SLAGLE-BULGIN

Of much interest to a wide circle of friends was the wedding of Miss Margaret Slagle, of Cartoogechaye, to John Bulgin, of Franklin, which took place at the Mt. Zion Methodist church on Cartoogechaye Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, before a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

The church in its lofty setting of autumn colors, was tastefully decorated with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and mountain greenery. White candelabra flanked the altar, where the Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

The wedding music was furnished by Miss Elizabeth McGuire, of Franklin, a cousin of the groom, who played "To a Wild Rose" by Nevins, Liebestraum and the Lohengrin as a processional, to which the bride and groom entered together unattended. Soft strains of Schubert's Serenade was played as the vows were spoken. At the close an attractively bound copy of the lovely ring ceremony was presented the bride by Mr. Flanagan. Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as the recessional.

The bride wore a becoming three piece suit of Lincoln green, with matching accessories, with the flaring collar of gray fox. Her shoulder corsage was talisman roses.

Mrs. Bulgin is the talented and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slagle and the granddaughter of Mrs. Henry Slagle of "The Arboretum". She is a graduate of the Sand Hill high school near Asheville and of Brevard Junior college at Brevard.

Mr. Bulgin is the son of Mrs. George M. Bulgin and the late George M. Bulgin, of Franklin. He is a graduate of the Franklin high school and is now manager of the Bulgin Machine Shop.

Acting as ushers were: D. S. Abbott, Gilmer Crawford, Carl Tysinger and B. L. Sherrill, of Franklin.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bulgin left by motor for a short trip in the south. After this week they will be at home in Franklin to their friends.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Miss Louise Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Nat White, Mrs. Clarence Choate and daughter, Nanette, of Charlotte; William Eison and Charles Reed, of Wall-halla, S. C., and Humphrey Gambrell, of Greenville, S. C.

POWERS-OVERCASH

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Powers, of Statesville, of the engagement of their daughter, Villa Pauline, to Hayes E. Overcash, the marriage to be solemnized at 5 o'clock on Thanksgiving Day in the Methodist church.

The bride-elect is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Powers. She received her education in the Iredell county high school and attended Berry College, Rome, Ga., where she received her degree in the class of 1934. Miss Powers holds a position as home management supervisor with the farm security administration with office in Franklin, and is also Girl Scout captain of troop No. 1 in Franklin.

The groom-elect is the son of Mrs. R. B. Overcash and the late Mr. Overcash of Charlotte. He was graduated from the Mecklenburg county high school and attended Berry college where he received his degree in the class of 1937. He now holds a teaching position in the Franklin high school.

SHOWER SATURDAY FOR MRS. H. G. GILLESPIE

Honoring Mrs. Howard G. Gillespie, the former Miss Lois Henry, Miss Meta Peek and Mrs. Ellis Clark Soper entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. T. Peek.

In the living room, reception hall and dining room arrangements of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were used, and centered the dining table which bore appointments carrying out the autumnal colors. Approximately fifty friends called during the hours, leaving a nice collection of beautiful and useful gifts.

The hostesses were assisted in the dining room by Mrs. I. T. Peek and Mrs. Ray Swanson, who served delicious sandwiches, cakes, cocoa and mints.
