In addition to the regularly scheduled events, numerous social affairs and other events revolving about the festival as a central attraction will be staged. Among these will be included events honoring the state sponsors and the royalty and court of the fete.

Meeting of Macon Club at Cullowhee

The students of Macon county who are attending Western Carolina Teachers college enjoyed a picnic Thursday evening, May 6, at 6 o'clock. The following program was carried out with Miss Ina Henry, president, in charge:

Devotional—Mrs. Herbert Angel. Prayer—Miss Kathryn Ramey.

Song—By the group, "Sweet Hour of Prayer;" "Things I'd Like to Know," Miss Ruby Kinsey.

Business was next taken up. Miss Blanche Vinson, secretary and treasurer, read the minutes of the last meeting; and Mr. Sanford Smith was elected to take the place of Mr. E. G. Crawford as chairman of the program committee.

After adjournment, a picnic supper was enjoyed by the group. We will have to give Miss Mattie Wilkes, chairman of the social committee, and the social committee credit for our good eats.

Our guests were: Miss Jeanne Lunsford, Frank Penland, Miller Edwards, and Miss Daphne Holcombe.

Ten years ago per capita consumption of milk in America was 55.3 gallons per year. Today it is around 60 gallons. Scientists agree that nutritional needs of all ages are best served when adequate amounts of milk are included in the diet.

Alvin—If a man steals, no matter what it is, he will live to regret it.

Gloria—You used to steal kisses from me before we were married, dear.

Alvin—Anyway, I will stick to what I said.

Compensation Commission Men Visiting all Counties

RALEIGH, May 12.—Field representatives of the North Carolina Unemployment Compensation commission will start out from Raleigh Tuesday to make a final cleanup of all of the counties in the State during the next 10 days or two weeks, Chairman Charles G. Powell, of the Commission, announces.

During the first six weeks of their activity, the field men visited the counties containing the larger numbers of industrial and commercial employing units, including Wake, Durham, Guilford, Forsyth, Mecklenburg, Gaston, Buncombe, Iredell and Rowan.

For the past two or three weeks they were split into two groups, one going eastward, the other westward, visiting the next larger counties. Splitting into pairs, the representatives will visit in the next two weeks the remaining counties.

As in the other counties, the field men will try to find all employers who are subject to the Unemployment Compensation Act and who have not made reports or contributions on the wages of their employees, and help them to make the proper reports and remittances.

Macon county will be canvassed by James L. Blum, of Winston-Salem and Frank D. White, of Lenoir.

Observed at the Golf Club

(THE CLUB REPORTER)

Mr. Sheriff, please arrest A. & P. Russell, for arson, by request of Jim Perry and Jess Conley. Having played very little, this year he shoots a hot 41 for the first nine holes last Sunday. If that isn't setting the course on fire for this, early in the season, then the Supreme Court will have to reverse its rulings on arson.

Mrs. Blackburn Johnson's ambition is to drive a golf ball as far as Dick Jones. It is always well to set your sights high, Ruth, more power to you!

Mrs. S. L. Dickson, of Clayton, almost killed her husband Sunday, by sinking a 30 ft. putt. Just to prove it was no accident, she did the same thing Monday in a putting contest with the ladies.

Little Miss Ann Lyle took her first golf lesson Monday and she was a beautiful picture in her new Florida slacks.

Some say Mark Dowdle sure is lucky lately, but the wise ones agree that Mark's game has improved tremendously.

Mrs. Harley Lyle caught the golf bug in Florida this winter and the Lyle family talk a modern and interesting language now.

Dean Sisk hopes to be playing golf again very soon. Dean has been a little under the weather of late.

Ellis Soper was voted the best dressed man on the golf course Sunday. We believe it was the red sports shirt that caught the judges' eye. Yes, Mrs. Soper, they were lady judges.

Mrs. Reba Tessier, after being complimented on her deadly putting, remarked she ought to be deadly because as a girl in Louisiana she used to kill squirrels in the high trees with a pistol, believe it or not!

Big Foot Jones christened the pool Sunday with the first swim of the season while his sister looked on from the side lines.

Gerard Dover, came over from Christ school to spend the weekend at the Franklin Lodge and purchased a pair of sporty swimming trunks in preparation for a big swimming season.

Mrs. Dick Jones purchased new springs for her car after giving 10 caddies a lift home on Monday.

Six male visitors to Franklin stayed over the week-end in order to play golf Sunday. The golf course is a money-getter for the business people of Franklin and every one should get behind the Major.

Paging Tommy Angel! Paging Tommy Angel! Tommy's long driving will be needed this summer when we play Bryson City and other clubs.

Paul Green, of Clayton, is not only a good golfer but an excellent tennis player.

Golf is much cheaper than hospital and doctor's bills and lots more fun.

Mrs. Fred Sloan will be among those present from now on at the course. Fine, good sports like Mrs. Sloan are always in demand.

Don't fall down on your good resolution, Mrs. Miles. We are still looking forward to your defeating your husband some day. Others have tried defeating him in the past, but few have ever succeeded. We know your wonderful college record, Vance.

The Girl Scouts will be granted the same rates in the pool that the Boy Scouts have enjoyed.

The diving boards are up and the pool is full and next Sunday should be a big day.

Forest Students

From Syracuse University Visit Franklin

On Monday the Nantahala forest service was host to a party of Syracuse University students who spent the week-end in Franklin. Sixteen seniors comprising the forest utilization department of the New York state college of Forestry of Syracuse university, accompanied by Prof. Hiram Henderson, were in the party who were on an observation tour of forest products industries.

Bob Hahn, of Skaneateles, N. Y., a member of the party, reported visits to Lilitz, Pa., to an animal trap company, the U. S. department of commerce, forest products division, Washington; the distillation plant of the Eastman Kodak corporation at Kingsport, Tenn., and other plants utilizing forest products.

The party visited the Nantahala forest service equipment base near Arrowood Glade, and Wayah Bald, proceeding to Alabama before returning to Syracuse the latter part of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart were in Asheville Saturday. Mrs. Stewart is one of Macon county's progressive teachers in attendance at Cullowhee.

Miss Emma Hyatt, who is attending Western Carolina's Teacher's college at Cullowhee, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hyatt, the past week.

Messrs. Lon and Jess Thompson have gone to New York to be employed as shirt foremen in tunnel drilling. It is reported there will be 105 miles of tunnels when completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carver Sanders, of Canton, were visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Downs, and other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hyatt, Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Stewman, of Asheville, who has been visiting her relatives for the past week, will leave for her home soon.

Lee Crawford and Frank Sanders have gone to Highlands to hunt and fish.

Mrs. Virgil Ford and Arthur Jacobs, of Asheville, came over to attend the funeral of little Annette Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Peek and little daughter, Mary Wanda, of Charlotte, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mincey and Mrs. O. V. Mincey, this week. While here Mr. Peek is painting the old home place of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mincey.

When the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth in 1620 there were no cows in New England. Many children died before a ship bringing cows arrived from Holland two years later. These cows were apportioned at the rate of one to every six persons.

"What is a cannibal, Tommy?"
"I don't know."
"Well, if you ate your mother and father, what would you be?"
"An orphan."

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Pay-and-Take-It announce that they have moved their stock of groceries from their old store on the Square and will be out of business temporarily until their new store, which is being constructed back of the A & P, is completed.

LID-BANGING WAS A FAVORITE SPORT

Is the man going to hit the lady with the stove lid? No! He is just hanging two lids together to prove that malleable iron does not break.

That was a favorite stunt with Monarch range salesmen "in the good old days" . . . and it ought to be done today so every customer would pay more attention to the great difference between unbreakable Malleable Iron and brittle cast iron.

For Malleable Iron means long life, good baking and fuel economy . . . qualities that are just as important TODAY as they ever were.

Beautiful design and porcelain enamel are not to be overlooked. Far from it! We believe the MONARCH is the most beautiful range ever built . . . but it is also a FULL MALLEABLE range, built exactly the same way Monarchs were built thirty years ago. All parts subject to strain or breakage are made of this unbreakable iron. All joints are made permanently tight with rivets . . . not temporarily tight with stove bolts and stove putty.

Of course all modern MONARCHS are Full Enamel. Enamel outside for beauty and easy cleaning; enamel inside as the best known protection against rust damage.

Let us show you the latest MONARCH models. They are ranges we are proud to sell.
