MANY ATTEND PRESBYTERIAN RALLY IN ASHEVILLE

There was no meeting of the Christian Endeavor at the Presbyterian church here on Sunday evening, as practically the entire organization motored to Asheville to attend a young people's rally at the First Presbyterian church there. The occasion proved to be both instructive and entertaining. Between the afternoon and evening meetings a picnic supper was served in the church basement. The Highlands group asked that the spring rally of the Asheville Presbytery's young people be held at Highlands, and their invitation was accepted.

AIR MAIL WEEK AROUSES INTEREST

It is reported by the postoffice officials that Air Mail Week is being carried out successfully in Highlands. However, there is still time for each citizen to mail one or more letters by Air Mail before the end of the Air Mail Week in North Carolina. Envelopes for Air Mail letters are being furnished free by the postoffice this week, to all who desire them. The goal for Highlands is 1,000 letters. Do your part to help celebrate Air Mail Week.

W. M. S. MET WITH MRS. O. F. SUMMER

The Woman's Missionary society of the Baptist church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. O. F. Summer, on Tuesday afternoon, for the purpose of reorganizing the society and electing new officers, who will be announced in next week's paper. The hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Roger Smith.

TRAVEL MOTORCADE VISITS HIGHLANDS

Much interest was shown by the local residents on the occasion of the visit of the motorcade through this section on Tuesday of this week. It is to be regretted that the half-hour scheduled stop in the town had to be curtailed on account of the lateness of arrival. The Chamber of Commerce had arranged a program consisting of a short address of welcome, visits to the Country club and Bear Pen mountain and distribution of locally grown apples and literature to the visitors. Of this program the address and the tour of Bear Pen mountain had to be canceled. The thanks of the town is due to Mrs. Salinas and Mrs. T. G. Harbison who donated the fine apples, and to the host of citizens who stood ready with their cars to render service during the morning, as also to all who turned out to welcome and mingle with the visitors. We feel that despite the shortness of the time spent here that a good impression was created and that much good will come of the visit in added visitors to this section in coming years.

SCHOOL NEWS

Under the direction of Miss Veve Howard, the first grade is carrying out a very interesting Mother Goose program. From the study of Mother Goose rhymes a farm project has been developed in a new and interesting way. Mother Goose rhyme picture posters with the rhymes printed on cardboard underneath the pictures are being used for teaching reading and comprehension. Taking the story of the Old Woman In The Shoe as a foundation, the class decided to put all her children on a farm, so the boys, with Billy Waller as general supervisor, have made a farm, after the fashion of the Pilgrim farms, in the sand-table. Corrugated pasteboard cartons were used to make the log house and other buildings. Pine needles made the shocks of corn and pumpkins were cut from construction paper. The rail fence, farm animals, a yoke of oxen, and a sled were made of cornstalks. The girls were more concerned with the interior of the home of Mother Goose and have furnished a room with a bed, a dresser with a mirror hanging on the wall over it, a table with chairs, a cradle for smaller dolls, etc. Ethics and social conduct enter into this work, and the unit is rich in arithmetic possibilities and offers many opportunities for giving children the real concept of number meaning. For the study of health habits, the children observe the rules of sanitation in the home and on the farm. Each child has his personal towel with a clothespin labeled with his name on a line in the cloak room. The room has a table with Mother Goose story books and pictures which is known as "Fairylane." While sitting at this table enjoying the books and pictures, the children imagine stories which are dictated to the teacher during the "conversation period." The best story is chosen, and for seat work the class draws and colors pictures to go with the story for the making of a "picture show." The following story was told to the teacher by Maxine Tallev, during the "conversation hour:"

Mother Goose's Helpers

"Jack-Be-Nimble, run! tell Kitty Fisher Little Boy Blue wants to help him look for Higgledy, Piggle's nest under the haystack.

Jack was off with a hop, skip, and jump. He liked to help Mother Goose because she was always kind to him.

By and by Kitty Fisher came running up the road with her pocket full of eggs.

"I found 10 eggs under the haystack," said Kitty, as she handed the eggs to Mother Goose.

Kitty ran out into the yard.

"I have good news for you," said Kitty. "The threshers are coming to-morrow. Mother Goose and the Queen of Hearts are in the kitchen now, cooking lots of good things. Mrs. Pumpkin-Eater is making pumpkin pies."

Humpty-Dumpty was so happy he fell off the wall and the Cow Jumped Over The Moon."

The first graders particularly enjoyed the motion picture which Mr. Summer showed to the school last week, "Who Killed Cock Robin."

The next project which will be taken up in the first grade will be the stocking and operation of a grocery store.

The first grade will present its chapel program on November 19, and the theme will be "Thanksgiving."

The pupils in this grade include Ophelia Calloway, Evelyn Carver, Evelyn Chastain, Hazel Chastain, Edna Crane, Mary Crunkleton, Doris Gibson, Peggy Gibson, Isabel Hall, Louise Jenkins, Bernice Keener, Doris Keener, Vivian McCall, Geraldine Moss, Mary Ann Necley, Mary Phillips, Fay Reece, Helen Talley, Henrietta Talley, Maxine Talley, Lillian Zachary, Billy Bryson, W. C. Calloway, Herschel Carver, Albert Lee Crane, Everette Crane, Charles Crunkleton, Alonzo Dalton, Duane Edwards, Noah Lee Henry, Harry Holt, Jr., Mack Hopper, Louis Jenkins, Ronald Jenkins, Amos McCall, James Reece, Ray Reece, Fred Talley, Billy Waller, Lendal Waller, Charles Woods, Glenn Webb, Ray Webb, Louie Johnson, Willard Johnson, Leeman Johnson, Kenneth Johnson.

Seven N. Y. A. school workers are employed this year at the school. These workers may earn up to six dollars a month, depending on the work which they do.

The four boys employed are working to beautify the school grounds by building rock walls, filling ditches and removing undesirable material. Two girls are employed in the lunch room and one girl is assisting in play-ground supervision. The school at Aquone and the school in Highlands are the only two in the county which have these N. Y. A. workers.

A few of the high school boys were allowed, during study periods last week, to listen to baseball games over the radio which has recently been purchased by the Theatre for the school. The small groups listening were changed every thirty minutes so that a maximum number of boys were able to hear part of the World Series, without interfering with the school work.

At the present time passes for moving picture shows are being given to about 20 school pupils who assist with the work around the school, such as sweeping, picking up papers, emptying paper baskets, etc. These passes are good for every show in the theatre during the current school year.

Cooperating with the postoffice in observing Air Mail Week, the theatre furnished air mail stamps to the elementary grades, one to every teacher, to be used in sending a letter to some point of interest where it will be postmarked and returned to the class. It will be reported in a future issue of the paper just where the letters were sent and how long it took for them to be returned.

The Monday and Tuesday shows at the Highlands School theatre were discontinued this week. From now on the Theatre will be open on Friday and Saturday only.

Mr. Richard Holt left on Sunday morning for a visit to his brother at Grand Rapids, Mich. He will continue his trip through Illinois.

Mrs. Duncan Dougal and Miss Valerie Dougal, who are summer visitors in Highlands, are away from their home, Faraway, on a visit to Alexandria, Va., where they attended the christening of Mrs. Dougal's nephew.
