MRS. RIMMER ELECTED PRESIDENT GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. R. M. Rimmer was elected president of the Garden club at its meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sam L. Rogers at Rogers Hall here. Mrs. L. H. Page was associate hostess.

Other officers elected are: Mrs. J. S. Sloan, vice-president; Mrs. Lester S. Conley, secretary, and Mrs. Frank Higdon, treasurer.

The program committee consists of Mrs. B. W. Woodruff, chairman; Mrs. W. C. Penn, Mrs. Frank Higdon, and Mrs. James L. Averell. The committee for the annual flower show consists of Miss Mary Willis, chairman; Mrs. W. A. Rogers, Mrs. H. E. Church, and Mrs. Henry W. Cabe.

An attractive arrangement of potted plants was on display at the meeting. The judges, Mrs. W. C. Penn, Mrs. W. B. McGuire, and Mrs. Lee Leach, awarded blue ribbons to Mrs. John R. Faison, Mrs. L. H. Page, and Mrs. H. E. Church. Red ribbons went to Mrs. Henry W. Cabe, Mrs. H. E. Church, and Mrs. John R. Faison, while those winning third place were Mrs. Frank Higdon and Mrs. T. W. Angel, Jr.

The May meeting will be held at Franklin Terrace, with Miss Mary Willis and Mrs. H. E. Church as joint hostesses.

MARY ALLMAN CIRCLE TO MEET APRIL 14

The regular monthly business and devotional meeting of the Mary Johnston Allman Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Omahundro on Thursday evening, April 14, at 7:30. Mrs. John Sherrill will act as assisting hostess.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S BIBLE CLASS MEETS SUNDAY

The Young People's Bible class of the Franklin Methodist church will meet at the regular hour, 9:45, in the church auditorium Sunday morning.

The subject to be discussed on Palm Sunday (which is next Sunday), will be "The Hope of the World." Subjects are chosen in advance and are discussed in an open forum manner.

Hayes B. Overcash, leader of this young group, cordially invites any and all of the young people in town to attend these classes.

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIORS AT BANQUET

A gala evening of entertainment was provided Friday by the junior class of the Franklin high school, complimentary to the members of the senior class, when they gathered at the Tavern for the annual junior-senior banquet, with approximately 150 students, members of the faculty and invited guests present.

The banquet hall was attractively decorated with green balloons and green and white streamers floating about the ceiling. The senior class colors, green and white, was carried out in the decorations of the tables, bearing tiny green mint cups and place cards which expressed the "April Fool" idea. The white service and white lilac blossoms which banked the windows, completed the green and white motif.

After the guests had enjoyed the dinner, they were entertained with readings by Trixie Lee Rowland and Dorothy Lee Morrison, of the junior class. Adding further to the festive atmosphere, the guests indulged in a bit of reminiscing by turning the pages of a school album from which emerged living portraits of former teachers. The teachers who were so cleverly portrayed were:

Miss Josephine Weaver, by Fannie Mae Sherrill; Miss Ruth Slagle, by Elizabeth Rochester; Hayes B. Overcash, by John Slagle; W. H. Finley, by Albert Ramsey, Jr.; G.

L. Houk, by Harry Higgins, Jr.; Mrs. Helen Macon, by Louise Walldrop; Miss Jennie Gillam, by Freddie Hall; David Herring, by Charles Hunnicutt; Miss Marie Palmer, by Dorothy Lee Morrison; Mr. Lee, by Bill Wilkie; Miss Irma Walker, by Lillian Jones; Miss McNeil, by Helen Rowland; Mr. Campbell, by Wayne Bradley; and Miss Bailey, by Hallie Cabe.

Among the invited guests were: M. D. Billings, superintendent of public schools for Macon county, Mr. and Mrs. D. Robert Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips and John Norton, members of the school board, Earl H. Meacham, of Raleigh, former agriculture teacher in the Franklin high school, Mrs. G. L. Houk, Mrs. Hayes B. Overcash, and Mrs. W. H. Finley.

Virginia Brookshire, 10 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brookshire, fell out of a swing while playing at her home on Cartoogechaye last Friday and broke both bones in her left arm between the wrist and elbow. She is reported to be getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson and daughter, Minnie Lee, and John E. Rickman have returned to their home here after spending the week-end in Fitzgerald, Ga., with their brother and son, Sloan Rickman and Mrs. Rickman. J. E. Rickman, Jr., who is in the Navy and who was at Savannah, Ga., for a few days, also spent the week-end in Fitzgerald with his brother, Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Kesler and young son, William, of Salisbury, spent the week-end here with Mrs. Kesler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Angel, Sr.

Ernest Rankin and sister, Miss Lily Rankin, who have been spending the winter months at Ft. Myers, Fla., returned to their home on Riverview street last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Siler, of West Asheville, spent a while here Monday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown, Jr., who are now making their home in Moultrie, Ga., spent the week-end here with their mothers, Mrs. C. S. Brown, at the Scott Griffin hotel, and Mrs. H. O. Cozad.

Mrs. George Bulgin left Sunday for Birmingham, Ala., for a visit with her brother, Prileau Brabson and Mrs. Brabson.

Demonstrator

MISS CAMILLE BEAUCHAMP
Who Will be in Charge of the Electric Cooking School Next Week

COOKINGSCHOOL HERE TUES.-WED.

Electrical Cooking To Be Demonstrated at Office Of Power Company

An electric cooking school will be conducted in the office of the Nantahala Power and Light company next Tuesday and Wednesday, April 12 and 13, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The school will be conducted by Miss Camille Beauchamp, home economist for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, and Mrs. Dorcas Allen, home economist for the Nantahala Power and Light company.

Miss Beauchamp is a university graduate in home economics, and has also done graduate work in various universities, including Columbia University, where she studied dietetics and nutrition. Recently she attended the home service conference sponsored by the Westinghouse company, which was attended by home service directors for leading magazines and utilities throughout the United States.

Miss Beauchamp has directed cooking schools in many cities in North and South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, and Mississippi, her home state.

The public is cordially invited to attend the cooking school and witness the demonstrations given by Miss Beauchamp and Mrs. Allen.

Food Sale At Gift Shop

The ladies of the St. Agnes church will conduct a food sale at the Kelly Gift Shop on Friday, April 8, beginning at 10 a. m. Mrs. W. H. Sellers is chairman of the group.

Cakes of various kinds, doughnuts, rosettes, pies and other good things will be on sale.

More Outsize Eggs Brought In

And still the big hen eggs come in.

Miller Ledford, of Prentiss, brought one in Saturday which weighed five ounces. The egg was somewhat unusual in that it was extremely long and both ends exactly the same in size and shape. It was laid by a young hen.

Mrs. Hermon Saunders, who lives on Highway 28, brought in an egg Monday, which was laid by a thoroughbred Rhode Island Red hen, and measured over three inches in length and weighed four ounces, and Mrs. W. E. Furr came in Tuesday morning with one weighing four and one-fourth ounces, laid by one of her young New Hampshire Red hens.

19 YEARS A TOBACCO GROWER

LAST YEAR I RAISED SOME MIGHTY FINE TOBACCO. WHEN I PUT IT ON THE MARKET, EVERY ONE OF MY CHOICE LOTS WAS BOUGHT IN BY CAMEL. THEY PAY MORE TO GET THE BEST. I SMOKE CAMELS. THOSE MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS IN CAMELS SURE MAKE A DIFFERENCE

MR. BECKHAM
WRIGHT, a grower of
fine tobacco

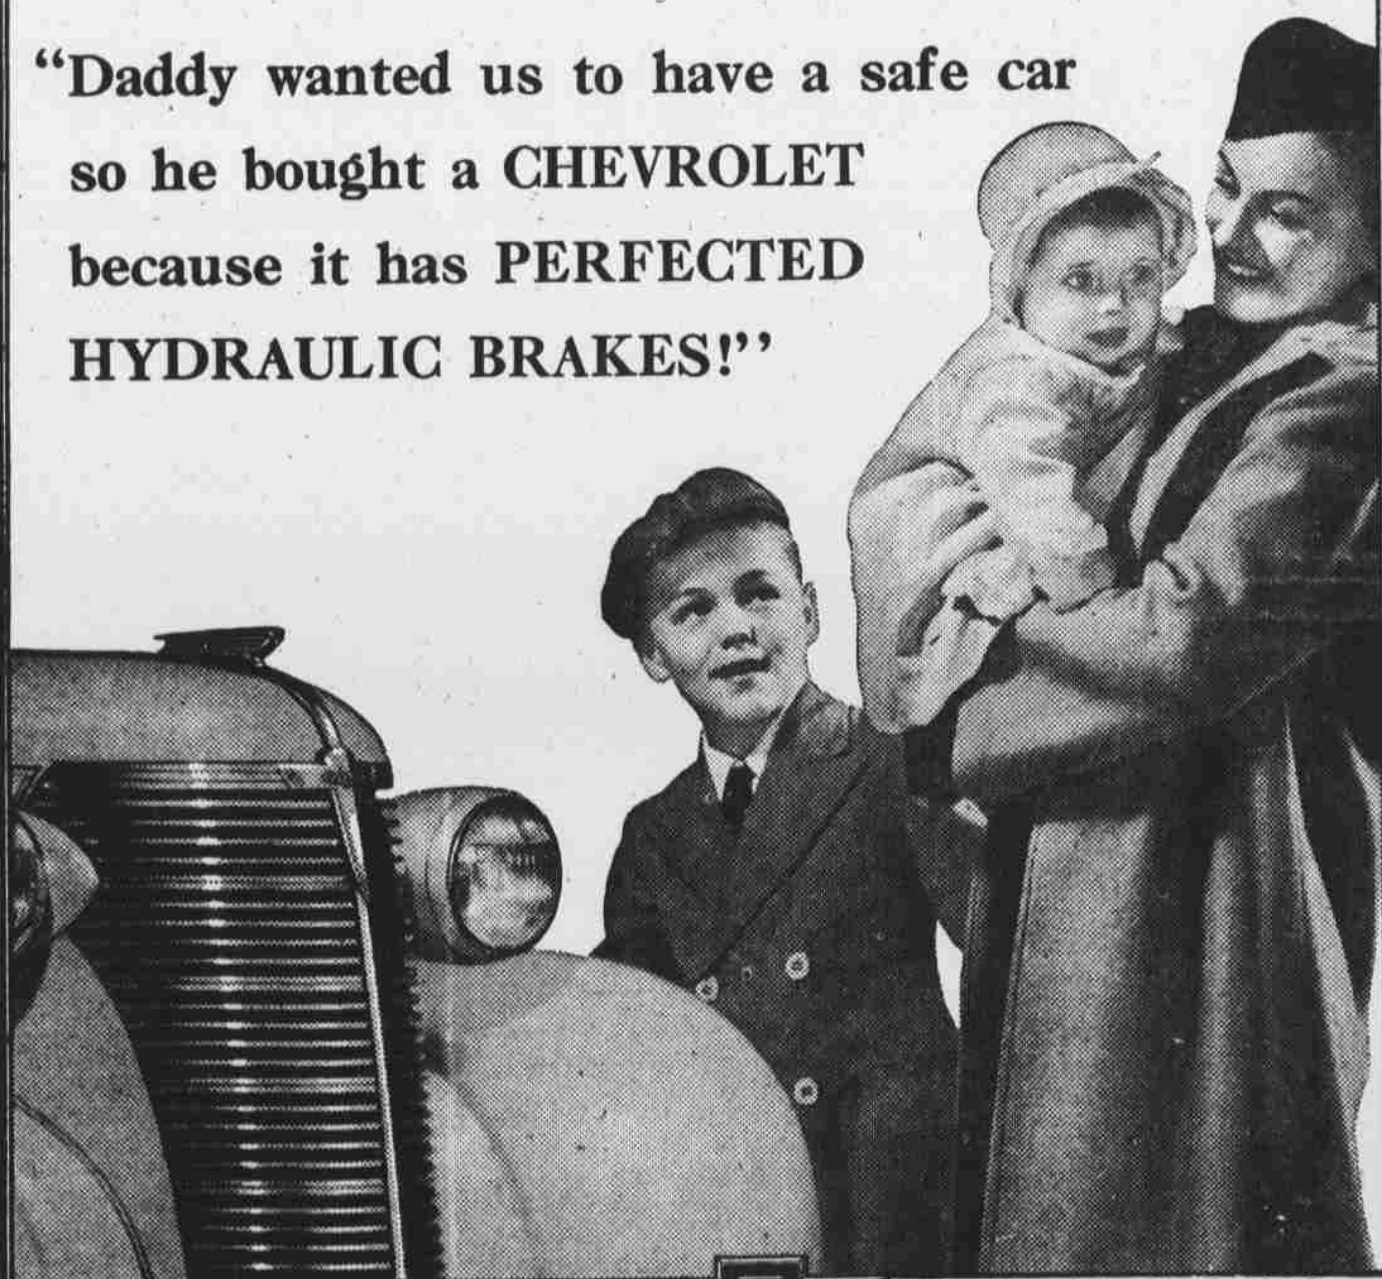

WHEN a man grows tobacco, he knows tobacco. So, when a planter favors Camels for his own smoking, it shows that Camels have something that is different. Planters report: "Most of us choose Camels. We enjoy those finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS."

"WE SMOKE CAMELS
BECAUSE WE KNOW TOBACCO"
