REV. W. F. BEADLE RETURNS FOR ANOTHER YEAR

The congregation of the Highlands Methodist church and the rest of the community are gratified at the return of the pastor, the Rev. W. F. Beadle, for another year. Mr. Beadle has been permanently transferred to this conference from the Louisiana conference. In addition to his present charges, Mr. Beadle will serve the churches at Norton and Glenville. Both Mr. and Mrs. Beadle are well liked in Highlands and all are glad to welcome them back again.

FIRE DESTROYS INTERIOR OF ELROD HOUSE

Fire destroyed the interior of the house belonging to Dewey Elrod on Saturday afternoon. The fire department responded to an alarm at about 4 o'clock. The blaze broke out in a room on the second floor and was caused by a defective fire. The family was able to save clothing and some of the household furnishings. A small amount of insurance was carried on the house and several donations have been made to Mr. Elrod. At present the family is living on the Gottwals place.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR MEETING

A large crowd attended the meeting of the Christian Endeavor at the Presbyterian church on last Sunday evening. Among other resolutions it was decided that the group be reorganized according to the latest plans of the young people of the Synod. These elections will take place next Sunday evening. Hitherto this group has been composed of young people of all denominations who have worked together under the name of a Young People's League. The action taken last Sunday makes it a distinctly Presbyterian group.

On Monday a pick-up team from the Christian Endeavor met the high school basket-ball team on the school court. The final score was 44-20, the victory going to the Christian Endeavor.

SCHOOL NEWS

Three replies have been received from letters mailed by the school pupils during Air Mail Week. The first grade wrote to Governor Hoey and in reply received an excellent picture of himself autographed "Sincerely yours, Clyde R. Hoey, Governor." Gov. Hoey also wrote to the class.

The fifth grade wrote to the chamber of commerce at Montreal, Canada, requesting literature and information about Montreal, which was received here during last week.

The sixth grade sent a letter addressed to themselves to Kitty Hawk with the request that it be postmarked and returned to them. It was received here a few days after being mailed.

The seventh grade wrote to President Roosevelt, but as yet no reply has been received.

Twelve new seats have been installed in the seventh grade room and are a great improvement over the old equipment. The tables have been newly painted, giving the room a cleaner and brighter appearance. New work books in Language, History and Arithmetic are being used by the seventh grade and are appreciated by the pupils. One seventh grader wrote "Our work books prepare us for higher work and give us exact facts about important things. They also direct our study, save paper, and cost little." The class has sold $10 worth of subscriptions to the "Farm Life Magazine" and will receive as a prize a fine volley ball, in addition to individual prizes given for selling a dollar's worth of subscriptions.

On October 15 the seventh graders listened with benefit and enjoyment to the radio program of music appreciation by Walter Damrosch.

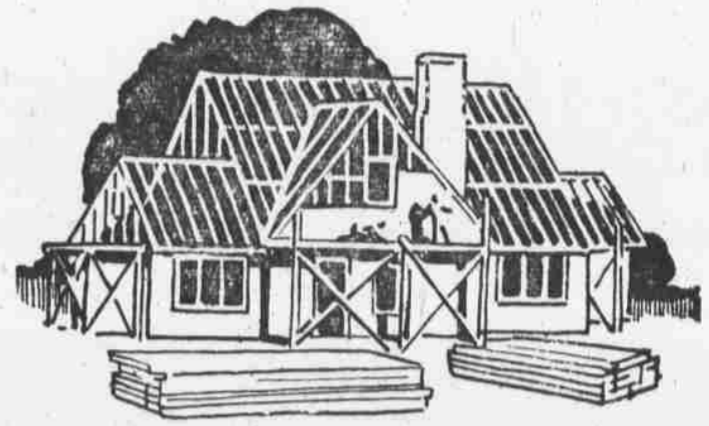

Mrs. Roger Smith has given to the seventh grade 28 books of fiction including the following: A Man For The Age, Ann of Ave, The Works of Edgar Allan Poe, Heart of the Rose, Angeline at the Seel Bach, Angeline Doin' Society, Angeline Steppin' Out, Dawgs, Lions, Story of Young Benjamin Franklin, To-day's Children, A Laugh a Day Keeps The Doctor Away, The Story of Young George Washington, The Virginian, Recollections and Letters of Robert E. Lee, The Crucible, The Fotygraph Album, Clever County, The North America Almanac, 1931, Lindbergh's, The Midlander, My Favorite Story, We Must March, Poetry of War, Tom Sawyer, The Rebel Rider, Little Women, The Great Southwest. Mrs. Smith also gave the class 40 recent magazines, and Mrs. Frank Bloxham gives "Life" each week.

Something which the students of the seventh grade may do, but which is not compulsory, is the composition of original poetry. Two of the poems follow:

MY MOTHER
 (By Malcolm Zoellner)
 My Mother is the sweetest thing,
 She's very dear to me.
 I help her every bit I can,
 And she does lots for me.
