

Highlands Highlights

MRS. FRANK BLOXHAM, PHONE 55

NEW TEACHER ADDED IN GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Professor O. F. Sumner, principal of the Highlands school, has announced that another teacher will be added in the elementary grades this coming year, making eight teachers in the grades instead of seven as there were last year. Miss Clyde Smith, of Seneca, S. C., will fill the new place. Miss Smith is well known to residents of Highlands, having been hostess at Hotel Edwards for several summers.

POSTMASTER ATTENDS FEDERATION MEETING

Postmaster S. E. Potts and R. L. Potts, spent the first part of this week in Fayetteville, where they attended the meeting of the North and South Carolina federation of postmasters. James Youts, postmaster at Charlotte, is the president of the organization and presided at the meeting. The principal speaker was the Hon. James A. Farley, postmaster-general of the United States.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Hudson library association was held at the home of Miss Mary J. Crosby on Thursday of last week. Reports were made by the secretary, treasurer and librarian, and following officers were reelected for the coming year: president, Miss Crosby; vice president, Mrs. S. T. Marett; secretary, Miss Rebecca Nall; treasurer, Miss Dorothea Harbison. The trustees, Mrs. F. H. Potts, Miss M. D. Warren, Miss Marguerite Ravenal and Miss Albertina Staub, were reappointed. The treasurer reported $119.80 received from the three benefits already held this summer.

Following the association meeting was a trustees' meeting, which appointed Miss Gertrude Harbison to continue as librarian, and transferred the library insurance from Frank B. Cook to S. T. Marett.

HUDSON LIBRARY TO HOLD FOOD SALE

The Hudson library will hold a food sale for the benefit of the library in the vacant store next to the barber shop on August 26, starting at 10 o'clock a. m. A large variety of food, confections, and flowers will be offered for sale. The patrons are advised to attend the sale at an early hour or to make reservations for the things they desire. The committee in charge will be Mrs. O. E. Young, chairman; Mrs. F. H. Potts, and the Misses Dorothea and Gertrude Harbison.

If You are Interested In Beauty Culture

visit or write to the "South's Leading Beauty School."

Under our simple method of instruction any woman or girl 16-60 can easily learn this pleasant and profitable profession.

Never before has the demand for expert beauticians so far exceeded the number now in training.

We are now taking reservations for our Fall class, which begins on September 1, and is open for enrollments until September 15. Ask about our special low rate to all students enrolling in this class.

Tennessee School of Beauty Culture

302½ S. Gay St.

KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

MRS. DACAMERA IMPROVING AFTER CAR ACCIDENT

Friends of Mrs. W. H. Dacamera, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident on August 9, will be glad to know that she is recovering satisfactorily from her injuries. It is hoped that she will soon be able to return to Highlands with her daughter, Mrs. Morrison. Mrs. Dacamera is in a Cleveland, Tenn., hospital.

REVIVAL TO START AT CLEAR CREEK

Rev. W. F. Beadle, pastor of the Highlands Circuit of the Methodist church, will hold a revival at the Clear Creek Methodist church next week, August 23-28. There will be a preaching service each evening at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is expected at the meetings.

FUNMAKERS TO HAVE PICNIC AT BILLY CABIN

The Highlands Funmakers will hold a picnic at Billy Cabin, the home of Mrs. Jack Wilcox, on Flat Mountain, on Friday evening, August 20. Everyone who is interested in the Funmakers is cordially invited. Each person will take his own supper, and will meet at the Masonic hall at 6 o'clock p. m., where transportation will be provided for those who wish it.

HOUSE PARTY ENJOYED AT NALL COTTAGE

The following group of young people enjoyed a house party last week at the Nall cottage on the Dillard road: Miss Katherine Kennedy, Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Sara Jones, Canton, Ga., and Messrs Grantland Barnes, Robert Cheatam, and Napier Touchstone, of Griffin, Ga. The party was chaperoned by Miss Rebecca C. Nall, of Highlands.

H. E. WHEELER TO LECTURE SUNDAY

A cordial invitation is extended to all residents and visitors to Highlands to attend the next in the series of lectures under the auspices of the Highlands museum, which will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. H. E. Wheeler, director of the museum, will deliver the lecture on "Mountain Peaks in the Lives of Some of the Naturalists."

ANNUAL MUSEUM MEETING AUGUST 28

The annual meeting of the Highlands museum and biological laboratory will be held at the laboratory on Lindenwood Lake on Saturday, August 28, at 3 p. m. A general invitation is issued to all who are interested and it is hoped that a large number of people will attend the meeting. As is the usual thing a meeting of the trustees will follow the general meeting.

HENRY ZOELLNER TO ENTER FLYING SCHOOL

Henry Zoellner the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zoellner, has enrolled in the mechanic's course at the Lincoln Airplane and Flying school, Lincoln, Neb. This school offers a system of self-help to the students taking this course. If he is considered suitable material for a pilot, Henry will continue his studies along this line after completing the mechanical course. Henry will leave for Nebraska on September 1.

MOTORCADE TO ASHEVILLE AUGUST 25

A motorcade is being formed by the museum and the chamber of commerce to go to Asheville on August 25, to visit the home of Mr. B. S. Colburn and see his valuable collection of minerals. Mr. Colburn extended a very gracious invitation to all who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity, to come to Asheville for this purpose. The motorcade will start from the museum at 9 a. m. Each person is asked to carry a picnic lunch. Transportation will be provided for those who have no car. All who desire to make the trip are asked to register either at the chamber of commerce office or at the museum, by Tuesday afternoon.

HIGHLANDS MUSEUM NOTES

The museum in conjunction with the chamber of commerce will sponsor "Highlands Week" from August 23-28. The purpose of the special week is to interest every person living in Highlands to visit the museum during that week. The names of every visitor will be checked against a complete list of the residents of the town. Every exhibit in the museum has been carefully prepared by the director and his assistants and is well worth seeing. Each visit to the museum is a painless and pleasant method of acquiring some knowledge about Highlands and its environment. Be sure to call at the museum at least once during the week of August 23-28.

The children's museum club and the boys' and girls' museum clubs will meet as usual during the coming week. All club members are concentrating on winning honors and prizes which will be awarded at the last meeting of the season. The senior natural history club will go with the motorcade to Asheville on August 25, to see the beautiful gems and minerals in the private collection of Burnham Standish Colburn.

CHURCH NOTICES

Sunday, August 22
Methodist Circuit
Rev. W. F. Beadle, Pastor
Highlands
10 a. m.—Sunday school.
11 a. m.—Preaching service.
8 p. m.—Preaching service.
Cashiers
10 a. m.—Sunday school.
Highlands Baptist Church
Rev. J. E. Brown, Pastor
Tuckaseegee, N. C.
10 a. m.—Sunday school.
4 p. m.—Junior BYPU.
7:15 p. m.—Senior BYPU.

Church of the Incarnation
Highlands
Rev. Frank Bloxham, Rector
Rev. John R. Tolar, Preacher
10 a. m.—Church school.
11 a. m.—Morning prayer and sermon.

Church of the Good Shepherd
Cashiers
9 a. m.—Holy communion and sermon.

St. Agnes' Church
Franklin
Rev. M. B. Sackett, Preacher
5 p. m.—Evening prayer and sermon.

Highlands Presbyterian Church
Rev. Robert B. DuPree, Pastor in Charge
10:15 a. m.—Sunday school.
11 a. m.—Morning worship.
8 p. m.—Young People's Union.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reese, Jr., announce the birth of a daughter at their home on the Toxaway road on August 13.

Miss Jennie Trapier was a passing visitor to Highlands last week. The Trapier family is well known here, having maintained a residence for many years. Miss Trapier is now employed at Trinity Parish in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt W. Dixon, of Savannah, Ga., are occupying the Cranston house on Satulah road.

Professor and Mrs. Harry S. Winters, from Stetson University, Deland, Fla., visited Miss Mary J. Crosby one day last week. After spending the night at Hotel Edwards, Professor and Mrs. Winters continued their trip to the Baptist conference center at Blue Ridge.

Miss Thelma Bougere, of New Orleans, La., is spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall. Miss Bougere is secretary to Chief Justice of the Supreme court of Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Belcher Cole, of Hollywood, Fla., and Mrs. P. R. E. Hatton, of West Palm Beach, Fla., are guests at Edwards Farm in Horse Cove.

Miss Rebecca C. Nall has rented her house on the Horse Cove road to Ralph Hodgson for the month of September. Mrs. Hodgson is recuperating from a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Lewis and Malcolm Lewis of West Palm Beach, Fla., are guests at "Hemlock Lawn," the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Appley.

Mr. and Mrs. Rucker Ragland, of Miami, Fla., spent the week-end with Mrs. Ragland's father, L. W. Rice. They left on Sunday for a trip to Quebec, Canada, with Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Ragland, after which they plan to return to Highlands for a longer visit.

A. K. Woodman, of West Palm Beach, Fla., is a guest at Hotel Edwards. Mr. Woodman is building a house at Webbmont.

Mrs. R. A. Womack and Miss Sallie Ader, of Winston-Salem, are spending a week at Highlands Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and their family are living in the Edwards cottage on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Potts, Mrs. Leila A. Layton, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Dillevig and two children of Lauderdale, Fla., made a trip to Wayah Bald on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lyman, of Birmingham, Ala., have returned to their home after spending two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall.

Miss Rebecca C. Nall left on Tuesday for Washington, D. C. She expects to return to Highlands in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Helton Holmes and A. R. Gray, of Jacksonville, Fla., have been guests at Hotel Edwards for the last two weeks.

Mrs. James N. Lowe, of Lylesville, is visiting at her former home here, for about two weeks. Mrs. Lowe is the former Miss Bernice Rice.

S. J. Fullwood, Philip Fullwood, and the Rev. Frank Bloxham made a trip through the Great Smoky Mountains national park last week. While in Knoxville they visited Mr. Fullwood's cousin, Rev. Samuel Laing, who is the president of Knoxville College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carnes and their son, of Spartanburg, S. C., left on Sunday after spending their annual vacation at Hotel Edwards. Mr. Carnes is connected with the South Carolina soil erosion department.

Dr. E. A. Hines, the editor of the South Carolina Medical Journal, Miss Leola Hines, and Miss Nell Hines, an instructor at Western Carolina Teachers' college, were guests at Hotel Edwards last week. They returned to their home in Seneca, S. C., on Sunday.

Miss Barbara Zoellner, who underwent an operation on her legs on June 11, at the Shriners' hospital, in Greenville, S. C., is recovering rapidly and is again able to be around on crutches. When school opens Barbara expects to carry on with her studies as usual. Barbara is the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zoellner of Main street. She was stricken with infantile paralysis some few years ago.

Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Zeisberg and Miss Elsa Zeisberg, of Jefferson City, Mo., spent the week-end at Hotel Edwards. On Sunday they continued on a trip to Virginia and expect to return to Highlands on their way home later in the season. Dr. and Mrs. Zeisberg came to Highlands to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on June 20 of this year. Dr. Zeisberg is a musician and has taught music in colleges all his life. He and Mrs. Zeisberg are personal friends of the Zoellner family who are old residents of Highlands.

Guests who are registered at Hotel Edwards for several weeks include Mrs. Virginia Burruss, Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. James A. Anderson, Augusta, Ga.; Miss Clarisse Barksdale, Tampa, Fla.; Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Turner and Mildred Ann, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Mrs. Veta H. Coker, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. James Vick, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Best, Bradford, Fla.; Mrs. Stoddard, and J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Costner and their son, Dick, left on Wednesday for their home in Miami, Fla., after spending two weeks at Pierson Inn.

Dr. Clark Forman and his daughter, Shelagh, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Forman.

FOR FIRST APPEARANCE

This Fall

the spotlight is on

Mary-Lane Coats

To match the young and zestful Fall spirit, to add thrill to "college entrance," or to impress business associates, Mary-Lane Coats take "top-billing."

Unusual Quality at Unusually Low Prices

E. K. Cunningham & Co.

THE SHOP OF QUALITY

FRANKLIN, N. C.