

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES and COMINGS AND GOINGS

PENDERGRASS-McCRACKEN

A very pretty wedding which was solemnized Sunday, July 4, was that of Miss Bernice Pendergrass to Robert McCracken. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Teague at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pendergrass, at Holly Springs.

The living room, where a large group of close relatives and friends gathered, was beautifully decorated with hollyhocks.

The bride wore a very becoming costume of gray.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Laura McCracken, of Holly Springs.

A wedding dinner was prepared by the groom's mother, after which they went to the home of the bride's parents where a supper had been prepared for the wedding party.

Mr. and Mrs. McCracken left for Baltimore, Md., where Mr. McCracken has a position.

MASHBURN-HOLLAND

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Donnie Mashburn to Lester Holland in Clayton, Ga., Saturday, June 19, in a very simple but impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Holland, who is the daughter of Mr. Bert Mashburn, of Cullasaja, was attired in a very becoming dress of navy blue georgette with white accessories.

Mr. Holland is the son of Mrs. A. M. Holland, of Cullasaja.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Holland left for Asheville on a short wedding trip.

The bride wore as her traveling gown a suit of gray with Navy blue accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland will return to their home on the Cullasaja river.

GARROU-CARPENTER

Announcement has been made from Morganton of the marriage of Miss Pauline Garrou and George C. Carpenter, of Valdese. The wedding was solemnized March 27 at the church of the Holy Comforter at Sumter, S. C. The Rev. J. Benthon Walker, rector of the church, officiated.

Mrs. Carpenter is the youngest daughter of the late Francis Garrou and Mrs. Garrou, of Valdese and is a popular and attractive young girl. She was graduated from Fassifern school at Hendersonville May 31. Until his death Mr. Garrou was prominent in the civic and industrial life of Valdese. He represented Burke county in the 1935 general assembly and was well known throughout the state.

Mr. Carpenter is the son of George Carpenter, of Franklin, and is a prominent young business man of Valdese. He is a graduate of Western Carolina Teachers' college at Cullowhee, where he was a member of Alpha Phi Sigma honorary fraternity. He taught in the Valdese schools until three years ago when he became manager of the Colonial theater. He recently acquired the Madison Theater at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are making their home with Mrs. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. Garrou, at Valdese.
