DEATH CLAIMS

NATHAN LEE MCKINNEY

HIGHLANDS, April 7.—Nathan Lee McKinney, 38, died Wednesday night, March 31, at his home here after several days' illness with pneumonia. Funeral services were held at the Highlands Methodist church on Friday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. W. F. Beadle, pastor of the Methodist church, and the Rev. Frank Bloxham, rector of the Church of Incarnation, were in charge of the services, which were attended by several hundred relatives and friends. Interment was at the Miller cemetery. Pallbearers were friends of Mr. McKinney—Claude Crunkleton, Jack Wilcox, Aylor Chastain, Jr., James N. Rogers, Alvin Crow, and Albert Waller.

Mr. McKinney was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. McKinney, well known in Macon county. He was born in December, 1898. About six years ago he was married to Miss Inez Cabe, of Franklin, who with their two children, Dorothy and Edith Agnes, survive him. Other survivors are his father and mother, two sisters, Miss Agnes McKinney, of Highlands, and Mrs. Ella Sherrod of New York City; two brothers, Wade and Mack McKinney of Highlands. Mr. McKinney was a member of the Baptist church.

FIFTEEN TO GRADUATE FROM HIGH SCHOOL

Fifteen seniors are scheduled to graduate from Highlands high school this year. They are: Bruce Edwards, Estelle Edwards, Marian Day Garris, Louise Holland, Sylva Jenkins, Tessie McDowell, Robert McKinney, Billy Nall, Guy Paul, Jr., George Penland, Cary Reese, Sara Thompson, Sammy Westbrook, Frances Wiley, and Henry Zoellner.

Four days will be devoted to commencement exercises. Beginning on May 9 with the sermon the program will proceed as follows: Debate and declamation contest on May 10, senior play on May 11, and graduation exercises on May 12.

Mr. Summer and the seniors have decided to change the usual form of graduation exercises this year, and instead of having the valedictory, the class history, the class will, the prophecy, and the salutory, there will be three speakers whose talks will concern their town rather than their class. The salutory, Marian Day Garris, will give the history of Highlands; Guy Paul, Jr., will speak on the assets of Highlands; and the speech of the valedictorian, Sara Thompson, will concern the future of Highlands. Besides being something different in the way of graduation exercises, these speeches should prove to contain much interesting data and information about the town. A cash prize will be given to the best speaker on this program.

Those taking part in the three-act senior play entitled "The Eyes of Love," are Louise Holland, Sara Thompson, Estelle Edwards, Bruce Edwards, Tessie McDowell, Frances Wiley, Sammy Westbrook, Cary Reese, George Penland, and Henry Zoellner. The play is being directed by Mrs. Kate Rhinehardt.

Taking part in the annual debate and the reading and declamation contests are, Steve Potts, Bruce Edwards, Jim Hines, and R. L. Potts; Alma Penland, Peggy Thompson, Carleton Cleaveland, and L. C. Nix. A medal is annually presented to the winner of each of the above contests.

Miss Marguerite Ravenel, Miss Claire Ravenel, and Mrs. William Duane, of Philadelphia, were in Highlands early this week. Miss Ravenel is not opening her summer home on Sunset at present, but will return to Highlands later.

Miss Rebecca Nall, who has been spending the winter in Washington, D. C., arrived at her home here Monday.

Mr. Harry Hall, of Raleigh, N. C., was visiting relatives in Highlands over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Chapman, of Atlanta, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potts at their home here recently.

Work has begun on the building of a summer home for Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trice, of Thomasville, Ga. The location of the building is on East Main street, adjoining the Blanchard house.

Mr. Henry Cleaveland is working in the postoffice here in the place of Miss Caroline Hall. Miss Hall expects to assist her sister, Mrs. Roy Potts, in the management of the Hall House this summer.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our husband and father who left our midst one year ago, April 1.

Mrs. G. M. Greene, 70, Dies at Home March 31

Mrs. G. M. Greene, 70, died at her home on Green's Creek, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock of the past week from pneumonia, although she had been in ill health for the past year.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock at Old Savannah Baptist church, with the Rev. Mr. Jamison, officiating.

Mrs. Greene was formerly Miss Sultana Ashe, of Franklin, and a sister of Mrs. Belle Sutton and T. B. Ashe, both of Franklin, and L. C. Ashe, of Bessemer City.

Citizens Complain of Radio Interference

Several citizens attended the meeting of the board of aldermen Monday evening to request that inquiry be made regarding the interference with radio reception which has become increasingly distracting in the last three months.

It was suggested that Mayor Patton communicate with the Nantahala Light and Power Company, asking their cooperation in an effort to find, and eliminate the source of this annoyance.

The pith of Texas hemp, long regarded as valueless, has been found to be convertible into a pure alpha-cellulose paper four times as absorbent as any other paper and half-again as absorbent as cotton.
