

Highlands Highlights

MRS. FRANK BLOXHAM, PHONE 55

CHURCH NOTICES

Highlands Presbyterian Church
Roert B. DuPree, Supply Pastor
Sunday, September 5
10:15 a. m.—Sunday school.
11 a. m.—Morning worship.
8 p. m.—Young People's Union.
Highlands Methodist Circuit
Rev. W. F. Beadie, Pastor
Highlands
10 a. m.—Sunday school.
Cashiers
10 a. m.—Sunday school.
11 a. m.—Preaching service.
Horse Cove
3 p. m.—Preaching service.
Highlands Baptist Church
Rev. J. E. Brown, Tuckaseegee,
Pastor
10 a. m.—Sunday school.
11 a. m.—Morning worship.
4 p. m.—Junior B. Y. P. U.
7:15 p. m.—Senior B. Y. P. U.
Episcopal Churches
Rev. Frank Bloxham, Rector
Incarnation, Highlands
10 a. m.—Church school.
11 a. m.—Holy communion and
sermon by the Rector.
Church of the Good Shepherd,
Cashiers
9 a. m.—Holy communion and sermon.
St. Agnes', Franklin
5 p. m.—Vesper service.

A BEAUTIFUL POEM

Among the talented visitors to Highlands this summer was Mrs. Dawson Winter, who, with Mr. Winter, and their son, Roane, have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall. Mrs. Winter has written several poems and is now engaged in writing a children's book. The following poem was inspired by the beautiful falls near Highlands which are called "Dry Falls," or "Cullasaja Falls." Mrs. Winter has named them "The Dancing Falls."

MOUNTAIN TRYSTING

The Lover Lake is lying calm
In a silver bed, draped round with green,
Scented with aromatic balm,
Langorous and serene.

The Stream, a dancer, tripping,
Far up the mountain, slipping
From stone to stone comes dipping.
Her ankles, curved like shells,
Are bound with tinkle bells.
And fairy laughter, pealing
In delicate revealing
Of paths where she is stealing,
Her secret joy foretells.
With jeweled laces swirling
And spangled tresses curling,
All merrily she's whirling
In caracoles of grace,
When rocks oppose her pace!
—They seize her. But she turns,
resisting

Flings off rainbow veils of misting,
Leaps in glorious bridal trysting
To her waiting Love's embrace!

Anne-Elise Roane Winter
Jackson, Mississippi.

BILLY CROSBY HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Billy Crosby celebrated his 12th birthday on Friday with a small movie party. Reversing the usual plan the treat was served before the theatre, at Billy's house and the party then enjoyed the picture, "General Spanky." Billy's guests included Virginia Edwards, Dorothy Cable, Margaret Goold, Roy Potts, Douglas Johnson, Bobby Foreman, Louise Crosby, Katherine Goold.

FLOYD CRANE, JR. PASSES MONDAY

Floyd Crane, Jr., the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crane, died on Monday at his home after an illness of seven weeks. Funeral services were held on Tuesday at the house by the Rev. John Baty, local Baptist preacher, and burial was in the Highlands cemetery.

LIBRARY FOOD SALE NETS GOOD PROFIT

The Hudson library food sale, which was held last week for the benefit of the library, netted a profit of $27.55. The donors of the food for the sale were: Mesdames C. J. Anderson, Frank Bloxham, S. H. Crunkleton, William Culbertson, W. S. Davis, G. D. Edwards, T. C. Harbison, W. A. Hays, H. C. Hetzel, G. W. Marett, Guy Paul, Frank Potts, Roy Potts, J. E. Root, A.

G. Spencer, F. L. Wideman, O. E. Young, Carl Zoellner, and the Misses Dorothea Harbison, Gertrude Harbison, and Bess Hines. The committee in charge was Mrs. O. E. Young, chairman; Mrs. F. H. Potts, and the Misses Harbison. Misses Jessie and Nancy Potts assisted in the selling.

ENJOYABLE SCAVENGER PARTY MONDAY EVENING

Miss Louise Crosby and Miss Estelle Edwards were joint hostesses at a scavenger party on Monday evening. The party gathered at the home of Miss Crosby where they were divided into groups and given a list of articles to find. The list was varied and included the following articles: a white horse hair, a blue shoe string, a round bottom bottle, 13 ounces of water from a running stream, a silhouette, O. F. Summers' autograph, a pint of sand from Whiteside View, a baby picture of Mrs. Tudor Hall, a soda straw with cherry smash in it, Stella Marett's lip print, an old-fashioned night-shirt, Sam Reese's policeman's cap, an autographed paper napkin from West's Cafe in Cashiers, a corpse, a curb service sign, an egg with the policeman's signature on it, a rat trap, a baby rattle, a hair from Charlie Potts' head, and a large size corset.

The winning team was Jack Potts, Charlie Paul, Hiram McKinney, Dot Reinke, Louise Crosby and Carolyn Potts. Other guests were Bill Edwards, Steve Potts, Val Pierson, Mary Reinke, Lina Reinke, Lavinia Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. DuPree. Following the hunt the groups joined in a candy pull at the home of Miss Crosby.

CAMP SEQUOIA CLOSURES FOR SEASON

Camp Sequoia, a camp for boys and girls, which has been operated this summer by Mrs. Earl Vance and Mrs. Coyle Moore at Trillium Lodge, closed for the season last Friday. Mrs. Vance will return to Florida where she operates a nursery school. Camp Sequoia will open again early in the spring.

CAKE WALK HELD AT SCHOOL TUESDAY

A cake walk was held at the Highlands school on Tuesday evening, sponsored by the P.-T.-A. A large crowd was on hand to walk for the cakes and to participate in the voting for the prettiest girl and the ugliest man present. Miss Louise Crosby won the prize for the prettiest girl with 411 votes and O. F. Summer won the prize for the ugliest man with 348 votes. The total receipts will be announced in next week's Press.

NURSERY TO BE OPERATED AT SHORTOFF NEXT YEAR

Mr. J. H. Kauffman, of Eustis, Florida and Dan Edwards, of Horse Cove, are making extensive plans for the operation of a nursery at Shortoff next year. Both of these gentlemen have had a great deal of experience in this line. Mr. Kauffman is a landscape architect in Florida and plans to carry on this work in Highlands. They will have a large supply of all native shrubs as well as annuals and perennials which will be planted in the early spring. Mr. Kauffman purchased a tract of land at Shortoff from Miss Dorothea Rice this summer. Mr. Edwards has been in this business for about 15 years in this section.

HENRY G. STEPHENSON TO LECTURE SUNDAY

Henry G. Stephenson will lecture at the Presbyterian church on Sunday, September 5, at 4 p. m. His subject will be "Birds of Macon County." Mr. Stephenson is the Ornithologist who has been working at the laboratory this summer and his lecture will be a most interesting one. Every one is cordially invited to attend this lecture.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT ON FRANKLIN ROAD

An automobile accident occurred on the Franklin road just below the Dugout on Tuesday evening at about 7 p. m. Two ladies driving a station wagon, drove off the fill, down the embankment, towards the lake. One lady was cut on the left temple and was unconscious for about half an hour. Further details were not available at the time of reporting this accident.

MUSEUM NOTES

The annual meeting of the Highlands museum and biological laboratory was held on Sunday afternoon at the laboratory with a number of members and friends present.

The president, Dr. W. C. Coker, gave an interesting report on the year's work. He said that the work was more active this year than ever before. The organization purchased during the year six lots adjoining the property and fronting on Main street, and Dr. Coker presented to the museum another lot also adjoining the property which was accepted with gratitude. Five research scholarships at Highlands were offered this year; two from Duke University, two from the University of North Carolina and one from the University of Alabama. Research was carried on in various fields—salamanders, trilliums, land and water fungi, birds and muluscan life. The membership committee reported a total of 62 new memberships this year. The director of the museum made his report and made several recommendations for future work and expansion.

Two new trustees were elected: Miss Gertrude Harbison to fill the place of her father, the late T. G. Harbison and Dr. H. L. Blomquist, of Duke University, to replace Miss Charlotte B. Elliot, who resigned. The officers for the coming year remain the same: Dr. W. C. Coker, of Chapel Hill, president; Dr. L. R. Hessler, Knoxville, vice president; Professor William Lippincott, of Clemson, S. C., secretary, and Dr. Clark Foreman, of Washington, D. C., treasurer. The other trustees are Miss Mary J. Crosby, San Mateo, Fla.; Mr. R. L. Foreman, Atlanta; Mr. H. W. Sloan, Highlands; Miss Albertina Staub, Highlands; Miss Marguerite Ravenal, Philadelphia; Miss Rosalie Howell, Atlanta; Dr. J. K. Stoddard, Cashiers; Dr. Craig Darrow, Savannah and Dr. E. R. Reinke, Nashville.

Following the general meeting the trustees adjourned to another room for a closed meeting. They reelected the director, Mr. H. E. Wheeler, and gave a vote of thanks to Mrs. Wheeler who had charge of the children's clubs at the museum this summer.

After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Clark Foreman, acting as hostess for Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foreman.

The museum will close for the season on Monday, September 6. It has been a very busy summer for all who have been connected with the work. Many beautiful exhibits have been prepared by the director and his assistants and several lectures on various subjects have been well attended. A large number of visitors have registered in the guest book at the museum from all parts of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler will leave on Tuesday morning to take up their winter work in Birmingham, Ala.

The Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Goold, and their three children, Edgar, Katherine, and Margaret, of Raleigh, N. C., who have been staying at Hall House for the last six weeks, left on Monday for their home. Mr. Goold is the president of St. Augustine's college in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden B. Crosby, of Coral Gables, Fla., who are vacationing in Hendersonville, spent the day here last Tuesday visiting relatives. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mitzi, who stayed until Thursday. Miss Louise Crosby, Mr. Jack Potts, and the Rev. R. B. DuPree returned to Asheville with her and continued on to Montreat for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson, of Dayton Beach, Fla., were guests at Pierson Inn for a short stay. Mr. Thompson was in Highlands about 40 years ago, when he was a boy. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson plan to return with their family and spend next summer here.

Mrs. Tudor Hall drove to Westminster, S. C., last Thursday to visit her friend, Mrs. William Wicks, of Syracuse, N. Y., who is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. John Hull, of Westminster. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall, who continued on to Hartwell, Ga., to visit Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rucker.

Mrs. A. D. Bolton, and her daughter, Edith, who have been spending the summer at "Smith-haven," returned to their home in Commerce, Ga., on Monday. Mr. Bolton and Billy arrived on Saturday for the week-end and returned to Commerce with them.

Mrs. F. H. Dacamara has returned from Cleveland, Tenn., where she has been a patient in the hospital following an automobile accident. Her condition is much improved.

Lewis Rice has been a patient in the U. S. veteran's hospital, at Oteen, for several weeks and hopes to be able to return to his home at Shortoff very soon.

Chester Wright is here for a month visiting his mother, Mrs. Helen Wilson, at her home on the Franklin road. Mr. Wright is a student of forestry at State college in Raleigh, and expects to resume his studies after a short vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. David C. Brooks and their daughter, Betty, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard, have returned to their home in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Brooks is a niece of Mr. Blanchard.

Recent guests at Pierson Inn include Mrs. Frank Roberts, Miss Martha Roberts, Miss Sara Pellew, and Miss Harriett Adams, all of Macon, Ga.

Sam Creswell, who is employed at Zoellner's garage as mechanic, has been a patient at Angel hospital in Franklin for several days, undergoing treatment for neuralgia.

Dr. Clark Foreman and Mrs. Foreman, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Dr. Foreman's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foreman, at their home here, for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund B. Staples, of Boston, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard at their home on Mirror Lake.

Mrs. Barnett Curry and her daughter, Lucille, are guests at Mrs. C. B. Boardman's cottage on Mirror Lake. The Curry's are from Sarasota, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Oates and their son, Lewis, Jr., of Coconut Grove, Fla., have been staying at Pierson Inn for a short time. Mr. Oates is in the United States consular service. The Oates' are annual visitors to Pierson Inn.

Miss Anna Wilson and Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Wilson, of Jacksonville, Fla., left on Monday for their home after spending some time at Cabin Inn, on Flat Mountain.

Mr. Tom W. Dibble, of Orangeburg, S. C., is a guest at Tricemont Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Batchelor and son, of Coral Gables, Fla., are guests at Laurel Lodge.

William Tutwiler and William Hausmann, of Atlanta, are guests of Mrs. Q. E. Young at her home on Satulah Mountain.

Miss Thelma Bougere, of New Orleans, La., left on Wednesday for her home after spending three weeks as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall.

Miss Cora Miltimore, of Gainesville, Fla., arrived in Highlands this week and is a guest at Hotel Edwards. Miss Miltimore has resigned her position as librarian at the University of Florida and plans to spend most of her time in Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and their two sons, of Atlanta, left on Saturday for their home after spending a week at Pueblo Maita, the summer cottage of Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, of East Point, Ga. Mr. Baker is connected with the Southern Bell Telephone company.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Winter and their son, Roane, left on Tuesday for their home in Jackson, Miss., by way of Waynesville, where they will spend a few days. While in Highlands they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tudor Hall.

ADDITIONAL FRANKLIN SOCIAL ITEMS

The Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Flanagan and children, John and Anne, returned on Saturday from Montreat after spending a couple of weeks of their vacation in attendance upon the summer Bible conference.

Mrs. J. H. Young returned to her home in Portland, Ore, Sunday after spending five weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Blaine at their home on Harrison avenue.

To make flattery effective you must be somewhat insincere; for example tell a homely girl that she's pretty.

CATTLE SALE

We will conduct a cattle sale in Franklin on Tuesday, September 21. See circulars and watch The Press for further announcements.

Can You Afford To Be Without It?

Funeral Benefit Insurance costs so little that no one should do without it, especially those who are dependent on moderate incomes.

The rates are far lower than you might expect. These rates are based on the death rate within our own organization, a mutual body governed by the laws of North Carolina. In this association the following assessments are now in effect:

Ages 1 to 9 years	5¢ Quarterly
Ages 9 to 29 years	10¢ Quarterly
Ages 30 to 49 years	20¢ Quarterly
Ages 50 to 65 years	30¢ Quarterly

Benefits are provided in the amount of $100 for persons over 10 years of age and in the amount of $50 for persons under 10 years of age.

In slightly more than a year that this association has been in operation we have reached a membership of more than 6,000, and during this time we have paid our members over $2,000.

Our finances are in excellent shape and with your co-operation we will continue to make this a strong association.

Don't wait for an agent to call on you—come in today and join while you are in good health, tomorrow it might be too late.

Bryant Burial Association
FRANKLIN, N. C.