MRS. MARY ALLMAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

On Saturday, February 12, Mrs. Mary Ailman celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary at her home on Harrison avenue.

Mrs. Aliman, who is affectionately known to many as "Sister," has been sick for several months, but still has that sweet, lovable disposition that has endeared her to so many.

Mrs. Allman has spent a very active and useful life and has been a source of comfort and pleasure to all who have come in contact with her. She has been a member of the Woman's Missionary society of the Franklin Methodist church for the past 60 years, and last year the society presented her a life membership. She was present when the society was organized and has remained a loyal and faithful member since and has done much toward carrying the work on as long as she was able to attend.

Despite the fact that Mrs. Allman had to spend the day in bed, many of her friends called, leaving little tokens of remembrances and wishes for many more happy birth-

TOBACCO GROWERS KNOW

I'VE GROWN OVER 87,000 POUNDS OF TOBACCO IN THE PAST FIVE YEARS. THE TOP GRADES OF MY LAST CROP WENT TO CAMEL AT BEST PRICES. THEY ALMOST ALWAYS DO. LIKE MOST PLANTERS, I SMOKE CAMELS. I KNOW THEY'RE MADE

OF FINER TOBACCOS!

TOBACCO planters work hard to produce to ... "Camel leaf. They know who buys their finer leaf, too. "Camel 'most always does," says Cecil White. And he, like most other planters, smokes Camels. As he says: "We know what tobacco's in 'em." Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS - Turkish and Domestic.
