Mr. and Mrs. John Wasilik, Jr., and two children went to Asheville Monday to attend Barnum and Bailey and Ringling Brothers circus.

DR. R. P. WALKER PREACHING HERE

Services at Presbyterian Church Are Well Attended

The series of services being conducted in the Franklin Presbyterian church since last Sunday evening has been growing in interest and attendance. Sunday morning and again Sunday evening the church was practically filled to capacity.

The Rev. R. P. Walker, D. D., Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Waynesville, is doing the preaching. He is a preacher of the simple Gospel and does it with earnestness and power.

Song services are conducted each evening at 7:30 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Flanagan. Cottage prayer services are being held in various homes each morning. Services will continue through next Sunday, according to plans now made. The public is cordially invited.

Briartown

Mrs. Cansada Dills is very sick, having suffered a stroke of paralysis about two weeks ago.

Ina Henry, Fairview teacher, attended the home-coming exercises at Western Carolina Teachers college, Cullowhee, last week-end.

Mrs. Mollie Mason has returned from a visit to her mother at Culbertson.

Johnny Sanders last week bought the Oscar Mason tract of land.

Bob Henry, of Franklin, was in this vicinity Sunday.

Lee Kilpatrick and son, Carmon, went to Murphy one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cook, of Canton, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mrs. Cook's grandparents.

A box supper will be held at Fairview school Thursday night. The proceeds will be used in buying a library for the school.

Gneiss

Many high school pupils in this vicinity are recovering from measles.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mincy and son, Earl, and Miss Betty Lee Shook, of Ellijay, were visiting Mrs. C. N. Jones Sunday.

More than $38 was realized at the box supper Saturday night for the benefit of the school. The school grounds are in excellent condition and a large supply of wood already has been piled up for the winter. Plans are now being made to have water pumped to the school house.

Willie—"Pa, does bigamy mean that a man has one wife too many?"

Pa—"Not necessarily, my son. A man can have one wife too many and not be a bigamist."

It has been estimated that 85 per cent of the boys and girls in the first five grades of the Hawaiian public schools have dental care annually.

in seven schools—Buck Creek, Union, Cowee, Oak Grove, Kyle, Iotla and Highlands—with cooks, stoves and utensils supplied by the WPA. School patrons send to the schools green vegetables, cornmeal, flour, potatoes and fruit. From these contributions the cook prepares bountiful and wholesome meals which are served to the school children without charge. The average cost per plate was estimated by Miss Hurst at five cents.

The NYA projects, under the supervision of Mrs. J. A. Ordway, were represented by scrapbooks, puzzles and posters made by youngsters from four to six years of age.

In the afternoon a rhythm band developed by Dr. T. J. O'Neil, recreation supervisor, gave a program of music. Exhibits illustrated the hobbies pursued by youngsters taking part in recreational activities.

The girl—"I found that book you lent my frightfully dull. Professor. I thought you said there was a naughty problem in it."

The professor—"My dear young lady; I said a 'knotty problem.'"
