

Ruth Steppe, Juanita Lee Win Prizes at Aquone

A five-dollar cash prize offered each year by Miss Lassie Kelly to some school in the county for the pupil who shows the most improvement in writing, was won this year by Ruth Steppe, of the Aquone school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Steppe.

Miss Kelly gives the prize as a memorial to her sister, Miss Elizabeth Kelly, and it goes to a different school each year. This year it went to Aquone.

Miss Nora Leach, teacher of the school gave a cash prize to Juanita Lee, daughter of Mrs. R. A. Lee, for being present every day during the term. Juanita also won the prize given by Miss Ethel Hurst, supervisor of the lunch room, for being on time every day.
