SILVER TEA AT HOME OF MRS. W. A. ROGERS

A very delightful social event of Thursday afternoon, was the "Silver Tea" given at the home of Mrs. W. A. Rogers from four to six, sponsored by the F. S. Johnston Bible class of the Franklin Methodist church.

The spacious home was decorated throughout with a mixed variety of summer flowers and the flowers in the dining room carried out a color scheme of yellow and green, which was furthered in the refreshments.

The table was overlaid with a lovely lace cloth, centered with a bowl of yellow flowers and flanked with five-branched bronze iandelabra, holding green tapers.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Mrs. E. B. McCollum and Mrs. T. W. Porter.

Mrs. P. F. Callahan and Mrs. J. S. Sloan poured tea and coffee from the beautifully appointed table during the first hour and Mrs. T. W. Porter and Mrs. Jim Palmer pouring the last hour. Others assisting in the dining room were: Mrs. L. H. Page, Mrs. Zeb Conley, Mrs. R. G. Beshears, Mrs. Lester S. Conley and Miss Margaret Cozad.

Mrs. Henry W. Cabe assisted by Miss Katherine Ellard, Miss Sarah Conley and Miss Betty Rogers, daughter of the hostess, presented a very appropriate musical program.

Mrs. Sam L. Rogers had charge of the registration book, which showed that more than 50 guests registered during the hours.

MISS LOUISE BLAINE GIVES BUNCO PARTY

Miss Louise Blaine entertained Thursday evening of last week with a Bunco party and Scavenger hunt in honor of her house guest, Miss Louise Crosby, of San Mateo, Fla., and the house guest of Miss Jean Hall, Miss Virginia Oliver, of Atlanta, Ga.

The first event of the evening was the scavenger hunt with the following items on the list: Paul Carpenter's autograph, front page of last Friday's Asheville Citizen, fingerprints of Crawford McCoy, mouse trap, white horse hair, "Mush" Cunningham's Standard cap, two pieces of Oralgene chewing gum, 13 ounces of water from a running stream, large size corset, N. C. license plate for 1935, Indian-head penny, old-fashioned night shirt, four-leaf clover, toad frog from Arrowood Glade, measurement of Charles Ingram's foot, empty Texaco oil can, baby rattle, blue shoe string, and blond hair from Charles Russell's head.

Upon returning from the hunt, two couples, Jean Hall and Brabson Bulgin, and Virginia Oliver and Billy Blaine, won prizes for securing the largest number of items listed.

After enjoying several games of bunco, delicious refreshments were served and prizes awarded.

High bunco prize for the girls was won by Jean Hall, while Bobby Porter won high prize for the boys. The honor guests were then presented with souvenirs of Franklin.

Ed Davis, of Winston-Salem, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cunningham. On his return home he was accompanied by his wife and young daughter, Barbara, who had been here visiting for the past 10 days.

Mrs. Ellis Clarke Soper returned last Thursday from New York City where she had been visiting relatives and friends for about 10 days.

Mrs. Richard Hardy and Miss Ruth Lawrence, of Lookout Mountain, Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived Thursday to spend several days with Mrs. Hardy's brother, Mr. Ellis Clarke Soper and Mrs. Soper. They returned to their home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McConnell and daughter, Miss Betty, of Atlanta, are spending several weeks at the home of Mrs. H. T. Mozelle on Bonny Crest.

Mrs. W. A. Jurnigan, of Orlando, Fla., is spending several days here visiting her uncle, Charlie T. Blaine and Mrs. Blaine at their home on Harrison avenue.

Mrs. Laura Bowman, of Oklahoma City, Okla., came in Sunday for a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Miss Naomi Bowman, who is spending the summer in Franklin with relatives and is staying in the Kelly Gift Shop. Mrs. Bowman is a niece of the late Mrs. M. L. Kelly.

Irby Long, of Amity, Ga., is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. L. Young and Mr. Young at their home on Franklin Route 2.

Joe W. Fouts, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Fouts, of Iotla, for the past few weeks, returned to New York City last Thursday where he has been employed for the last year by the Parker Construction company.
