P-T. A. KENO PARTY BRINGS IN $51.00

The keno party which was given by the P-T. A. on Friday night for the benefit of the school lunch room brought in a total of $51, including gifts and ticket sales. The following people won prizes: Mrs. W. A. Bryson, Eugene Potts, F. R. Swift, Nancy Potts, Manila Reese, Maurice Cleveland, Henry Cleveland, Mrs. Jack Hall, Mrs. Tudor Hall, Mrs. O. B. Shanley, Mrs. J. W. Reese, Mrs. Maiden Keener, Mrs. F. H. Potts, Mrs. S. E. Potts, Mrs. Herbert Rice, Mrs. Carl Zoellner, Nathalie Georgia, Marveta Reese, Jack Hall, Wallace Henry, Mrs. J. N. Lowe, Mrs. F. R. Swift, Roy Potts, Lois Munger, Daniel Georgia, Kitty Reese, and Peggy Thompson. The grand prizes were drawn by Henry Cleveland and F. R. Swift. The money received was used to pay for five tons of coal for the exclusive use of the school lunch room. The remaining funds will be turned over to the supervisor of the lunch room for sundries.

P-T. A. TO MEET TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5

The P-T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 5, at 3:45, at the school. All members are asked to be present.

SCHOOL NOTES

On Monday, the opening day of the school lunch room, about 130 children were served with a mid-day meal, which is considered an excellent start for the year. As was previously reported produce may be brought in by the children in exchange for meals, or the children may purchase their dinners for five cents a day. A hot meal in the middle of the day has proved of great value to the children, especially during the winter months.

The Highlands School Theatre has recently purchased for the school, reference books costing in the neighborhood of $80. Included in the purchase was a set of "Child Craft", which is principally source material for the teachers of the elementary grades, particularly the lower elementary grades. For the upper elementary grades and the high school Richard's "Cyclopedia" was purchased.

In going through the school rooms the lack of adequate equipment is noticeable. In the sixth and seventh grade rooms especially there is a great need for suitable chairs. Some of the children are seated in arm chairs, others are placed in straight chairs and on old-fashioned benches around tables, which is a most uncomfortable position for children and a very unsatisfactory arrangement for recitations since some of the students are necessarily with their backs to the teacher. New, up-to-date chairs are sorely needed.

Members of the fifth grade are working the first part of this year on a study of transportation. It is the aim of the class to discover what progress has been made—particularly in water transportation—from the early days up to the present time, and to create a feeling of nearness and interdependence of communities and nations as a result of this study. The class is seeking to develop an appreciation of what each inventor, explorer, and navigator has given to the world. In connection with this study the fifth grade is reading stories of ships and constructing ships, viking boats, canoes, etc. They have memorized the poems "Columbus" and "The Sailor's Consolation." Each subject is taught around the central theme—"The progress in water transportation and its effect, past and present, upon us today." The class has formed a club which meets every Friday afternoon, called the "O. B. Club." New officers are elected monthly. The present officers are Homer Baty, president, and Nancy Potts, secretary. Captains are elected to look after the "housekeeping" of the room. Each Friday a "court" is held and offenders "punished" for misdemeanors committed during the past week. The "O. B. Club" is a lesson in community citizenship. Miss Ethel Calloway is the teacher of the fifth grade. The pupils are: Eugene Gibson, Wayne Hicks, Buddy Thompson, Roy McDowell, Homer Baty, Lyman Wilson, Thomas Talley, Frank Burrell, Clarence Wilson, John Talley, Ray McCall, Bobby Rice, Freda Mincy, Cathleen Crisp, Victoria Calloway, Myrtle Talley, Vella Mae McCall, Edna Wilson, Duane Wilson, Mattie Zachary, Margaret Wiley, Nancy Potts, Lewis Denny, Dewey Elrod, Clarence Baty, Leon Potts, Leslie Munger, R. L. Reese, Myrtle Bryson, Lolita Holt, Bessie Talley, Rhoda Jenkins, Maggie Talley, Maxie Wright, Harold Speed, Fred Elrod, Clarence Crain, Ralph Reese. The fifth grade will have a chapel program on October 8. It will be a mock wedding of "Augustus Peabean and Angina Eggplant." Fifteen children will take part.

The fourth grade is taking an imaginary trip to "the land of the two Great Rivers, the Tigris and the Euphrates," to find out why the people there do what they do, their methods of transportation, how they dress, etc. In English the children are telling original stories to develop their imagination and improve their oral language. The Art project is the collection of fall leaves and the drawing of the leaves and coloring them with crayons. With the collecting of leaves they are learning the various trees. In arithmetic the fourth grade is reviewing the fundamentals and will go on to new work in long division and multiplication, for which they are using work books. Work books are also being used in geography, English and health. Three supplementary readers are being rented from the state, costing 60 cents per child, for the year. The fourth grade girls had perfect attendance for the first two weeks of school. Miss Edna Jamison is the teacher and the pupils are: Angela Anderson, Frances Crunkleton, Mildred Crunkleton, Maxie Evitt, Dora Hedden, Frances Hedden, Mary Lou Hedden, Hester Henry, Jean Keener, Edith McCall, Mary McCall, Martha Richardson, Billy Speed, Elizabeth Talley, Eileen Waller, Dorothy Webb, Barbara Zoellner, Morris Calloway, Carl Chastain, Hilliard Chastain, Thomas Chastain, Albert Crane, Eugene Edwards, Cleo Evitt, Johnny Gibson, Atward Henry, Harold Jenkins, James Johnson, Roy Johnson, Edwin Norton, Edwin Shockley, David Talley, Clarence Webb, Frank Wilson, Louis Wilson, Lloyd Zachary, Wilson Wilson.

HIGHLANDS TO OBSERVE AIR MAIL WEEK

Highlands will observe North Carolina Air Mail Week October 11-16. It is the hope of the post-office officials that everyone will make it a point to mail at least one letter by air mail during that week. One thousand air mail letters is the goal of the Highlands postoffice. Further details will be announced in next week's paper.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MET SUNDAY NIGHT

The Highlands Christian Endeavor met at the usual hour Sunday night in the Presbyterian church. As the president, Jack Potts, was sick and could not be present, the meeting was presided over by Mr. DuPree. The main feature of the program was the slides and the accompanying lecture, this time depicting the events in the missionary travels of Paul and Silas as told in the Acts of the Apostles. These slides, which have been presented each Sunday evening over a period of months, are designed to illustrate the entire story of the Bible.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO MEET OCTOBER 5

The Highlands chamber of commerce will hold a meeting on Tuesday, October 5 at 8 p. m. in the Hotel Edwards. Important business will be discussed at that time and it is hoped that a large attendance will be present.

METHODIST PASTOR TO CONDUCT REVIVAL

Announcement is made that the pastor of the Highlands Methodist church, the Rev. W. F. Beadle, will conduct a revival at the church in Highlands beginning Monday, October 4. Services will be held each evening at 8 p. m., and the general public is cordially invited to attend the services.
