

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

GARDEN CLUB TO HOLD CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Franklin Garden club will be held Monday afternoon, December 14, at the home of Mrs. W. A. Beshears. In announcing the meeting, Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr., club president, urged all members to attend and to bring a guest. She also requested each member and guest to bring some gift, costing not more than 25 cents.

U. D. C. CHAPTER TO MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON

The Macon county chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, December 14, at the home of Miss Lilly Rankin on Overview street. All members are urged to attend as Christmas boxes, which the chapter gives each year to the Confederate veterans of the county, will be filled at this meeting.

Mrs. C. S. Brown, Sr., returned to her home here Sunday after spending ten days in Batesville, Ark., with her son, C. S. Brown, and Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. J. C. Barrington, who has been quite ill for several weeks, left Friday for Atlanta, Ga., for treatment. In Atlanta she will visit her sister, Mrs. Compton.

Brabson Bulgin, who is attending school at Floyd, Va., is spending several days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bulgin. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harrison spent Wednesday afternoon in Highlands with Mrs. Harrison's brother, Carl Zoellner, who has pneumonia.

Dr. Frank Justice, of Robbinsville, spent awhile here Monday, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, at their home on West Main street.

Herman H. Plemmons, county sanitary officer, is spending this week in Raleigh on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cunningham and Miss Lassie Kelly spent Sunday in South Carolina.

Jack Stribling and Harry Holt left Wednesday for Pisgah Forest to spend a few days hunting deer. Doyle Blaine, left for Raleigh Wednesday morning on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dryman, of Sealy, were here Monday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kennerly, of Asheville Route 4, were among the visitors here last Thursday.

Mrs. A. B. Omahundro left Friday for Sparta, N. C., where she will spend a month with her husband. She also planned to visit relatives at Richmond, Va.

"Aunt Betsy Jane" Grant, who has been seriously ill with influenza, was reported Wednesday to be improving.

T. C. Bryson has returned to his home at West's Mill after spending the summer in Washington, Montana and California.

Willie Allman returned to his home here Tuesday, after spending two weeks in Atlanta, Ga., with his sister, Mrs. H. B. Kelpin.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Miller have moved from the W. R. Cunningham house on the Murphy road to the Kelly apartment on West Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bradley and son, Tommy, of near Los Angeles, Calif., arrived last week for a visit with Mr. Bradley's sister, Mrs. Harley R. Breedlove, and other relatives at Oak Grove.

Mrs. Wade Moody and daughter, Marian, and Mrs. Earl Ward, of Jotla, are spending this week in Asheville, visiting Mrs. Moody's sister, Mrs. J. A. Campbell.

Mrs. Phil McCollum and young daughter returned to their home in East Franklin Sunday after spending two weeks in Birmingham visiting Mrs. McCollum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Kinnebrew.

Mrs. Will Reece, of Cartoogechaye, spent Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Arnold, at her home on Bidwell street.

Mr. and Mrs. Prileau Dryman have moved from their home at Sealy to an apartment in the I. T. Peek home. Mrs. Dryman, before marriage, was Miss Merle Peek.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Angel announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Louise, on Friday, November 27, at the home of Mrs. Angel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Potts, at Cullasaja.

A son, William Todd, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wade Reece at their home in Andrews, Wednesday morning, December 9. Mr. and Mrs. Reece formerly lived in Franklin.

Patton Valley

By LEONA P. DUNCAN

Robert A. Patton and family have moved to Franklin for the winter. The community was sorry to give them up and will especially miss the Patton boys, Andy, Lewis, George and Mac, who have always been active in church and Sunday school work.

John Lyle Waldrup entertained at a social last Saturday night. Everybody had a good time.

The people of this community met at Patton's chapel Wednesday night and gave the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Croy, a pounding. A short talk was made by Mr. Croy and a number of songs were sung. Everybody seemed delighted with the new preacher.

Master Mac Duncan spent an unhappy birthday in bed with measles. A social was given by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Emory at their home last week. A large crowd attended and enjoyed music and games.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Johnson spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Addie Patton.

Miss Eugenia Duncan spent Wednesday night with her cousin, Miss Kathryn Ann Huggins, in the Rabbit Creek community.

HORN'S SHOE SHOP SAYS
WE ARE STILL MENDING SHOES

"We Buy and Sell"
When the hoot owls hoot,
And the nighthawks crow,
We'll whole sole your boot,
And save you dough.

HORN'S SHOE SHOP
Troy F. Horn
Box 212
Opposite Courthouse

Ambassador to Russia

WASHINGTON . . . James E. Davies, (above), is the new U. S. Ambassador to Russia. He takes the post vacated by Wm. C. Bullitt who recently was appointed Ambassador to France. Mr. Davies is a former member of the Federal Trade Commission.

Palm prints have been used as court evidence.

Three tons of air are used by the average motor every thousand miles.

An Iowa man has a cornea from the eye of a still-born baby. His sight was considerably improved.

Highlands Highlights

EDITED BY MRS. T. C. HARBISON

P.-T. A. TO GIVE SHOWER FOR LUNCH ROOM

HIGHLANDS, Dec. 9.—A shower for the benefit of the Highlands school lunch room will be given at 3:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by the Highlands Parent-Teacher association in the school auditorium. A short program of Christmas carols will be presented.

Those attending are requested to bring articles suitable for use in the lunch room, such as soup bowls, plates, salt and pepper shakers, knives, forks, spoons, and sugar bowls.

The lunch room has increased in popularity so greatly that it has become necessary to increase the supply of dishes and other equipment. At the beginning of this week, 165 children were being fed daily in the lunch room.

LENDING LIBRARY ESTABLISHED IN HIGHLANDS

A lending library has been established at Rideout and Rice's Corner Drug store and is proving very popular. The library has at this time about five dozen books and these will be changed each month.

Lieut. J. E. Brown, M. D., arrived last week to take the place of Dr. Glissen, at CCC Camp NC F-19 in Horse Cove. Dr. Glissen was recently transferred and promoted. Dr. Brown and his family are occupying the Nawl cottage on East Main street.

Frank B. Cook has been very ill with pneumonia at his home here.

Mrs. A. J. Salinas has returned to Augusta, Ga., after spending the summer and autumn at her home, "Kalalanta."

Miss M. D. Warren closed her home here for the winter and left Monday for California.

Carl Zoellner is critically ill at his home here with pneumonia.

Twin girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Calloway at their home here December 8.

Alec McCall who had been ill for many months died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul Henry, the night of December 7. The funeral was held the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Townsend left last week after spending the autumn at Hotel Edwards.

Luther Rice, Jr., made a trip early this week to Anderson, S. C. Buck Caldwell of Dahlonega, Ga., was in Highlands Monday.

Fall-born flies die in winter.

Chinese made first useful paper.

Reindeer cannot travel on glare ice.

The Statute of Liberty weighs 225 tons.

The iceberg patrol began in 1912.

Meerschaum, cream-tinted mineral, is found in layers of red earth.

COME TO THE Gift Store

Anticipating your gift needs, we have placed in stock this year the widest assortment of Christmas goods we have ever had. You will find in our store a gift appropriate for each and every member of the family and priced within your ability to pay.

We invite you to come in and look around. Everything has been attractively displayed. You can make gift selections at your own leisure. And, perchance, should you desire some article which we do not have in stock, please consult us. Doubtless, we will be able to obtain it for you at moderate price. We make a specialty of individual orders in watches, jewelry, fountain pens and novelties. We have contracts with a wide market; just tell us of your wants and you will be surprised at our ability to fill them. Christmas is drawing near, but there is still time to place orders for gifts out of the usual nature.

The chances are, however, that you will find something to fit the need right in our store. Here you will find select toilet articles, such as Yardley's preparations, put up in attractive gift sets, for which we are exclusive agents . . . perfumes to suit every taste . . . ultra modern aluminum knick-knacks . . . cocktail shakers and serving sets . . . leather goods . . . costume jewelry . . . the finest in candies . . . pipes, choice smoking tobaccos, cigars and cigarettes in gift packages . . . dresser sets . . . and, oh! well, too many things to mention in a limited space. Just come in and see for yourself.

Norris, Nunnally's and Martha Washington Candies

PERRY'S DRUG STORE

Franklin, N. C.

Phone 82

Macon Theatre

MON.-TUE., DEC. 14-15
PICCADILLY JIM

With
ROBERT MONTGOMERY
MADGE EVANS
BILLY BURKE
ROBERT BENCHLEY

It's Montgomery's best picture in years—loaded with laughs and packed with stars!

NEWSREEL ADDED

WED.-THUR., DEC. 16-17
LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY

With
FREDDY BARTHOLOMEW
DOLORES COSTELLO BAR-
RYMORE, and All Star Cast

A world-famous novel—now a vivid, throbbing, thrilling screen masterpiece for the show-world's Hall of Fame. An entertainment Epic to live for ages!

ALSO COLOR CARTOON

FRI.-SAT., DEC. 18-19
THE THREE WISE GUYS

With
ROBERT YOUNG AND BETTY FURNESS

Damon Runyon hits the spot again with one of his famous comedy yarns. Entertainment for the Christmas season!

ADDED—
OUR GANG COMEDY and
Chap. 13, "FLASH GORDON"

Admission All Shows—10 & 25c