There's a small miss dressed in green on the seal, this year. One chubby arm is a brown crutch but the other hand is free and outstretched toward the sunlight of opportunity.

The seals sell for a penny each, $1 per sheet of 100, and the sales here are in charge of J. E. Perry, chairman for Macon county, and Mr. Perry states that he is allowing coupons in the junior contest at his drug store to the young people who are selling the seals.

Ninety per cent of the proceeds from the sale of seals remains in Macon county to help maintain and extend the program of the local organization, and the remainder goes to the International Society for Crippled Children, Inc., which sponsors the seal sale and spurs world-wide interest in the problem of treating and preventing crippledness and represents the state societies in sponsoring federal legislation for the benefit of crippled children.
