HALL-DOWDLE

The marriage of Miss Margaret Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Hall, of Sylva, and Charles Norman Dowdle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Dowdle, of Franklin, was solemnized Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Methodist church in Sylva. The Rev. George B. Clemmer, of Albemarle, former pastor of the bride, officiated.

The church was decorated with evergreens and ferns which formed a background for four wrought iron candelabra, each bearing seven white candles. Between these were tall white urns filled with white chrysanthemums. The windows were also banked with greenery and held white candles.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Margaret Candler, pianist, and Miss Virginia Gustafson, violinist, gave the following musical program: "Traumerer" by Schuman; "Salut d'Amour" by Edward Elgar; "Cavatina" by Raff, "The Old Refrain" by Kreisler; "Russian Romance" by Friml; and "Venetian Love Song" by Ethelbert Nevin. Miss Dorothy Moore sang "All For You" by Bertrand Brown, "Because" by D'Hardelot and the concluding prayer, "Oh Perfect Love." During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell was played. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the recessional.

Miss Hazel Plaster, of Winston-Salem, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Geraldine Johnson, of Rocky Mount; Miss Elizabeth Dowdle, of Franklin, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Hannah Lou Brown, of Cullowhee, cousin of the bride; Miss Anne Enloe, of Dillsboro, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Mark Martin, of Sylva. Little Martha Council, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Council, of Boone, and cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Charles Hunter, of Franklin, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ushers were Charles Kusser, of Franklin; William Willis, of Greer, S. C.; McCoo Brown, of Raleigh, cousin of the bridegroom, Reginald Enloe, of Dillsboro, cousin of the bride, and Robert Hall, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Bulgin is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver V. Hall, of Franklin. She received her education in the Franklin high school and is now cashier in the Macon Theatre.

Mr. Bulgin, the youngest son of Mrs. George M. Bulgin and the late George M. Bulgin, of Franklin, is a graduate of the Franklin high school and attended Maryville college, in Maryville, Tenn. He is now employed in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Bulgin will join her husband in Detroit soon, where they plan to make their home in the future.

Mrs. John Rigdon, who has been spending several months in Franklin with her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Rimmer and Dr. Rimmer, at their home on West Main street, has returned to her home in Tifton, Ga. On her return she was accompanied by Mrs. Rimmer and Mrs. John C. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Neville Sloan and Neville, Jr., and Miss Timoxena Sloan, of Atlanta, spent the week-end here with their mother, and grandmother, Mrs. J. S. Sloan at her home in East Franklin. On their return Monday, they were accompanied by W. W. Sloan, who will spend several days in Atlanta visiting.

William Blaine, a student at Mars Hill college, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Blaine, at their home on Harrison avenue.

Mrs. Mary Allman has been confined to her bed for the past week suffering from an attack of influenza.

Mrs. Frank Holbrooks has returned to her home at Candler, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dalton, at their home at West's Mill.

Miss Esther Waldroop, who has been taking a course in Beauty Culture in Asheville, has returned to her home on Cartoogechaye.

Mrs. T. M. Rickman and children, of Canton, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Rickman's father-in-law, John E. Rickman, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson.

Dead at Birth—Now Husky Baby

Dr. Arthur B. E. Smith of Margaret Hague Maternity hospital at Jersey City, N. J., shown examining husky Master Garry, infant son of Mrs. Isabel Garry, who is the latest evidence of science's wonders. At birth the child was stillborn. Injection of five drops of adrenalin into the infant's heart followed. The heart began beating again and the child began to breathe.

Three Beauties on a Bannister

Flo Ward (front) and Eleanor Norris (center) of New York city and Lovey Warren of Emporia, Kan., attractive visitors in Miami, Fla., this fall. All indications point to a record autumn and winter for this winter resort city, experts say.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dowdle, before moving into an apartment of Sam Greenwood's on West Main Street.

Miss Dorothy Stewart, who has been doing stenographic work in Durham, was recently transferred to Atlanta. Miss Stewart was accompanied by Miss Evelyn Kay, of Columbia, S. C., who has also been transferred to Atlanta, spent the week-end here with Miss Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Stewart, at their home on Kiverview street.

The friends of Mrs. Moody Bolick throughout Macon county will regret to learn that she has had the misfortune to break her arm in a fall that she received last week. Mrs. Bolick is spending the winter with her son, C. B. and Mrs. Bolick, at their home in Arlington, Va.

Mrs. E. A. Woodruff, of Columbia, S. C., is visiting her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Woodruff, on Harrison avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Cantey Johnson and son, James Cantey, of Madison, are spending a few days with Mr. Johnson's mother, Mrs. J. W. C. Johnson.
