PLAY DAY EVENTS GREATLY ENJOYED

Despite overcast skies and threats of rain, the Highlands Funmakers successfully carried out their plans for a play day, on Friday, July 23. The events of the day started with a pet parade. Entries included dogs, cats, chickens, a duck, and a goat. The prize winners were the Rev. R. B. DuPree for his Chow puppy, and Mary Appley, who exhibited a billy goat. The pet parade was followed by a baby show. Winners in four classes were Mary Frances Summer, Martha Jane Anderson, Bobby Weaver Harper, and Judith Rhodes.

At two o'clock cooking and hand-work exhibits were judged on the porch at Highlands Inn. The hand-work winners were Miss Mildred Ragsdale for hand weaving, and Mrs. Ida Porter for crocheting. The cooking winners were Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson, for a cake, and Mrs. J. E. Potts, for jellies and preserves. An auction of the food in the exhibit was conducted by Dr. T. J. O'Neil and the proceeds given to the Funmakers.

The next event was a music contest held in the Presbyterian church. The first prize was won by Henry Stevenson and the second by Edith Bolton.

During the afternoon Dr. O'Neil and the Rev. Frank Bloxham supervised a variety of games and competitive races in the grove and on Main street for the youngsters. A soft ball game at the ball park was another feature of the afternoon.

In the evening the street was roped off and square dancing was a popular attraction. Miss Mary Davis and Roy Speed won prizes for dancing. A fortune teller delighted all by her knowledge of the present and her predictions of the future.

Throughout the day soft drinks and homemade cakes and candy were sold at booths erected on Main street.

S. J. Fullwood acted as official photographer and took pictures of each event. Mrs. F. J. Carlin took motion pictures of all activities.

Miss Estelle Edwards was the hostess for the day, and with her three co-hostesses, Mozelle Bryson, Virginia May Edwards, and Jessie Keener, attended each event and awarded the prizes. The hostesses were entertained for lunch at King's Inn and for dinner at Tricemont Terrace.

The success of the day was due to the work of Mrs. Jack Wilcox who made the arrangements, and to the cooperation of the Highlands Funmakers, and the townspeople.

MRS. HARBISON ENTERTAINS FOR MISS POLLY RICE

Mrs. Thomas Harbison entertained delightfully on Monday afternoon at her home on Main street in honor of her niece, little Miss Polly Rice, who celebrated her fourth birthday. The guests were entertained with group games, a fish pond and story-telling.

At the end of the afternoon the guests went into the dining room for refreshments. The decorations and table appointments were in pink and green with a beautiful birthday cake adorning the table.

The guest of honor was the recipient of many gifts and the afternoon was enjoyed by everyone. Those present included Polly Rice, Sarah, Isobel and Tudor Hall, Mary Bascomb Cook, Charlotte Ann Bloxham, Patricia Audrey, Ann Hays, Lewis Reese and Martha Beachum.

HIGHLANDS MUSEUM NEWS ITEMS

Dr. O. S. Gibbs, a member of the Pharmaceutical department of the University of Tennessee, presented an extremely interesting and informative illustrated lecture on "The Chemical Control of the Body" at the Highlands School Theatre on Sunday afternoon. A large number of people attended the lecture which is the second in a series, under the auspices of the Highlands museum. Dr. Gibbs is a summer visitor to Highlands.

Four cars left on Tuesday morning for an all-day expedition to the original habitat of Shortia and on Thursday a group of the senior nature club will make a trip to East La Porte for the purpose of studying minerals and the Indian inscriptions. These trips are proving more and more popular.

On Friday a lecture will be given in the Presbyterian church at 4 p. m. The lecturer this week will be Mr. H. E. Wheeler and his subject will be "Strange Birds from Regions Far Away." Mr. Wheeler will bring to us at that time truths that are stranger than fiction. All are invited to attend the lecture, which is entirely free.

Saturday of this week there will be a meeting of the trustees of the Highlands museum and laboratory held in the laboratory at 4 p. m. Matters of great importance to the future working of the museum and laboratory will be discussed.

MRS. LILLIENTHAL GIVES BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Henry F. Lillienthal entertained last Friday at Camp Sequoia in honor of her little daughter, Mary, on the occasion of her second birthday. The guests were entertained with games after which a birthday cake was cut and ice cream served.

Mrs. Lillienthal took motion pictures of the group. The children who are Mary's playmates at Camp Sequoia were guests, including Elizabeth Kelsey, Peggy Ann Tyler, Billie May Murphy, Lynnie Vance, Charlotte Ann Bloxham, Gordon Eyerhardt, Bobby Moore, Dorothy Carter, Pattey Evans, Marthine Vance and John Graham Beverley. Mrs. Lillienthal is a summer guest at King's Inn.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR STANHOPE HILL

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at Horse Cove for Stanhope Hill, 40, who died unexpectedly in Raleigh last week. Mr. Hill, who was the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill, is survived by his parents, two sisters, and one brother.

The rites, which were simple and impressive, were conducted by the Rev. W. F. Beadle, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Frank Baumgarner, Baptist preacher of Horse Cove. Burial was in the Horse Cove cemetery.

The ballbearers were Will Edwards, John Daniel, Troy, Bruce, and Fred Edwards.

L. G. APPLEY SPONSORING CAKE WALK

L. G. Appley is sponsoring a cake walk at the Dugout on Monday, August 2, for the benefit of the Highlands School Theatre. Mrs. Frank Potts is soliciting the cakes. The money is to be used for new leather upholstered seats in the theatre auditorium. The public is invited.

CERTIFICATES PRESENTED AT BIBLE SCHOOL

At the close of the session on Friday, 21 certificates were presented to the regular attendants of the daily vacation Bible school, which was held at the Methodist church during the preceding two weeks. The purpose of the school was to teach the children how to apply the Scriptures in their daily lives. Mr. McMurray Richey, of the Duke School of Religion, was the leader of the school, which was considered most successful.

Miss Louise Crosby, of San Mateo, Fla., is spending some time in Franklin as the guest of Miss Louise Blaine. Miss Crosby is the niece of Miss May Crosby, of Highlands and Florida.

Mrs. George Saussy and children have returned to their home in Columbia, S. C., after spending a month at Highlands, the summer home of Mrs. Hampton Perry on Satulah mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle D. Holcomb and family, who have been guests at the Hall House, will leave on Saturday for their home in Miami, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Holcomb have spent previous summers in Asheville and vicinity and have expressed great delight with this section of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Westerfeldt Terhune, of New Orleans, are spending the month of August at Highlands on Satulah mountain. The Terhunes are annual visitors to Highlands.

The Misses Marguerite and Clare Ravenel, of Philadelphia, arrived last Saturday to spend some time at their summer home here. Miss Marguerite Ravenel returned recently from Europe where she attended the coronation festivities of King George VI.

The Rev. and Mrs. Edgar H. Gould and their family arrived at the Hall house last week for a month's stay. Mr. Gould is president of St. Augustine's college in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Neyle Marx, of Jacksonville, Fla., have returned to their home after spending their annual vacation at Tricemont Terrace.

Miss Marian Nalle, of Sanford, spent Saturday visiting the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Bloxham.

S. J. Fullwood, author and newspaper man, who is spending the summer at the Hall house, has completed the manuscript for his new book, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." The book is a complete history of each state and territory of the United States and will be published very soon.

The Lanier family is again occupying the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blanc Monroe, "Playmore," overlooking Horse Cove.

Mr. Merritt and Miss Llewellyn Beadle have returned to their home in Lafayette, La., after spending several weeks with their brother, the Rev. W. F. Beadle, at the Methodist parsonage.

Word has been received here of the serious illness of Mrs. Clyde Hentz. Mrs. Hentz underwent an operation recently at Columbia hospital, Columbia, S. C., and her condition is reported as critical. Mr. Hentz is science instructor in the Highlands high school.

The Hudson library is conducting its annual drive for funds and will hold a garden tour for the benefit of the library on August 7. Arrangements are being made under the direction of Miss Mary J. Crosby. Full details will be announced in next week's paper.

Guests representing 22 states and Cuba have registered at the chamber of commerce office during the month of July.

A school of beauty culture, with five employees, and a beauty shop, with three or more employees, owned or controlled by the same interests, are subject to the N. C. unemployment compensation law, the state commission holds in an official interpretation. In these schools, under state laws, the students are required to attend 480 hours before being permitted to take examinations for licenses to operate their own shops. After they have attended 300 hours they are permitted to charge for their work and receive part, usually half, of the pay. The schools are required, also, to include these advanced students as employees and pay contributions based on the amount they receive for work done during the last 180 hours of their training.

Can You Afford To Be Without It?

Funeral Benefit Insurance costs so little that no one should do without it, especially those who are dependent on moderate incomes.

The rates are far lower than you might expect. These rates are based on the death rate within our own organization, a mutual body governed by the laws of North Carolina. In this association the following assessments are now in effect:

- Ages 1 to 9 years 5¢ Quarterly
 - Ages 9 to 29 years 10¢ Quarterly
 - Ages 30 to 49 years 20¢ Quarterly
 - Ages 50 to 65 years 30¢ Quarterly
- Benefits are provided in the amount of $100 for persons over 10 years of age and in the amount of $50 for persons under 10 years of age.

In slightly more than a year that this association has been in operation we have reached a membership of more than 6,000, and during this time we have paid our members over $2,000.

Our finances are in excellent shape and with your co-operation we will continue to make this a strong association.

Don't wait for an agent to call on you—come in today and join while you are in good health, tomorrow it might be too late.
