NOTICE

To All Persons Interested

I now own a registered Percheron Stallion, being the horse formerly owned by Gilmer Jones. I will leave Franklin on the morning of April 19, and have the Stallion at Marshall Burnette's at Scaly, N. C., until April 30. I will then have the horse at my barn two miles east of Franklin.

Science Beats the Sun

INDUSTRIAL engineers have now developed the device shown above, Consumers Information reports, to test color-fastness of fabrics, so that manufacturers can make sure in advance that their materials won't fade in the sun. Women never used to be sure that their dresses and draperies would retain their original brilliance until they had actually been exposed to sunlight. But through the use of this machine, developed by industrial research experts, it is now possible to tell whether dyed fabrics will hold their color. This is one more example of how industry helps the consumer.

CLEAN-UP BEGUN BY NYA GROUP

Rubbish Being Gathered And Hauled Away By Government Truck

Twelve young men employed by the National Youth Administration, which is directed in Macon county by Mrs. J. A. Ordway, have been assigned the task of assisting in a clean-up campaign in Franklin. A government truck has been supplied and the boys have gone to work right manfully.

The NYA truck is a one-and-one-half ton, with stake body. In the first four days 25 loads of rubbish from the center of town were removed. The cooperation of the residents of Franklin is asked in locating less conspicuous trash, and putting it where it can be picked up. Work for this period was concluded Thursday noon, to be resumed April 26.

These boys should have the whole-hearted cooperation of all citizens in their efforts to make the town cleaner and more beautiful as well as healthful, for our people and for those who are expected to visit us during the summer season.

It is also understood that plans are being considered by the town authorities for a general clean-up of the town and a more strict enforcement of the sanitary ordinances.

Buck Creek

By MISS BEE SHOOK

The farmers in this community are all very busy.

Mrs. Floyd Houston and daughter, Floie, were visiting her son, Don Houston, Sunday.

Edison Ammons and Bill Henry, of Ellijay, made a business trip to Buck Creek last week.

J. W. Shelton is on the sick list. Mrs. Ruby Rogers is able to be up again after being confined to her bed with influenza.

Mr. Garrett Franks celebrated his 84th birthday with a birthday dinner at the home of his son, Jake Franks, on March 29.

James Woodall has returned home to make a crop after spending three years in a CCC camp.

Nela Rogers and Bennett Barnes are spending a few days at home after being on a job in Virginia.

M. M. Barnes is very busy with his sawmill cutting lumber, and E. C. Shook is hauling lumber for Mr. Barnes to the Balsam Gap.

Woodrow Shook, from Otto, has been visiting friends and relatives here.

Rev. Tom Tiison and wife announce the wedding of their daughter, Charlotte, to Harvey Barnes, son of T. T. Barnes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Grant Woods.

Future Farmers

Entertain Dads Saturday Night With Banquet

Sam W. Mendenhall, farm agent for Macon county, was the principal speaker at the father and son banquet given by the vocational agricultural department of the Franklin high school in the American Legion hall Saturday evening.

More than 100 guests, fathers, and students attended the banquet, which was prepared under the supervision of Miss Frances McNeil, home economics teacher in the Franklin high school, and served by members of the home economics class.

The program included music by the Future Farmers of America; opening ceremony by the chapter; invocation by G. L. Houk, principal of Franklin high school; toast to dads, by Bobby McClure; response by J. W. Addington; "Our Work" by Gus Baldwin, toastmaster and president of the class, and introduction of the guest speaker by W. H. Finley, vocational instructor.

The guests included Guy L. Houk; Sam W. Mendenhall; Sam L. Williams, assistant county agent; Stuart B. Campbell, Hayes E. Overcash, and David F. Herring, members of the faculty; D. Robert Davis, chairman of the school board, and Ed B. Byrd, chairman of the county board of commissioners.

The officers of the Franklin vocational class are: Gus Baldwin, president; Fitz Waldrop, vice president; Claude Leatherman, secretary; Claude Southards, treasurer, and Mack Patton, reporter.

APRIL TERM OF COURT MONDAY

Judge J. H. Clement Will Preside; Short Term Is Expected

The April term of Macon superior court will convene next Monday, April 18, with Judge J. H. Clement, of Winston-Salem, presiding, and Solicitor John Queen on hand to look after the interests of the state.

There are no criminal cases in sight of any importance, and the small number of misdemeanors scheduled for trial are expected to be disposed of in short order.

The civil docket contains only 34 cases, a large proportion of them being uncontested divorce suits and routine matters, and officials predict that the coming term will be the shortest ever held in Macon county.

Mother of D. G. Stewart Dies In Hickory

D. G. Stewart has returned from Hickory where he was called on account of the death of his mother.

Mrs. Mary Eliza Stewart, 92, who died Sunday morning, April 3, at her home in Hickory, had been an invalid and confined to her bed for the past three years.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist church in Hickory Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. J. W. Kincheloe, pastor, assisted by the Rev. J. A. Satterfield, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. Interment was in the Battleboro cemetery.

Will Meet To Work On Iotla Cemetery

The members and friends of Iotla Methodist church will meet to clean off the grounds of the cemetery on Thursday, April 21. It will be an all-day affair, and all interested are urged to attend.

The Standard Coupe

The Standard Ford V-8, with 60-horsepower engine, gives you a lot of car for a little money.

300,000 new owners acclaimed the "thrifty 60" last year. Hundreds a day are buying it in 1938. Why?

Because it is priced low—includes essential equipment without extra charge—and goes farther between filling stations than any Ford car.

ever built. Owners all over the country report averages of 22 to 27 miles on a single gallon of gasoline.

But economy isn't all the story by any means. The Standard "60" is built with the same precision as the De Luxe "85," and has the same 112-inch wheelbase chassis. It is easy to look at and ride in—as well as easy to buy and run.

There's a Ford dealer near you.
