Additional Details In Death Of W. W. Smith

In the notice of the death of Mr. Wyatt Wiley Smith printed in The Press last week, there were some details missing which have since been supplied:

Wyatt Wiley Smith, oldest citizen of Highlands, was born in Cornelia, Habersham county, Ga., in 1851, and was the third son of Col. Larkin R. and Isobel Wade Smith.

He came to Highlands at the age of 16, and was there two years before the town was incorporated. He was married to Miss Parthenia Ruthledge Hedden on February 23, 1873. He joined the Methodist church early in life and lived a consecrated life. He took part in all civic welfare projects, and served as tax collector for Highlands township, school trustee, road supervisor and deputy sheriff.

Besides his widow he is survived by three sons and three daughters. Funeral services were held at his home in Highlands and interment was in the Highlands cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: Preleau Hedden, Jack Hall, Frank Potts, Roy Phillips, Wendell McKinney and Jim Hicks. Honorary pallbearers were: J. C. Mell, S. T. Marett, N. H. McKinney, Jim Bud Rogers, J. Crankleton, S. P. Pierson, W. S. Davis and Mr. Root.
