SHOWER GIVEN FOR MISS McGUIRE

One of the most delightful of the courtesies extended to Miss Margaret McGuire, whose marriage to Warren Cooper will take place on June 5, was a kitchen shower given at the home of Mrs. George Slagle Thursday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock by the Ladies' auxiliary of the Franklin Presbyterian church. Pink roses and lavender iris were used throughout the house, in attractive arrangements.

During the afternoon, Mrs. J. A. Flanagan, as mistress of ceremonies, led the guests in several humorous contests. In one contest, each guest was asked to write a love story. Miss McGuire wrote the best love story and a winner was presented with a lovely array of gifts by little Ann Flanagan, dressed as "Bridget."

The souvenirs were pink parasols made of crepe paper, and filled with rice, with which the bride-elect was showered. Delicious ice cream covered with crushed strawberries and angel cake was served by the hostesses.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MRS. B. W. JOHNSON

As a farewell courtesy tendered Mrs. Blackburn W. Johnson, prior to her leaving for her new home in Asheville, Mrs. S. H. Lyle, Jr., and Mrs. George J. Johnston entertained the Thursday Bridge club at the home of the latter on Harrison avenue.

The rooms where the guests assembled were beautifully decorated in an array of spring flowers.

Mrs. Johnson was presented a beautiful chromium table lamp as a farewell gift from the club.

Those enjoying the evening, besides the honoree, were: Mrs. R. S. Jones, Mrs. Fred S. Sloan, Mrs. Sam Mendenhall, Mrs. Emory Hammett and Miss Amanda Slagle. The hostesses served a delicious salad at the conclusion of the playing.
