AIR MAIL WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION
 Inasmuch as the week from October 11 to 16 has been set aside to be observed throughout North Carolina as Air Mail Week and the Governor of the state has issued a proclamation to that effect calling upon the people of this state for their loyal support in the interests of the air mail service, as Mayor of the Town, I call upon all citizens of Highlands to do all in their power to make the efforts of the local postoffice a great success in the observance of this week. We aim to mail out 1,000 letters via air mail during the week and this number can be easily exceeded if we all do our part. The importance of this service cannot be overemphasized and with the success of this special week in this locality we may with more confidence look forward to the time when we may have an airport in the vicinity and thus greater convenience for summer visitors and local residents. I commend this effort to you as citizens and ask your support and cooperation in the effort being put forth by our local postoffice officials.

(Signed)

W. S. DAVIS,

Mayor of Highlands.

C. C. Potts Heads Committee

C. C. Potts has been appointed chairman of the committee in charge of Air Mail Week in Highlands. The other members of the committee have not yet been announced. It is the duty of this committee to see as many people as possible and to ask them to promise to send as many letters by air mail as they will during the week of October 11 to 16. The goal for Highlands is 1,000 letters. The local postoffice has a number of Air Mail envelopes which can be obtained free by anyone wishing to send a letter. If it is desired to obtain the postmark of Kitty Hawk, N. C., the birthplace of aviation in America, letters may be stamped and addressed, then enclosed in another envelope which is addressed to "Postmaster", Kitty Hawk, N. C. and mailed to Kitty Hawk not later than October 9, where the enclosed letter will be postmarked and sent out by air mail. The Mayor, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Highlands School Theatre are cooperating with the committee in the observance of this Air Mail Week.

SCHOOL NOTES

The third grade, with Miss Nina Howard as teacher, has just finished studying a traffic unit, designed to teach methods of transportation and safety laws and regulations. One of the children took a trip and from her description of where she went, what she saw, and what she did, the class drew pictures, and set up a traffic scene in the sand table. This month the study will be the migration of birds, and the hibernation of animals, in connection with Indian life. Art and English will be correlated with this subject. Each child is making a chart of the weather for October, by drawing a picture of weather each day. The best drawing each day is selected for the class chart. The children have a reading club for their own pleasure. This club will be organized along parliamentary lines later in the year. Magazines and books are provided for reading material. The third grade chapel program will be presented on October 29, and will be a Halloween program. As a part of the study of health and hygiene the children are remembering to wash their hands carefully before eating their lunch. Each child has been provided with a clothpin bearing his name and uses it to hang his special towel on the line after each using. The pupils in the third grade are Hazel Beal, Reba Calloway, Lillie Chastain, Ligon Creswell, Louise Crisp, Lena Craine, Ethel Craine, Edna Carver, Jessie Dendy, Edward Gibson, Doris Hedden, William Henry, R. L. Henry, Sue Hicks, Marveta Houston, Leonard Johnson, Eugene McCall, Charles Mincey,

Clarence Munger, Gladys Neely, Mack Neely, Carnell Owens, Warren Picklesimer, Evelyn Phillips, Ephraim Prince, Richard Rice, Sanford Speed, Louise Stewart, Edd Talley, J. C. Webb, Neva Lee Webb, Charles Houston, Alice Jenkins, Clarence Miller.

The second grade has 61 pupils and is so large that it was divided into two groups. Mrs. Jack Hall teaches one group and Mrs. Paul Carpenter the other. Both are studying the nomad tribes of Indians—their homes, tools, clothes, and customs. The children are making crayon drawings of Indian life, learning to sing Indian songs and learning about the instruments which the Indians used. Mrs. Hall's group is making a "movie" of Indian life, and will later take up some work in clay modeling. Reading, spelling, history, and geography are all correlated with the study of Indians. The class will make a wigwam in their room which will be large enough for the children to play in. For their health study they will discover why the Indians were so healthy—due to outdoor life, food, posture, etc. In Mrs. Carpenter's class, the girls are making Indian dolls and the boys are making canoes. This group is also making a fall leaf collection and drawing and coloring leaves as they are brought in. They are using work-books in arithmetic and reading. The pupils in Mrs. Hall's class are Ann Anderson, Peggy Ann Appleby, Etta Crane, Martha Cobb, Mary Gibson, Bethel Green, Sarah Hall, Ella Mae Henry, Mabel Henry, Irene Lowe, Agnes McCall, Margaret Neely, Edna Norton, Betty Jane Potts, Mattie Potts, Dorylas Picklesimer, Dollie Wilson, Thelma Webb, Katherine Webb, Wetzel Baty, Carlton Craine, Lawrence Carne, Johnnie Crunkleton, James M. Edwards, Tommy Elrod, Herbert Johnson, James Potts, Lenex Webb, Victory Wood, James Zachary, Richard Thompson, Edward Green. The pupils in Mrs. Carpenter's class are Herbert Crisp, J. E. Crane, Shirley Crisp, Faira Dee Henry, Jim Henry, Buddy Houston, Alvin Johnson, Elwood Johnson, Cecil McCall, Ray Owens, Felix Speed, Bill Speed, Harvey Talley, Ernest Webb, Fate Webb, Lemey Webb, Neville Wilson, Marveta Crisp, Winifred Chastain, Ethel Green, Annie Mae Henry, Effie Jenkins, Helen Jenkins, Ann Parker, Doris Speed, Jean Talley, Martha Talley, Maude Talley, Ernestine Zachary.

On Tuesday the school students were shown a part of the picture "The Prince and the Pauper" by Mark Twain, which was being shown at the theatre on Monday and Tuesday of this week. The part selected to be shown was the scene depicting the coronation of John Cantey, the pauper, prior to the finding of the King. The scene in the Cathedral showing the boy choir and the peers and peeresses was particularly interesting due to the fact of the renege coronation of King George IV of England.

MARETT-BURT

Miss Stella George Marett became the bride of Edward A. Burt, Jr., at an impressive ceremony which was performed at the Presbyterian church on October 1, at 4:30 in the afternoon. The Rev. Arthur J. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, assisted by the Rev. Robert B. DuPree, officiated. Before the entrance of the bride party Mrs. Robert DuPree sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Jack Hall was the organist. To the strains of the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin", the bride party advanced down the side aisle. The bride entered on the arm of her father, G. W. Marett. She was lovely in a gown of white moire taffeta, fashioned with a full skirt fitted at the waist with rows of cording. The sleeves which were full at the shoulder were fitted with cording to the waist. She wore a white velvet coronet with a shoulder length veil of bride's veiling, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet. The bridesmaids were Miss Vivian Woodruff, of Clinton, S. C., who wore green organdie, and Miss Eleanor Zimmerman, of Westminster, S. C., who wore pink organdie. Both bridesmaids carried arm bouquets of cosmos. Mr. Russell Myers, of Sarasota, Fla., attended Mr. Burt as best man, and the ushers were Louis Edwards and Steve Potts. As the bridal party left the church the Rev. Robert DuPree sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery Of Life." The church was beautifully decorated with dahlias, hydrangeas, wild purple asters, autumn leaves, and hemlock. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, for the bridal party and a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Burt left immediately on an unannounced wedding trip. The bride's costume was a navy blue chiffon frock with a gold coat and blue accessories. The couple will be at home after October 15.

Miss Natalie Hammond will leave on Sunday for her home in Atlanta, after spending the summer at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Reebing, of Savannah, Ga., will leave for their home on Tuesday. They have been occupying the Barnes house on Satulah mountain this summer.

Mrs. W. W. Edwards has returned to her home from the Angel hospital in Franklin, where she has been a patient for two weeks. Her condition is greatly improved and she will soon be able to be around.

Mayor W. S. Davis left for Atlanta on Wednesday for a short stay, where he will visit his daughters.

Herbert Rice accompanied the Wideman family to Florida when they left on Saturday for their home after spending the summer at "Kanonah." Mr. Rice expects to find work in Florida for the winter.

Miss Nancy Elizabeth Hines left on Tuesday to join her sister, Miss Sarah Hicks Hines, in Raleigh, where she will be employed this winter.

King's Inn closed on Saturday for the season. Mr. King will return to Highlands at intervals during the winter.

Mrs. Meta R. Hall has been visiting her sister, who lives at Cullowhee, for a few days this week.

Lawrence Howard, of Otto, returned to Highlands with his sisters on Sunday, to take up his residence here for a while. Mr. Howard is employed on the construction of the Rainwater house on Little Yellow mountain.

Mrs. G. W. Marett spent a few days this week in Westminster, S. C., visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Carlin who left on Tuesday for their home at Miami, Fla., were accompanied by Miss Bess Hines, who will find employment there this winter.

Miss Louise Hunter, of Pendleton, S. C., is visiting Mrs. W. S. Davis for a week or two.

Mrs. W. H. Nollman has had as house guests recently Mr. and Mrs. K. S. McAllister, Mrs. Mariam Jenkins, and Earl Looney, all of Atlanta. Mrs. Nollman and her mother, Mrs. Sara Looney Harmick, will leave for their homes in Starke and Sebring, Fla., on Friday. The Nollman home will be occupied during the winter by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burt, whose marriage took place in Highlands on October 1. Mrs. Burt is the former Miss Stella Marett.

Fast-Growing Pigs Are Best Breeders

The best swine breeding stock usually comes from the heaviest pigs, said H. W. Taylor, extension swine specialist at State college.

So a good way to select breeding stock, he added, is to weigh the litters at weaning time.

If all sows and litters have had the same care and feeding, the litters which are heaviest at weaning time will be those from the best sows.

The boar and sow pigs selected for breeding purposes should be taken from these heaviest litters.

Boar pigs to be raised for pork should be treated when four to five weeks old, Taylor continued. At this age the treatment does not shock the pig as much as it will later, and the young pigs recover more rapidly.

He also pointed out that sanitation and balanced rations are two of the most important factors in hog production. "If you have not tried farrowing and raising pigs on clean land, give it a trial."

W. A. Davis, Johnston county farmer, tried this plan last April with one sow on clean land and three sows in the old hog lot. By July the "clean land pigs" were twice as large as those in the old lot, he told Taylor.

Besides, worms and disease killed 25 per cent of the pigs growing up the old lot. None of the pigs on clean land were lost.

County farm agents will be glad to give farmers suggestions regarding good feeding practices, Taylor continued.
