta, cousins of the bride, were the only attendants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank Bloxham, rector of the Church of the Incarnation. After the ceremony a charming reception honoring the couple was given at "Faraway," the lovely home of Mrs. Dougall. A number of wedding guests, close friends and relatives of the families from town and from Highlands were present.

Mrs. Lindsey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Altstaetter, prominent residents of Savannah, who have had a summer home in Highlands for many years.

ENTERTAINMENT NETS $27 FOR MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Approximately $27.00 was realized from an entertainment sponsored by the Woman's Missionary society of the Highlands Methodist church at Wednesday evening. The entertainment was given by the Carlisle brothers, radio performers from Greenville, S. C.

CHASTAIN-TALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talley have announced their marriage in Franklin, N. C., on Saturday, Sept. 26. Mrs. Talley was Miss Estelle Chastain.

BATY-WALDON

Miss Sarah Baty and Mr. Paul Waldon were married in Clayton, Ga., on Sept. 7. Mr. and Mrs. Waldon will be at home at 1200 10th St. N., Birmingham, after this week.

RAISED BY AUXILIARY AT RUMMAGE SALE

A rummage sale held in the Redden building by members of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church on Saturday netted between $25 and $30 for the organization.

HOTELS CLOSE

Highlands Inn, Tricmont Terrace and the Pierson House have closed during the past few days after a very successful tourist season. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trice, managers of Highlands Inn and Tricmont Terrace, left Monday for a trip to New York. They were accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Cobb, and Miss Sara Gilder.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Charlton, of Savannah, have returned from a trip to Mexico and will spend the remainder of the season in the Billstein Cottage.

Highlands School Theatre

FRI.-SAT., OCT. 2-3

John Wayne

IN

"THE LAWLESS NINETIES"

MON.-TUE., OCT. 5-6

Johnny Downs, Shirley Deane, Dixie Dunbar

IN

"THE FIRST BABY"

WED.-THU., OCT. 7-8

George Raft

Leo Carillo

Rosalind Russell

IN

"IT HAD TO HAPPEN"

FIRST SHOW AT 7:30

For the Benefit of the School

ADDITIONAL FRANKLIN SOCIAL ITEMS

(Continued from Page Seven)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cansler and daughter, Miss Virginia Cansler, of Pisgah Forest, spent the week-end with Mrs. Cansler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Myers, at their home on Route 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanders and son, Sol, and Moses Blumenthal spent Friday night and Saturday attending Yom Kippur services in Asheville.

F. G. Burnette, for the past several years employed as a draftsman in the headquarters office in Franklin of the Nantahala national forest, was transferred this week to regional forest service offices in Atlanta. He and Mrs. Burnette left for Atlanta Wednesday.

John W. Edwards, a United States deputy marshal connected with the federal district court at Asheville, spent the week-end in Franklin with his family.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Rimmer returned Sunday from Mebane, N. C., where they spent a week visiting Dr. Rimmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rimmer.

Samuel J. Murray and family have moved from Greene street to the Ashear apartment on Church street.

Earl Hurst, of Ridgecrest, spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Robert Hyatt at Woodhurst Farm.

Manson A. Sanders, who was kicked by a mule last week, suffered injuries to his chest and chin. He was taken to Angel hospital for treatment, and is now able to be out again.

Mrs. F. L. Siler plans to attend the fall meeting of the North Carolina Archeological society at Chapel Hill Thursday and Friday of this week. Before returning to Franklin she will visit her son, Allen Siler, at Black Mountain.

Miss Graec McGaha and Miss Lois Henry spent Saturday in Asheville shopping.

Mrs. John Joines spent Tuesday night here, the guest of Mrs. Manson Stiles at her home on Bidwell street.

Mrs. Grady Garner, who spent the past week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cabe at their home on Route 2, and her brothers, Henry W. Cabe, and Mrs. Cabe at their home on Riverview street, returned to her home at Andrews Sunday.

Lester Henderson and family have moved from the Hudson house on Harrison avenue to the Cabe house on Wayah street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ennis, who moved to Clayton, Ga.

Miss Mary Slagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Slagle, left Wednesday for Columbus, Ohio, where she will teach occupational therapy this winter.

Mrs. James C. Gaither, of Sylva, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Grasty.

Ted Clark, who is working in Winston-Salem, spent the week-end with relatives and friends at Oak Grove.

Sam Poliakoff spent Friday and Saturday in Asheville attending Yom Kippur services.

Hoped To Dance

NEW YORK . . . Miss Sarah Churchill, 21 (above), daughter of Winston Churchill, former British Chancellor of the Exchequer, is in New York, but whether she will dance in a theatrical production depends upon what her brother says, who sailed a day later from England with "word" from the family.

Crawford and Parker Higdon, of Higdonville; Mrs. Samuel J. Murray and Ferdy Higdon, of Franklin.

Custard filling will not soak into crust if the white of an egg is brushed over crust before pouring in custard.

Never wear rings, except plain bands, when washing fine laces, silks, etc. Ring may catch in fabrics and tear them.

7-DAY COFFEE SALE

Starts Saturday morning, Oct. 3, at 8 o'clock and continues through Saturday, Oct. 10.

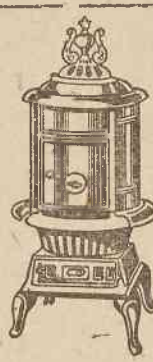

10¢ Per Lb.

LIMIT 5 POUNDS TO A CUSTOMER

Pay-and-Take-It

THE HOME OF GOOD COFFEE

On the Square

Select Your Heater Early

We have a large stock of well-built heaters that will give plenty of heat and lots of service at low cost.

Bryant Furniture Co.
 Franklin, N. C.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE

Lyric Theatre

Sylva, N. C.

Thursday and Friday, Oct. 8 and 9

Matinee Both Days at 3:00

Nights at 7:00 and 9:00

Adults 25¢

Children 10¢

FOR FALL and WINTER

We Are Now Ready to Clothe the Whole Family for the Winter At Extremely Low Prices

Men's, Ladies' and Children's Shoes.

Men's and Boys' Pants, Hats and Caps.

Sweaters, Overalls, Shirts.

Men's and Boys' Union Suits.

Ladies' and Children's Silk and Cotton Dresses, Sweaters, Hats—Silk and Cotton Hose.

Dress Goods, Prints, Piques, English Broadcloth, Outing, Play Cloth, Riverside Cheviot, Mattress Ticking, Sheeting, Blankets. Everything absolutely new.

There are hundreds of items in our store priced far below the usual selling figures. Come in and see for yourself.

MOSES BLUMENTHAL

FRANKLIN, N. C.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Dowdle announce the birth of a son, Thad Robert, on Friday, September 25, at their home on the Georgia road.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Baldwin, of Franklin Route 3, announce the birth of a son, Charles Donald, at their home on Tuesday, September 20.

Mrs. Harriette Higdon Celebrates 80th Birthday

A surprise birthday dinner was given Sunday for Mrs. Harriette Higdon by her children, who with their families gathered at her home at Higdonville in honor of her 80th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Higdon is the widow of Sam Higdon and before her marriage was Miss Harriette Berry.

The birthday cake served at the dinner was baked by Mrs. Higdon herself.

One son, Alex Higdon, of Gastonia, was unable to attend the dinner. The other children, who were present, were Mrs. Charlie

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, of Cincinnati, have rented the Blanchard residence on Sunset road for the winter.

Miss Rebecca Harris left Highlands Friday for a short visit to Havana, Cuba.

Mrs. Ethelbert Henry Hatcher, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Henry G. Evans, at Tree Tops, has returned to her winter home, Blythewood, Columbia, Tenn.

Miss Minnie D. Warren has returned to her Highlands residence, The Hedges, after a visit to relatives and friends in New Hampshire and a motor trip through New England.

Week-end guests at the Hall House included Mr. and Mrs. John Lienhard and their two sons, of Atlanta, and Mr. and Mrs. de la Cruze, of Havana, Cuba.

Mrs. R. L. Morris has returned to her cottage, Chestnut Lodge, recently vacated by Mrs. Cheshire Nash, who has returned to Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Duane, who have been guests of the Misses Ravenel, have returned to their home in Connecticut.

Mrs. Anthony Salinas, of Augusta, has returned to her summer residence, Kalalanta, after a brief absence.

Mrs. James Paul Verdery and Miss Verdery, of Augusta, are spending the autumn in the Cranstons cottage.

Mrs. Charles Sisson, of Atlanta, is at her summer home, Stepping Stones, and among her guests are Mrs. Frank Holland and Mrs. Charles McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Blanc Monroe, of New Orleans, are at their Highlands residence, Playmore.

Rally Day

To Be Observed Sunday at Presbyterian Church

Special exercises observing Rally Day will be held in the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock under the direction of J. E. Lancaster, superintendent. A special offering for the work of Sunday school extension in the Southern Presbyterian church will be received. For several years the Sunday school at Franklin has given the largest per capita gift from the schools of Asheville Presbytery for this cause and has been awarded a banner in recognition of this offering. Efforts are being made to hold this banner for another year by a generous offering.

The month of October is being observed as Loyalty Month among Presbyterian churches. One of the objects of this month is to have every member present at every meeting of any church organization.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the 11 o'clock service on Sunday morning.

West's Mill

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Dalton and Crawford Dalton, of Gastonia, N. C., spent the week-end here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton.

Mrs. Albert Potts returned to her home Monday after spending a month in Saginaw, Mich., visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Bryson, and other relatives.

Mrs. Robert Morgan is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Holbrook, of Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carver have returned to their home after spending several months with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Leatherwood, in Waynesville.

Claude West, of Detroit, Mich., arrived Sunday for a visit with his father, W. J. West, and Mrs. West.

Mrs. Frank Holbrook, of Asheville, spent the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton.

CHASTAIN-TALLEY

Miss Estella Chastain and Arthur Talley, both of Highlands, were married Saturday in the register of deeds office. George Carpenter, justice of the peace, performed the ceremony.