MR. R. B. DUPREE ORDAINED AND INSTALLED

An ordination service was held at the Highlands Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening when Mr. Robert B. DuPree was ordained to the ministry of the church and installed as pastor of the Highlands congregation. Presiding over the service was the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, who preached the sermon and conducted the service. Supporting him were Dr. R. D. Bedinger, of Asheville, and the Rev. S. R. Crockett. The remainder of the ordaining committee appointed by the Asheville Presbytery consisted of Gus Leach, of Franklin, and Henry Wright, of Highlands. Following the ordination and installation, Dr. Bedinger gave the charge to the pastor and the Rev. Mr. Crockett the charge to the people. A goodly congregation attended to join in the impressive service and all expressed the hope that the ministry of the Rev. R. B. DuPree would be a long, useful and happy one.

MONTEITH-McKINNEY

Miss Lois Monteith and Mr. Kenneth McKinney, both of Highlands, were married on Sunday, October 17, at Pickens, S. C. Mrs. McKinney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Monteith and Mr. McKinney is the son of Mr. Charles McKinney. The couple were accompanied to Pickens by relatives of the bride.

AIR MAIL WEEK WELL OBSERVED

The committee in charge of Air Mail Week in Highlands and the postoffice officials here have expressed great appreciation of the way in which the citizens of Highlands supported the local postoffice by sending out during the week 643 pieces of Air Mail. The goal set for Highlands by the committee was 1,000 letters, but this estimate was made while the hotels and guest houses were open. Due to weather conditions these resorts closed a little earlier than usual, so that the support for Air Mail Week came almost entirely from the townspeople. C. C. Potts, chairman of the committee in charge, said that he is very well pleased with the showing which the town made.

MRS. GROSSENBACHER PASSES IN FLORIDA

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. J. G. Grossenbacher, at Plymouth, Fla. Mrs. Grossenbacher, who was well known in Highlands, having been a summer visitor for 14 years, died on Saturday, and was buried at Plymouth on Tuesday. Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Gus Morton, of Plymouth, and five sons, Carl, of California, and Sam, William, Jack, and Calvin, all of Plymouth, Fla.

RAINWATER HOUSE TO BE SHOW PLACE

Much interest is being shown in the building of the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Rainwater on the top of Little Yellow mountain. The house will be very large for this section of the country and, it is said, will be the show place of Western North Carolina. The house commands one of the finest views in Highlands and is easily accessible. It is understood that every specimen of flower and plant life which grows in these mountains will be planted on this estate. A large crew of local men are being employed on this project and it is of great benefit to Highlands.

ED. ROGERS APPOINTED CHIEF OF POLICE

At the meeting of the board of commissioners on Friday of last week, Ed. Rogers was appointed as chief of police. Mr. Rogers has been chief of police in former years and will continue his efficient service in that capacity.

SCHOOL NEWS

The honor roll for the Highlands school has been announced by the principal, O. F. Summer. This includes the first month's work, and is as follows: First grade—Harry Holt, Jr., Bernice Keener, Mary Phillips, James Reese, Maxine Talley. Second grade—Dollie Wilson, Mary Gibson, Edna Norton, Herbert Johnson. Third grade—Neva Lee Webb, Edna Carver, Gladys Neely. Fourth grade—Edith McCall, Mary Lou Hedden, Angela Anderson, Barbara Zoellner. Sixth grade—Edna Phillips, Marie Houston. Seventh grade—Jessie Ann Potts, Margaret Rogers. High school, Felicia Edwards.

The pupils of the two sections of the second grade made a pilgrimage to the Museum on Friday morning, through the courtesy of Miss Mary J. Crosby, who opened it for them. The object of the trip was to see and study the Indian relics and exhibits which are on display. Not only was this a pleasure trip for the children, but it correlated most of the subjects which they are studying, reading, writing, art, spelling, arithmetic, etc.

New seats, costing in the region of $125 dollars, are now installed in the rooms where they are needed the most. These seats were supplied by the county. Towels have been furnished by the Satulah club for the third grade. Each of the 34 pupils in this grade has his personal towel. A cot was very kindly loaned to the first grade by Mrs. W. S. Davis.

There are 65 students in the Highlands high school, divided as follows: 15 pupils in the 8th grade, 17 in the 9th grade, 16 in the 10th grade, and 17 in the 11th grade. The names of the seniors are Robert McConnell, Jack Baty, Carleton Cleveland, Willard Crisp, James Hines, Tom McKinney, Steve Potts, R. L. Potts, Marshal Reese, Newton Crunkleton, Thomas Wright, Janice Beale, Carrie Dendy, Margaret Dendy, Mildred Zachary, Vera Owens, Carolyn Potts. This is an accredited high school, requiring 16 units for graduation with a diploma, English 4 units, Natural Science 4 units, Social Science 3 units, Mathematics 3 units, Latin 2 units. The principal, O. F. Summer, teaches Mathematics and Science. Clyde Hentz teaches History and Science, and Mrs. Katherine Rienhardt teaches English and Latin. In addition to the required subjects the high school pupils have the privilege of joining the O. F. Summer literary society. The object of the society is to learn to debate, declaim, and to speak in public. The members of the society conduct their own meetings twice each month in the auditorium, during school hours. One of the teachers is generally present in an advisory capacity. The officers are as follows: President, Newton Crunkleton; vice-president, Jack Baty; secretary, James Hines; captain, Mildred Zachary; reporting critic, Marshall Reese; prosecuting critic, Willard Crisp; pianist, Mozelle Bryson; pages, Guy Crisp and Elmer McDowdell; program committee, Carolyn Potts, Carleton Cleveland, and Ella Moore. Membership in the literary society is not compulsory, but all but six of the high school pupils have joined. Everyone is invited to attend the meetings of the society. Books are needed for the high school library. Fiction of all kinds, new and old, is desired. If anyone has novels, suitable for high school use, to donate they will be gladly received.

The theatre has supplied the high school with the following magazines

HITLER DOLLED UP

Dressed in a faultless uniform, Chancellor Adolph Hitler is greeted on his arrival at Nuremberg, Germany, to attend the National Socialist congress.

SKI FASHION FLASH

Paris.—Weird, but fashionable, is this ski addict, clad in Schiaparelli's latest outfit made of black wool and previewed at a Parisian salon. The boyish knee pants are held at the back with buckle and strap. The "shocking pink" helmet is hand-knitted. A short jacket and long loose coat complete the ensemble.

which are available at all times to the students: Time, The Pathfinder, The State, The American Magazine, The Woman's Home Companion, The Ladies' Home Journal, Nature Magazine, The National Geographic Magazine, Life, Popular Science, Forum, The Country Gentleman. The Readers Digest is being donated each month from an outside source.

High school chapel programs will be presented after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Henry G. Evans, of Montgomery, Ala., left for her home on Tuesday, last week, after spending the summer at her home, "Tree Tops," here.

Mrs. H. P. P. Thompson returned on Monday from a week-end visit to her daughter, Sarah Bridges Thompson, who is a student at Queens-Chicora college in Charlotte. Miss Thompson recently won the first prize in a dramatics contest at the college.

Miss Valerie Dougal returned on Friday from a trip to Alexandria, Va., and Baltimore, Md. She was accompanied by Mrs. Dougal, who will return to Highlands this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Overton S. Chambers, of Chicago, Ill., arrived on Tuesday and are guests at Edwards hotel.

Miss Tryphena Kelley and her father, of Greenville, S. C., will spend the week-end in the guest cottage of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Maret on Bear Pen mountain.

Corporal Murray Russell, U. S. Army, arrived on Friday, last week, to spend 60 days furlough visiting his brothers at Broadway. Corporal Russell, who is stationed at Fort Bragg, is the son of the late Milford Russell and Mrs. Russell.

Mayor W. S. Davis returned on Friday from Atlanta where he has been staying with his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, for a short time.

Recent guests at Hotel Edwards include Mrs. W. H. Crutchfield, Mrs. J. M. Cheek, Miss Novelle Cheek, and Mr. John M. Cheek, Jr., of Durham. They were visiting Miss Florence Crutchfield, who is a teacher at the Highlands school. Miss Crutchfield entertained a small group of friends on Sunday evening in honor of her guests. The party left early Monday morning for the return trip to Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Rainwater, of Pensacola, Fla., and their son, Crawford, are spending some time at Hotel Edwards. Mr. Ernest D. Ivey, of Atlanta is also here with them.

Mrs. A. H. Hutchinson, of Chicago, left on Monday after spending some time at Hotel Edwards.

Other guests at Hotel Edwards are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Aman, and Mr. and Mrs. Ramon de la Cruz, of Havana, Cuba, and Mr. James Shea, of Washington, D. C.

Recent guests at Potts House were the Misses Helen Carroll, Beulah Boonshot, Bertha M. Lee, Lelia M. Petrie, all of Indianapolis, Ind., and Mr. Clyde J. Knapp, of Oakland, Calif. While here Mr. Knapp entertained the guests at Potts House and a few friends with motion pictures which he has taken himself in the far west. Of particular interest were pictures of ranch life and rodeo stunts.

The Rev. W. F. Beadle left on Wednesday afternoon for Asheville to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church. He will return the first of next week.

Mrs. Frank Potts and Mrs. G. W. Maret left on Thursday for a few days' visit with Mrs. Potts' daughter, Mrs. Jay Chapman, who lives in Atlanta, Ga.

A class was studying magnetism. Teacher—"Robert, how many natural magnets are there?"

Student—"Two, sir."

Teacher (surprised)—"And will you please name them?"

Student—"Blonds and brunettes, sir."

The meadowlark probably would become the American national bird should the eagle ever be forced to abdicate its throne.
