HASKET-HIGDON

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Haskett announce the marriage of their daughter, Otelia Haskett, of Ellijay, to T. B. Higdon, Jr., of Higdonville, son of T. B. Higdon, Sr.

The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Moore, at Higdonville, on October 25.

Arthur Mosteller, a justice of the peace, officiated.

The young couple plan to make their future home in Clarksville, Ga.

HURST-SOUTHARDS

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss May Hurst to Venson Southards on May 8.

Miss Southards is from West's Mill and is a graduate of Franklin high school. Mr. Southards was formerly a member of CCC camp F-20 at West's Mill.

RECEPTION GIVEN FOR MR. AND MRS. DOWDLE

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Dowdle entertained at a reception Friday evening in honor of their son, Charles Norman Dowdle, and his bride, the former Miss Margaret Hall, of Sylva.

Miss Virginia McGuire greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Dowdle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norman Dowdle, and Mr. and Mrs. David M. Hall, of Sylva, parents of the bride.

Mrs. Dowdle, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in black velvet with orchids, Mrs. Hall, mother of the bride, wore an orchid chiffon with a shoulder corsage of orchids. Mrs. C. N. Dowdle wore black velvet. Her flowers were rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss Margaret Cozad and Miss Elizabeth McGuire directed the guests to the dining room. The table was overlaid with an exquisite lace cloth, centered with a silver bowl filled with pink rosebuds and fern. Flanking this were silver candelabra holding lighted white tapers, carrying out a color motif of yellow, pink, and white, which was furthered in the ice course served.

The spacious home was artistically decorated in quantities of yellow, pink, and white chrysanthemums, interspersed with fern.

More than 300 friends called during the evening.

SHOWER FOR MRS. BRABSON BULGIN

Mrs. Lon Campbell was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Thursday afternoon at her home on the Bryson City highway, honoring Mrs. Brabson Bulgin, the former Miss Anna Jean Hall, whose marriage was recently announced.

Arrangements of chrysanthemums were the decorations in the living room where the guests assembled. The dining room table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a bowl of fruits flanked with red lighted candles, carrying out the autumnal scheme.

Approximately 100 friends called during the afternoon, leaving a beautiful assortment of linens, pottery, silver, blankets, comforts, and a variety of other articles.

The hostess, assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Douglas Nichols, served punch and wafers.

MISSIONARY CIRCLE MEETING HELD WITH MRS. CABE

The first monthly devotional and business meeting of the Mary Johnston Allman Circle, a branch of the Women's Missionary society of the Franklin Methodist church, met at the home of Mrs. Carl P. Cabe on Thursday evening, November 11.

Twelve of the charter members were present and four new members were added to the roll during the meeting.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Roy Cunningham with Miss Frances McNeill and Miss Ruth Slagle assisting.

The circle voted to prepare a box for the Passmore family, whose home was destroyed by fire Monday, November 8. It was also decided to send a basket of fruit to Mrs. Mary Allman, for whom the circle was named, and who has been seriously ill with influenza for several days.

At the close of the meeting a white elephant sale was held which furnished much amusement for all present. The proceeds are to be kept in the treasury for local use. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. BULGIN

Miss Rebecca Conley was hostess for a farewell party Saturday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Adolph Zoellner, honoring Mrs. Brabson Bulgin, nee Miss Jean Hall, a recent bride, prior to her departure for Detroit, Mich.

Each guest, a former schoolmate of Mrs. Bulgin, brought a gift, which was laid upon a table with a yellow chrysanthemum and evergreen centerpiece. The same color scheme was carried out throughout the living room.

Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening, and the hostess was assisted in serving by Misses Esta Mae Childers and Helen Foster, also Mrs. Zoellner. Before the refreshments a toast was given to the bride by Miss Conley.

Musical selections were given by Herschel Henson.

MRS. CHURCH ENTERTAINS PAST WORTHY MATRONS

Mrs. H. E. Church entertained with a luncheon Monday at her home in the Orlando apartments on Harrison avenue, complimentary to all the past worthy matrons of the Tuckaseegee Chapter of the Eastern Star at Bryson City.

At the October meeting it was decided to present each worthy matron with a little token of remembrance on their birthdays, Sunday being Mrs. Church's anniversary, the ladies presented her with a beautiful bowl of pottery filled with narcissus bulbs.

Those from Bryson City enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Church were: Mrs. Vinnie Carter, Mrs. A. R. Messer, Mrs. A. M. Bennett, Mrs. Frank Frye, Mrs. A. J. DeHart and Mrs. J. F. Rider and Mrs. W. C. Penn, of Franklin.
