

Al Schacht

Baseball Comedian To Be In Asheville

Al Schacht, noted baseball comedian, will make an appearance in Asheville, Monday, August 23, when the Asheville Tourists and Portsmouth Cubs, of the Piedmont league open a three-game series at McCormick field.

Schacht has entertained millions during the past few years as a regular coach of the Washington Senators. His daily show in the Washington park for years was a regular feature.

This year for the first time Schacht is touring the country and the Tourists have obtained him to put on his show before and during their game with the Clubs.

No doubt many Franklin fans will go to Asheville Monday to see Schacht and his show, and also to see Parker, last year's Duke All-American griddle, in action as a baseball player. He is a member of the Portsmouth Club.

Franklin Boys Attend Tar Heel Camp

The Future Farmer chapter of Franklin, together with a group from the Bryson City chapter, attended the State Young Tar Heel Farmer camp, at White Lake, N. C., during the week of August 9 to August 14.

The week in camp was purely recreational and all kinds of sports were enjoyed, such as boxing, baseball, soft ball, horse shoe pitching and swimming.

One outstanding trip was made during the week when all went to Carolina Beach, just of Wilmington. It proved to be the first time that many of the boys had ever seen the ocean.

There were 14 boys from Franklin who spent the week in camp besides the agricultural teacher, W. H. Finley, who accompanied the group to camp. They were: Bill McCoy, Claude Southard, L. M. Johnson, T. L. Stanfield, Billy Higdon, Billy Phillips, Norman Talley, Avery Cabe, John Shope, Claude Leatherman, Lawson Snyder, Leon Lenoir, Kenneth Young, and Wayne Bradley.

Bert Grant Learns To Talk Without Tongue

The following article taken from the Enka Voice, published at Enka, tells of a remarkable surgical operation performed by Dr. Edgar Angel, of Franklin.

"Bert Grant, who underwent an operation for cancer of the tongue three years ago at Angel hospital, in Franklin, in which operation, Dr. Angel removed Mr. Grant's tongue, has learned to talk without his tongue. Bob Ripley, 'Believe it or Not,' heard of Mr. Grant and has written to him asking that he appear on his radio program in New York City next fall and tell the country of his experience and unusual ability to talk without a tongue, which Mr. Grant actually does so well that anyone is able to understand him."

THREE CELEBRATE FRIDAY THIRTEENTH BIRTHDAYS

On Friday, August 13, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bryant, managers of the Franklin Terrace hotel, celebrated a most unusual occasion—the Friday Thirteenth birthday of three of their guests, Mrs. H. C. Maxwell, of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. D. Holmes, of Cordele, Ga., and P. D. Greaves, of Gulfport, Miss.

The birthday table, for eight, with a color scheme of pink and white, was artistically arranged by Mrs. H. E. Rowland. The song, "Happy Birthday to You," led by Miss Zaidie Phipps, greeted the guests of honor as they entered. Mrs. Maxwell was presented with a beautiful corsage of sweetheart roses, forget-me-nots, and clematis, and given the privilege of making a wish and of blowing out the candles on the birthday cake.

Very pleasing was the coincidence that, for 45 years, clematis has been used for Mrs. Maxwell's birthday table.

Those present were Mrs. H. C. Maxwell, Miss Pauline Maxwell, and Miss Erman Bowe, all of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. D. Holmes, of Cordele, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Greaves, of Gulfport, Miss., and Miss Zaidie Phipps, of Tallahassee, Fla.

Miss Louise Ray, of Richmond, Va., has been spending the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. H. P. Ray.

Mrs. Lewis Young and little daughter, Mary, spent a few days with Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. H. P. Ray, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hurst and daughter, Miss Annie Hurst, of Detroit, Mich., are spending several days in Macon county visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Hurst was formerly Miss Mary Jenkins, of West's Mill.

Bobby Shepherd, son of Mrs. Harve Shepherd and the late Mr. Shepherd, is spending two weeks here with his mother and will also visit with his aunt, Mrs. Jake Smathers, at Canton. Bobby has for the past year been in the Pythian Home school, at Clayton, N. C.

Resettlement Office In New Quarters

Due to the fact that more office space is required for the county welfare department, under the supervision of Mrs. Eloise G. Franks, the resettlement administration office has moved from the Higdon building to the Joe Ashear building on Main street.

The Franklin unit of the resettlement administration and the Murphy unit were combined, with headquarters in Franklin on August 1.

Personnel of the unit now consists of: John R. Faison, farm supervisor; John Shields, of Murphy, assistant farm supervisor; Miss Pauline Powers, home management supervisor, and Miss Carolyn Nolen, secretary.

All of the 48 states, District of Columbia, Alaska and Hawaii now have unemployment compensation laws which have been approved by the social security board. Wisconsin is the only state paying benefits to unemployed workers so far. About 26 states will start paying benefits in 1938 and the remainder in 1939.
